PAUL LEICESTER FORD MURDERED BY BROTHER WHO THEN KILLS SELF

PAUL LEICESTER FORD.

Double Tragedy Occurred at Home of the Famous Novelist in New York--Quarrel Regarding Money the Cause.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Paul Leicester Ford, the novelist, was shot and killed today by his brother, Malcolm Webster Ford, writer and athlete, who immediately sent a bullet into his own breast, dying instantly. The shooting occurred at 10:20 a. m. in the handsome new mansion which Paul Leicester Ford had built at 37 East Seventy-seventh street and had occupied for about a year.

At the time of the shooting there were in the house besides the two brothers, Mrs. Paul Leicester Ford, Miss Elizabeth R. Hall, the novelist's secretary, and the servants. The novelist was sitting at his desk in one corner of his library, a large attractively appointed room at the back of the house on the second floor. It is supposed he was busily engaged at some literary task. Miss Hall was at her desk in another corner of the room about 30 feet from Mr. Ford. Mrs. Paul Leicester Ford was in her own room at the front of the house on the third floor.

Malcolm W. Ford called, as he often had done, and went to his brother at his desk. Words were exchanged in a tone so low that Miss Hall could not hear what was said, though she says that possibly she might have distinguished the words if she had been paying any attention to this particular meeting of the brothers.

Murder and Suicide.

Suddenly there was a revolver shot and Miss Hall, jumping up, darted from the room. Then, according to the statements of the police, Miss Hall said to herself that she must act more bravely and re-enter the library.

Meanwhile Malcolm Ford had called her. As she turned toward him he placed his revolver to his heart, fired and fell, dying instantly. When Miss Hall turned to look at Paul he was still standing at his desk, but rapidly losing strength. She helped him to a sofa and then ran next door for Paul Ford's physician, Dr. Emanuel Baruch. In less than five minutes Dr. Baruch arrived and the dying man, still conscious, was carried up to a room beside his wife's and placed on his bed. He spoke to his wife and asked the doctor for his opinion, showing that he expected death and was going to meet it calmly and bravely. A few moments later, about twenty minutes after he was shot, Mr. Ford died.

The bullet which killed Paul Leicester Ford just grazed the top of his heart and passed through a large artery ascending from it. The bullet which killed Malcolm Ford was fired with the same accuracy of aim, for it made a wound scarcely an inch lower than the one which killed his brother. In fact, the wounds were almost identical.

Murderer's Body Uncared For.

Just what disposition of Malcolm's body was made immediately after the shooting could not be ascertained, but it appears from the statement of certain persons acquainted with the details of the tragedy, that the body lay where it fell on a rug in the library for some time, possibly for several hours, so great was the excitement in the house. In fact, the murder and suicide were not known to the coroner until about 2:30 p. m., and not to the police until 4:25 p. m. Dr. Baruch said that the time between 10:20 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. passed so rapidly that no one in the house realized it. Much of the time was occupied in trying to telephone to the father of Mrs. Paul Leicester Ford, Edward H. Kidder, of Brooklyn, who was the first person to arrive after the physician.

Mr. Kidder refused to make any statement in regard to the shooting, except a brief memorandum which was given to the police. In this it was said that the cause of the shooting could be only surmised. Information from other sources makes it appear that Malcolm Ford called to get money from his brother, and meeting with a refusal, shot him. Dr. Baruch said that the murder was a result of temporary mental aberration on the part of Malcolm Ford, due to nervous exhaustion.

Enmity Between Brothers.

It is said that there was enmity between the two brothers, and consequent bitterness, and that it was of eleven years standing; that never since the death of their father have they been on intimate or brotherly terms. This alleged enmity on the part of Malcolm is said to have been brought about by the fact that the father of the boys disinherited Malcolm, and that this action on the father's part was because he did not wish Malcolm to devote himself to an athletic career.

Police Captain Brown said tonight that Malcolm W. Ford had for some time been causing much uneasiness to the family through evidences of an unbalanced mind, and declares that in his opinion, he attacked his brother during a period of temporary insanity, then taking his own life.

"The cause of Malcolm Ford's act," said Captain Brown, "can be explained by inference. For some time past his financial affairs have been pressing him, and he has repeatedly asked and received material assistance from his brother. It is presumed that his importunities had been such and his demand so excessive that his brother had been forced to refuse further aid."

Murderer Disinherited.

Paul Leicester Ford was a novelist of

FINAL APPEAL BY THE MINERS

Coal Operators Are Asked To Arbitrate the Differences.

But No Reply Has Been Received by President Mitchell and the Indications Are That a Strike Will Be Declared.

Scranton, Pa., May 8.—Tonight the situation in the threatened miners' strike hangs on answers that were expected to come to a proposal of arbitration emanating from this morning's session of the miners' committee.

This proposal was evidently agreed upon informally during the night, for it was only forty-five minutes from the time the meeting convened until adjournment was had.

President Mitchell at the close of the session gave out the following statement:

"The executive committees of the United Mine Workers' organization have proposed that all questions at issue between themselves and the anthracite mine operators be submitted to an impartial board of arbitration, such board to be selected by the industrial branch of the National Civic Federation. This proposition has been sent to the operators by wire. The committees are now awaiting replies."

Telegrams announcing this action were sent to the presidents of the nine big coal carriers and several officers of the civic federation.

If the operators have taken any action on the miners' proposition it has not been disclosed here. President Mitchell stated at 9 o'clock tonight that no answers had been received.

It is said the prevailing opinion here is that unless the operators agreed to arbitration or make some counter proposition, which will contain some concession, the committee of miners will declare for a strike.

ENCAMPMENT OF THE G. A. R.

Crowd at Washington Will Be the Largest on Record.

Washington, May 8.—From calculations made today by the officers of the local citizens' committee and Quartermaster General Burroughs, of the G. A. R., it is concluded that the crowd in attendance at the 1902 encampment of the Grand Army in this city will surpass that of any previous reunion or any gathering of any nature in the national capital.

The interest among the veterans generally, according to Colonel Burroughs, is notably greater than ever before. There is, in his judgment, every sign that the attendance will not only be greater in the number of individuals from each post, but in the presence of many posts as organizations which have never before attended an annual encampment.

Anticipating that such would be the case, the local citizens' committee has already been at work about six weeks arranging months ahead of time for accommodation of the greatest number of visitors the city can possibly hold. All these preparations are now in excellent shape. As special features of the encampment, it is proposed to decorate all the public buildings on a scale hitherto not attempted, to erect a court of honor in front of the white house, to have parades of the regular army, the militia and the Sons of Veterans, in addition to that of the veterans, to have a military pageant representing the successive wars of the United States, to dedicate a monument to Dr. F. H. Stephenson, founder of the G. A. R., and to lay the corner stone of the memorial bridge across the Potomac, between the Washington monument grounds and Arlington cemetery. This last project rests on proposed action by congress. President Roosevelt has manifested the most hearty approval of the encampment preparations, and stated that he will so shape his plans as to assist in every way possible.

City of St. Pierre, Containing 25,000 People, Reported To Be Totally Destroyed.

ALL SHIPS IN HARBOR SENT TO THE BOTTOM

Reports Indicate that Nearly Every Soul in the City of St. Pierre Perished by the Volcanic Flood from Mone Pele.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., May 8, 7 p. m.—The British steamer Roddam, Captain Freeman, which left St. Lucia Wednesday for Martinique, returned there at 5 o'clock this afternoon, bringing a report that the town of St. Pierre, Martinique, has been totally destroyed by volcanic disturbances in the island. Almost all the inhabitatns of St. Pierre are said to have been killed.

The Roddam reports that all the shipping in the port has also been destroyed. The Quebec Steamship Company's steamer Roraima is mentioned as lost, with all on board.

The Roddam was almost completely wrecked. Her captain was seriously burned and seventeen of her crew are dead.

Telegraphic Communication Broken.

Washington, May 8.—United States Consul Ayme today cabled the state department from Guadeloupe that great consternation prevails in that locality in consequence of earthquakes and volcanic activity. Loud noises are heard continuously, which are ascribed to volcanic action. Telegraphic communication with Martinique is broken in every direction. He says he is informed that many hundreds of people have been killed in and about Martinique.

St. Pierre, it was announced from St. Thomas on Saturday last, had been covered with ashes to the depth of a quarter of an inch, as the result of the outbreak of the Mont Pelee vvolcano, and appeared to be enveloped in fog. The town, which is the largest of the French West Indies, has a population of over 25,000 souls.

St. Pierre is one of the most picturesque towns of West Indies. It is built along the seashore at the foot of a high range of mountains, its houses are gayly painted and its cathedral is quaintly imposing, its streets are clean and bordered with trees and flowers, and it has quite an extensive club life with a French veneer.

The volcano of Pelee or La Pelee dominates the town, rising to a height of 4,000 feet.

Martinique has a romantic interest from being the birthplace of the Empress Josephine, and the island on which Madame de Maintenon lived when a child.

CITIES OF GUATEMALA WRECKED BY EARTHQUAKE

Guatemala City, Republic of Guatemala, April 24.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—For nearly a week earthquakes have been tumbling down cities and villages on the western slope of the Sierras in this republic.

On the night of April 18, at the capital, a blinding flash of lightning, followed by a thunderstorm and torrents of rain, all in the space of a few minutes, caused the people in the streets to rush for shelter. In an instant, however, the earthquake was upon them. Rushing frantically into the darkness and through flooded streets, anywhere away from the straining rafters and crackling walls, ran the multitude, crying, praying and a few trying to sing the Salve Regina.

The following shocks were less severe, and by 10 o'clock many of the inhabitants were wandering about examining the walls of the Cathedral of Santa Teresa, La Recollecion and other churches, which were more or less damaged.

Death Traps of Houses.

News soon began to come in from the hill country, where Quezaltenango is situated. This the second city of the republic, suffered by far the most. Hundreds of residences and public buildings were destroyed or severely damaged. The very narrow streets, often not over 3 or 4 yards wide, and the irregular manner in which the town is built served to make death traps of the houses, so that, although not half of the debris has yet been cleared, fully 200 bodies have been recovered and many persons were badly injured. Fire, as well as flood, added to the horror of the night, with the result that many people have gone insane and others have committed suicide.

Loss of Life Not Heavy.

Amatitlam, San Juan, San Marcos, Escuintla, Santa Lucia, Utatlan and several other smaller towns have been partly ruined, still very few lives, considering the extent of the disaster, have been lost.

The sessions of the national congress at Guatemala City have been suspended. The meetings of the national committee for the Louisiana Purchase exposition, and which Commissioner Chandler attended by special invitation, were continued without interruption for two hours though the shocks made the large crystal chandeliers swing like pendulums over the heads of the commissioners. Approximately 50,000 people have been left homeless, and public as well as private subscriptions are being raised to prevent the poor people from starving.

Bill Against Beef Trust.

Washington, May 8.—Attorney General Knox has completed his revision of the bill of complaint prepared by United States Attorney Bethea and today forwarded it to Chicago to be filed Saturday afternoon in the circuit court of the United States for the northern district of Illinois.

COLLEGES MAY BE UNITED HERE

Southwestern Presbyterian University and Columbia Seminary

Combined Schools Would Make One of the Largest Educational Institutions in Southern States—Georgia Synod Met Last Night.

A movement is on foot which may result in merging the Southwestern Presbyterian university, of Clarksville, Tenn., and Columbia seminary, of Columbia, S. C., into a great Presbyterian university to be located in Atlanta.

Such a university, if founded, would undoubtedly be the largest Presbyterian educational institution in the southern states and would be a great addition to the educational facilities of this section.

The combination of the two schools is not yet a certainty as the authorities of the two have not yet reached an agreement on the matter. Neither has it been absolutely determined to locate the larger university resulting from the combination in Atlanta. Atlanta is regarded by all interested in the university as best location and it is almost the universal wish of southern Presbyterians to have it brought here, but to insure the location of the university in this city Atlanta will have to put up quite a handsome sum.

The combined endowments of the Southwestern Presbyterian university and the Colubia seminary amount to something over $800,000. It is thought that the schools can be induced to combine and come to Atlanta if as much as $250,000 can be raised with which to purchase a suitable site and erect and equip the necessary college buildings.

A committee from the synod of Georgia which has the matter in charge will immediately take the matter up with the authorities of the two schools and will also confer with a number of Atlanta's prominent citizens as to the best method of raising the amount that the city will have to raise to get the university.

Called Synod Meeting.

A called meeting of the Georgia synod of the southern Presbyterian church was held at the First Presbyterian church last evening at which this matter was discussed. Representatives were present from churches in all parts of the state and great enthusiasm was shown over the prospects of establishing a large Presbyterian university in Atlanta. At the meeting of the Georgia synod in Valdosta last October a board of trustees was appointed to take up the matter of the founding of a university by the synods of Georgia and Alabama. The Florida synod has agreed to enter the movement, but the Alabama synod has determined to establish a school of its own.

The committee has been actively pushing the matter intrusted to it, but when information was received that a combination of the two schools named and the establishment of a large university in Atlanta was possible the board concluded that it would be best to have the synod to act on the matter. Hence last night's meeting.

At the meeting last night the matter was discussed in all its phases and as a final result a resolution was passed intructing the board of trustees to pause in its work looking toward the establishment of a college by the Georgia synod until the possibility of the combination of the two schools in Atlanta could be fully investigated.

Well Known Schools.

The Presbyterians of Georgia have long wished to have a school of their own in Atlanta and the scheme to establish a university here on such a large scale will undoubtedly be hailed with delight by Presbyterians in every part of the state.

The Southwestern Presbyterian university is one of the leading universities of the south. It has both literary and theological departments and has graduated many men of prominence in the southern Presbyterian church as well as men who have won distinction in other walks of life.

Colubia seminary has for a long time been considered one of the most prominent theological schools in the country. Many of the most noted divines of the southern Presbyterian church have come from it, among them Dr. Benjamin M. Palmer, of New Orleans, who is well known in Atlanta.

Dr. J. W. Walden, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Athens, is chairman of the board which has the matter in charge.

HETTY GREEN TO CARRY GUN.

Noted Woman of Finance Fears Attack by Robbers.

New York, May 8.—Hetty Green, the noted woman of finance, has been granted a permit to carry a revolver by the police department of this city. Mrs. Green applied for the permit a week ago to Captain Steven O'Brien of the Leonard street station and it was on his recommendation that the permit was given.

Captain O'Brien's report on the application says Mrs. Green declared she was in the habit of carrying large sums of money, stocks, bonds and jewelry. She also said it was her intention to secure pistol permits in all the large cities in which she does business.

TORRENTS OF CAUSTIC POURED ON DEFENDERS OF KILLING AND ARSON

SENATOR CARMACK. SEN... [illegible]
They indulged in bitter personalities during debate on the Philippine bill.

Carmack Scathingly Arraigns Republicans Who Excuse Philippine Horrors by Attacking South. Clash Between Carmack and Dolliver.

By Jos: Ohl.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—(Special.)—The republican senators today renewed their effort to divert the attention of the country from the atrocities in the Philippine islands by talking about alleged improper election methods in the south. Several republican senators indulged in this effort and in attempts to justify improper actions on the part of officers of the American army by referring to other similar massacres and outrages. The result was a lively afternoon of debate to galleries overflowing.

The star feature of the debate was Senator Carmack's brilliant excoriation of the republicans for their efforts to suppress a discussion of matters which reflect upon certain high officers of the army and the conduct of the war department by endeavoring to inject life into dead issues. The brilliant Tennesseean was at his best and one after another of the republican senators who attempted to break the force of his argument were swept from the field.

While, seemingly considerable temper was aroused by the debate, good feeling was shown by the active participants in the war of words, especially by Mr. Dolliver and Mr. Carmack, who cordially shook hands and laughed over the encounter.

Mr. Burton, of Kansas, concluded the speech which he began yesterday. He referred as instances of atrocious cruelty to the battle of Wounded Knee, to the mountain meadow massacre and to the alleged massacre of union soldiers at Fort Pillow and contended that the action of the American troops in the Philippines was in most instances entirely within the regulations of civilized warfare.

Carmack Denounces Funston.

Mr. Carmack, replying to Mr. Burton, made a bitter denunciation of General Funston.

He said he did not question his physical courage, but a few acts of daredevilry in the Philippines did not make a hero.

When Funston had stated that Aguinaldo had burned 300 people alive at one time, said Mr. Carmack, he told a deliberate and premeditated lie. In his opinion, he said, Funston is not to be believed upon any question whatever.

The sudden waking up of the republicans, he said, was for the deliberate purpose of reviving sectional hate in order to divert this debate and the attention of the people from the atrocities which have been permitted in the Philippines.

"I suppose it is in obedience to instructions from the white house," said he, "that the effort is being made to reopen the wounds of the country that have been healed."

Facing the republican side and speaking with evident emotion Mr. Carmack said:

"I shall be ready to meet every slanderer of the south and every defamer of its honor, whether the assailant comes from some part of the country beyond the borders of the south or whether it be some recreant and degenerate son who has proved a traitor to the womb and bosom of his mother."

After stating that he would not be diverted from the issue now before the senate because of the falsehoods brought into the debate, Mr. Carmack said, referring to the charges of lynchings, etc., in the south:

"You cannot help us by denunciation. The best thing you can do is to keep your mouths shut and let us alone."

Lodge Dishonoring Army.

Mr. Carmack declared that Mr. Lodge was dishonoring the American army and the American senate by defending orders which looked to the murder of women and children. Such orders of death—a brutal and inhuman order—could not be justified by anybody; yet these were the orders which senators had the "devilish impudence" to justify.

"Does the senator think," inquired Mr. Spooner, "that the phrase 'devilish impudence' is proper under the rules of the senate?"

"No, I do not," said Mr. Carmack, "and I withdraw the expression."

He maintained that the soldiers of the American army were driven on to commit the outrages cited by their officers. He quoted General Chaffee as saying that the Americans had not a friend in the islands.

Mr. Dolliver and Mr. Beveridge immediately called attention to the fact that what General Chaffee actually had said was that extreme vigilance should be exercised without giving offense to the natives. Mr. Foraker called attention, too, to the fact that this order of General Chaffee had been written two days after the massacre at Balangiga and evidently was intended to make the troops more vigilant against surprise and treachery.

Mr. Carmack declared that the evident purpose of the government was to force brutal and inhuman warfare upon a people, whether combatants or noncombatants together.

Interrupting, Mr. Foraker insisted that what had been shown by republican senators was that the cruelties in the Philippines were not the first cruelties that had been perpetrated in warfare. They had not justified the alleged order of General Smith, although they realized there might have been extenuating circumstances.

Murder of a Whole People.

"There are not and cannot be," declared Mr. Carmack, "any extenuating circumstances for the murder of a whole people, including women and children."

As an instance of the awful result of warfare Mr. Foraker interrupted to relate briefly the story of the battle of Santa Fe, which occurred some time in the sixties, when a regiment of volunteers under command of Colonel Chivington wiped from the face of the earth a band of Indians, men, women and children.

Mr. Patterson interrupted to say that the battle of Santa Fe followed the most inhuman atrocities on the whites committed by the Indians. The Indians had attacked the whites where the latter had a right to be.

"In this Philippine case," said he, "we are shooting an unwilling people into submission to a government in which they

BARBEE, SMITH AND STAHLMAN ACQUITTED BY BOOK COMMITTEE

Dallas, Tex., May 8.—The second day's session of the Methodist Episcopal church conference opened promptly at 9 o'clock this morning.

The feature of the day was the report of the book committee and the statement of the book agents, Messrs. Barbee and Smith, of Nashville, Tenn., on the noted war claim matter. This report embraced nearly 3,000 words, and was read by Dr. Collins Denny. The report reiterates and emphasizes the exoneration of Messrs. Barbee and Smith and E. B. Stahlman that was made by the committee nearly four years ago. General applause greeted the reading of the report and it is thought that a majority of the delegates agree with the book committee that the subject has already been discused beyond its merits and should be dropped forever.

The entire matter is now in the hands of the committee on publishing house interests, which will probably report week after next.

Gavel From "Wesley Oak."

When the conference got down to work today there was an immense volume of business before the delegates. Bishop Wilson announced the committees on rules and credentials. Rev. Mr. Adams, of the south Georgia conference, presented the conference with a gavel made of the wood of the "Wesley oak," under which John Wesley is said to have preached.

A resolution by Secretary Tigert to fix the number of the general conference in accordance to the court decision and declaring this to be the fourteenth the church has held, was defeated.

Memorials were presented from the Tennessee conference to institute the order of deaconesses provided the appointments are made by the bishops; on the pastoral time limit, to extend it definitely under certain conditions where special mission work is to be done; to establish a system of hospitals connectional in their scope, and the memorial of 1898, authorizing the return of the war claim to the government. All were referred.

Report of Book Committee.

The lengthy report of the book committee is summed up and closed as follows:

"If it had failed to secure the fund when it had power to do so, it would have been guilty of neglecting a plain duty for which any court of equity might have held it liable.

"The fund having been placed in its hands, it was not at liberty to permit it to pass out of its possession or beyond its control; and if it had done so, every member assenting to such a proceeding would have been, and justly, held personally responsible.

"Such are the doctrines held and announced by courts of equity in all civilized countries.

"Even if there had been doubt on its part as to whether or not the money should be returned, the committee would not, and could not have arrogated to itself the right to decide. Being satisfied that this money was properly received, in payment of a just debt, it had no more power to restore it to the treasury of the government than it had to give away to any person or corporation any other part of the trust fund in its hands, without incurring personal liability for its return.

"These are the actions of your committee and the reasons thereof.

"Your committee has, in the midst of most difficult conditions, tried to do its best to meet the great responsibilities committed to its charge in the fear of God and with an eye to the welfare of our beloved church."

Adjourned until tomorrow.

CAUSTIC FLOOD IN THE SENATE

Senator Carmack Scathingly Arraigns Republican Defenders of Smith.

CARMACK AND DOLLIVER IN VERY BITTER CLASH.

Tennesseean Likens Dolliver to a Monkey and Is Called to Order—Carmack Denounces Funston as Unworthy of Belief.

have no voice and which they do not want."

Mr. Carmack declared that the United States was entering on a century of constant warfare for no other result than that a few carpet-bag thieves might have opportunity to rob the people of the Philippine islands as they used to rob the people of the south.

Mr. Foraker inquired if Mr. Carmack thought it was the purpose of President McKinley in taking over the Philippine islands to provide a threater of scoundrelism; was it the purpose of the senate in confirming the Paris treaty to provide a scene of villainy and outrage? Where did the purpose referred to by the senator from Tennessee originate?

Mr. Carmack replied that McKinley's purpose was that of "benevolent assimilation. "The purpose of the republican party now is malevolent dissimilation." (Laughter.)

Dolliver Attacks Carmack.

Following Mr. Carmack, Mr. Dolliver, of Iowa, deplored the tone and character, not to speak of the purpose, of the pending debate upon the democratic side. He said he had met only a day or two ago a veteran newspaper man who, with tears in his eyes, had asked him if there was not a man in the United States senate who would raise his voice in defense of the American boys in Samar. That man, said Mr. Dolliver, had a son with Major Waller, and that son had gone through all of the horrors of Waller's march across the island. He proposed, he said, to raise his voice in defense of those brave boys. He declared that the southern part of Samar had been burned by order of General Chaffee because of the Balangiga massacre before "poor old Smith" set foot on the island. That burning, he said, was a fitting retribution for the massacre.

Mr. Dolliver then read an editorial from a Memphis newspaper upon Mr. Carmack's recent speech on the Philippine question in which that paper took sharp issue with the Tennessee senator as to his conclusions. Mr. Dolliver's comments upon the editorial as he read it were highly amusing. He said he had heard Mr. Carmack's speech three times before, when both were members of the house.

Mr. Carmack retorted that where Mr. Dolliver's language was not witty, his gestures were ridiculous. "So far as his argument is concerned," said the Tennessee senator, "he might just as well have been swinging from his prehensile tail from a leafy bough."

Dolliver Likened to a Monkey.

The speech, he declared, was accompanied by simian gestures and was of little force or effect so far as the main question was concerned. The newspaper from which Mr. Dolliver read was owned largely by Luke E. Wright, a member of the Philippine commission. He charged that Mr. Dolliver in his speech justified murder in the Philippines and defended the order of General Smith.

"Poor old Smith," he continued, "the scoundrel—the murderer—the butcher! I am glad to say that the senator from Iowa is the only man thus far that has risen in his place to defend that bloody old scoundrel.

"I did not call the senator from Iowa to order," said Mr. Carmack. "If he had been any other senator on that side I would have done so. I did not call him to order because I knew that to require him to speak the language of decency and courtesy in debate would have been to condemn him to absolute silence for the rest of his life."

"I call the senator from Tennessee to order," suggested Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, "and I desire a ruling from the chair on my point of order."

By direction of the president pro tem. (Mr. Frye) the stenographer read the final statement of Mr. Carmack.

"The language," said the chair, "was clearly out of order. But the senator has taken his seat."

"I do not," interposed Mr. Dolliver, "regard the language of sufficient importance to pay any attention to it."

"That settles it," said Mr. Carmack. "If the senator from Iowa thinks it of no importance it cannot be. However, Mr. President, since the chair rules that my language is out of order, I will withdraw it."

Almost immediately Mr. Carmack rose from his seat and walked over to Mr. Dolliver and shook hands with him cordially. After chating a minute or two in evident good feeling the Tennessee senator stepped down to the desk of Mr. Hoar and shook hands quite as cordially with the venerable senator from Massachusetts. Thus the sharp debate between senators was ended in perfect good humor.

Mr. Lodge, of Massachusetts, chairman of the Philippine committee called attention to the story published a few days ago under date of Lynn, Mass., saying that a son of Rev. W. H. Walker, of that city, had described in letters to his father the killing of 1,000 Filipino prisoners by a company of the Sixteenth infantry. Mr. Lodge said that a statement from the war department indicated that the company referred to had not been in the province where the shooting of prisoners was alleged to have taken place and that the department had no information of such killing. He read a telegram from a Boston newspaper sent to its correspondent in this city quoting Rev. Mr. Walker as saying that he had not received any such information from his son.

Mr. Money, of Mississippi, expressed his regret at the temper that had been shown and that the debate had taken a sectional turn. He thought it would be well for both sides first to learn the truth about the order of General Jacob H. Smith in Samar. If the charges were proven he did not believe any senator would defend him.

The senate at 5:50 adjourned.

BRIMBERRY'S SON BACKED

To Succeed the Father as Postmaster at Albany.

GILBERT IS ALSO A CANDIDATE

But the Mayor's Son Will Probably Win—Confirmation of Deveaux Is Recommended.

By Jos: Ohl.

Washington, May 8.—(Special.)—Major B. F. Brimberry is out of the race for the postmastership at Albany, Ga. His application was withdrawn today and Harry S. dwards has filed that of his son, H. F. Brimberry, for the appointment. Major Brimberry had the backing of the Georgia republican organization, but when it was found that he could not be appointed their indorsement was transferred to his son, who now stands a good chance of securing the nomination. Billie Gilbert is also a candidate for the office, but it is expected that the president will follow the indorsement of the organization.

It looks today as if W. E. Harp will be reappointed postmaster at Jackson. His record has been good and there seems to be a strong disposition on the part of the authorities here to retain him for another four years.

In the Eastman postoffice case, which appeared some days ago to be settled, there has developed a hitch and the present likelihood is that the organization will be required to bring forth an entirely new candidate before an appointment will be made.

The senate today confirmed the nominations of Harry Blun, to be postmaster at Savannah, and of Fryer, to be postmaster at Blakely, Ga.

In the case of Collector Deveaux the senate committee on commerce today decided to recommend his confirmation for the Savannah collectorship. It has been realized here all along that the protest of the Savannah chamber of commerce against Deveaux's confirmation would not avail anything.

WRAGG IS APPOINTED AGENT

He Will Supervise the Bible Society Work from Atlanta.

New York, May 8.—The annual meeting of the American Bible Society was held at the Bible house today. During the year the society has established a special agency among the colored people of the United States. Rev. Dr. J. P. Wragg has been appointed agent at Atlanta, Ga. Under his superintendence colporteurs have been sent out into a number of the southern states to go from place to place and visit the people at their cabin doors. Special depots have been opened in connection with some of the leading schools for the colored people.

BIG DEAL IN ALABAMA LANDS.

Two-Thirds Interest in Jackson Lumber Company Sold.

Salisbury, Md., May 8.—By a transaction just closed here a two-thirds interest of the Jackson Lumber Company, of Lockhart, Ala., has been sold to Edward S. Crossett and J. W. Watzek, of Davenport, Iowa, and Charles W. Gales, of Fordyce, Ark. The price paid was on the basis of a million and a half dollars for the entire stock of the company. A new company will be formed to operate the plant, which comprises 144,000 acres of timber lands in Covington county, Kentucky.

HISTORIC LIE NAILED BY VEST

Missouri Senator Gives True Version of the Conference at Hampton Roads.

NO TERMS WERE OFFERED BY LINCOLN TO THE SOUTH.

Unconditional Submission Was Demanded by the President—Mr. Vest Quotes the Words Lincoln Used to Alexander H. Stephens.

Washington, May 8.—In the senate today Mr. Vest, of Missouri, called attention to the statement of Mr. Tillman, made yesterday, that at the historic conference in Hampton Roads in 1864 between President Lincoln, William H. Seward, secretary of state; Alexander H. Stephens, vice president of the confederate states; R. M. Hunter, former United States senator, and John A. Campbell, former justice of the United States supreme court, President Lincoln wrote upon a piece of paper, "save the union," then handing it to Stephens, said, "Alex, take this paper and fill up for yourselves the conditions of peace between the two countries."

Mr. Vest said the story had been denied by John H. Reagan, of Texas, who was the last surviving member of the confederate cabinet. He knew personally, said Mr. Vest, without having been present at that interview, that the incident was without the slightest foundation.

Wrong to Confederates.

"If true," said he, "it would place the government and officers of the confederate states in the category of criminals, because it offered the confederacy all that it ever demanded in the wildest hope of the most extreme partisans of that cause if they would only return to the union.

"If true, it would mean that the confederates could have placed on that sheet of paper the perpetual establishment of slavery and the right of secession, the most extreme demand that had ever taken locality even in the dream of any confederate."

From the lips of Stephens and Hunter had come to him, he said, the details of what took place. Upon the return of the commissioners of the confederacy he heard their official report, as Mr. Reagan heard it, he being a member of the cabinet and the speaker a member of the confederate senate. "I am today the only surviving member of the twenty-six gentlemen who acted as confederate senators," he said.

Mr. Vest then stated that what did happen at Hampton Roads beyond question was this: That when the president and Secretary Seward met the commissioners of the confederacy, Mr. Lincoln, addressing himself to Mr. Hunter, whom he knew well, said: "In the first place, gentlemen, I desire to know what are your powers and instructions from the Richmond government," avoiding, said Mr. Vest, as Mr. Hunter told himself, the words "confederate states." Mr. Hunter said:

"Mr. President, we are instructed to consider no proposition that does not involve the independence of the Confederate States of America."

"Then," said Mr. Lincoln, "the interview had as well terminate now, for I must say to you, gentlemen, frankly and honestly, that nothing will be accepted from the government at Richmond except absolute and unconditional surrender."

Lincoln to Stephens.

Mr. Vest said that this terminated the interview, and as the confederate commissioners retired, President Lincoln, addressing Stephens, who was the last to go out, said:

"Stephens, you are making a great mistake. Your government is a failure, and when the crash comes, as it soon must come, there will be chaos and disasters which we cannot now foresee which must come to your people." This account of that interview, continued Mr. Vest, substantially and almost word for word, as I have given it, came to me from Mr. Stephens and Mr. Hunter. Mr. Vest said that he considered it his duty to make this statement in order that history may not be falsified; in order that the men who were said to have refused this offer at the hands of President Lincoln should not be made to sin in their graves, adding:

"For, if they had refused what was said to have been tendered to them by the president, they would have been accessories to the murder of every man who fell from that time in defense of the confederate cause, and they should have given the lie to the intentions which they professed when they risked everything, everything that is held dear amongst men, in defense of the confederate cause.

"It may be but a very short time until I shall join the twenty-five colleagues I had in the confederate senate, and I did not want this statement to go into the record of this country without my statement of these facts and my solemn denial that there is a shadow of truth in this assertion which has been going the rounds of the newspapers of the country for the last few years."

ENDEAVORERS ARE IN SESSION

State Convention is Called to Order In Columbus.

Columbus, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The state convention of Christian Endeavorers was called to order in the First Presbyterian church in Columbus tonight. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor Pro Tem. Sommerkamp in behalf of the city and P. E. Whittlesey in behalf of the Christian Association. An eloquent response was made by Fred Gordon Shaw, of Augusta, state president. Following the opening session a delightful reception was given in the reception rooms of the church. The convention will last four days.

NEW STARS FOR THE FLAG.

Statehood Bill Has the Right of Way in the House.

Washington, May 8.—The bill to place three new stars in the American flag had the right of way again today in the house. General debate, the feature of which was an extended speech by Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, in opposition to the measure, was closed at 3 o'clock, and the bill was then read for amendment under the five-minute rule.

An amendment offered by Mr. McRae to consolidate the territories of Oklahoma and Indian Territory was defeated, 57 to 103. An amendment offered by Mr. Overstreet, of Indiana, to consolidate Arizona and New Mexico, and admit them as the state of Montezuma, was pending when the house adjourned. The only amendment adopted was one providing that nothing in the act should be construed to legalize polygamy.

During the day a resolution expressive of the regret of the house over the death of Rear Admiral Sampson was adopted, and a committee of seven members was appointed to attend his funeral. Messrs. Meyer, of Louisiana; Hooker, of Mississippi, and Bartlett, of Georgia, were made members of this committee.

BY WATER AND BY FLAMES

Filipinos Are Made To Fear Army of United States.

MORE HORRIBLE STORIES

Related by Returned Soldiers to the Members of the Senate Philippine Committee.

Washington, May 8.—Isadore H. Dube, of Watertown, Mass., formerly sergeant in company A, Twenty-sixth volunteer infantry, testified before the Philippine committee today. He saw the water cure administered to a native in the presence of Lieutenant Conger and Captain Glenn. He also told of the burning of houses in the island of Panay. He cited a case where a woman was put into a guard house with fifteen native male prisoners. He said the Filipino prisoners and the peaceful natives were treated with great kindness by the Americans.

Sergeant Dube said that while doing duty at Jaro, in the island of Panay, he conveyed a native, apparently of wealth and education, to the house of Lieutenant Conger, Eighteenth infantry, where the lieutenant, Major Glenn and three privates of the Eighteenth administered the water cure, apparently without any cause. The witness described the burning of houses during a march across Panay and told of the act of their native guide in cutting off the head of a Filipino with a bolo before the troops could get him to surrender.

Sergeant Manning placed the first occasion he had seen the water cure administered at Leon, island of Panay. He said some Filipinos were supposed to have knowledge of the murder of Private O'Herne, and Captain Gregg ordered witness and the men under him to apply the water cure to them. Captain Gregg instructed them to be careful not "to abuse" the prisoners.

Answering Senator Dietrich, the witness said there was no doubt of the guilt of the parties and when asked by Senator Culberson to explain why they were not tried, said that before they could be brought to trial they endeavored to escape, with the result that nine of them were killed, two escaped and the others released.

UNDERWRITERS IN SESSION.

Fire Insurance Men are Having a Convention in Macon.

Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The Georgia Local Underwriters' Association met today at 1 o'clock in the Elks lodge in fourth quarterly session. There is a large attendance of fire insurance writers from all sections of the state. The association will be in session two days.

The first day's session closed with an elegant banquet tonight, at which an address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Bridges Smith in behalf of the city of Macon. Tomorrow's session will be held at the Log Cabin Club.

The following are the officers of the association: President, R. M. Hull, of Savannah; first vice president, Edgar Dunlap, of Atlanta; second vice president, Philip Lanier, of West Point; Secretary and treasurer, F. M. Butt, of Augusta; executive committee, W. P. Pattilo, of Atlanta; R. H. Drake, of Griffin; P. B. Walker, of Macon; W. L. Wilson, of Savannah; J. B. Kimbell, of Columbus.

ATLANTA MAN IN MACON JAIL

Charged With Forgery and Carrying Concealed Weapons.

Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—J. R. Hargraves, a young man from Atlanta, was arraigned in the recorder's court this morning on the charge of forgery and carrying concealed weapons.

On the former charge he was committed to the superior court under a bond of $300, and on the latter charge he was committed to the city court under a bond of $100. In default of bail he was sent to jail.

The alleged forgery consisted, it is claimed, in writing the name of Lee Renau to a check for $25 and taking the same to Henry Kessler to be cashed. Hargraves threatened to strike a white woman with a pair of brass knucks, and when he was arrested the knucks were found concealed in his pocket. When Hargraves was taken to police headquarters he gave his name as J. R. Hudson.

WOMAN SHOWS RARE PLUCK

Mrs. Cole, in Carrollton Clings To Runaway Horse.

Carrollton, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Early this morning the horse of Dr. J. F. Cole, of this city, being driven to his family surrey by his wife, who was accompanied by her mother and Dr. Cole's sister and infant, became frightened at the corner of Alabama and Maple streets. The shaft broke loose and dropped on the horse's legs and the animal made a runaway dash.

Mrs. Cole, with remarkable nerve, made a heavy pull on the fleeing horse, which turned it and broke the other shaft loose. At this Mrs. Cole was jerked out of the surrey on to the street. But she held onto the horse and it dragged her some distance by the lines. In the accident she was badly bruised.

The surrey, when the horse broke loose, ran several yards forward across the sidewalk and threw the other two ladies and the infant out, bruising the mother and throwing the baby some distance.

The frightened horse dashed up on the public square and rushed into the office of The Advocate, where a negro stopped it.

CRISIS IS NEAR IN RAILWAY WAR

Both Sides Are Armed at Jellico and Trouble May Come Very Soon.

EVERY MAN OBTAINABLE IS BEING HURRIED THERE.

Charles Pratt and K. T. Thomas, of Atlanta, A. B. Houston, of Decatur and J. B. Smith, of Lithia Springs, With L. and N. Party.

Knoxville, Tenn., May 8.—A special from Jellico, Tenn., at midnight says that at the close of operations today it is evident that the crisis in the herculean struggle for the Clear Fork coal fields between the Louisville and Nashville and Southern roads is rapidly approaching.

The Louisville and Nashville has the upper land with a force of 600 men thoroughly equipped at various points of vantage. Every extra man possible is being dispatched to the head of the project to meet the attack of the Southern forces which is expected within the next thirty-six hours.

Advices received tonight state that Thomas McFarland's outfit was shipped from Nashville today, and men and material are coming in constantly.

The Callahan Construction Company has been awarded the contract of building the Knoxville, Lafollette and Jellico road, which is really the Louisville and Nashville, from Jellico to Lafollette. The price is given out as $700,000. This company will have at least 3,000 men at work within thirty days.

There is no disguising the fact that there may be serious trouble in the Jellico district. Reports from Jellico are to the effect that both sides are armed, and local hardware men admit that they have shipped arms, but not in alarming quantities, as they express it.

Charles Pratt and K. T. Thomas, of Atlanta; A. B. Houston, of Decatur, and J. B. Smith, of Lithia Springs, are members of the Louisville and Nashville engineering party in Clear Fork valley near Jellico.

VALDOSTA DAY AT THE FAIR.

Enthusiastic Crowd Goes on Special to Ivory City.

Valdosta, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Tomorrow is Valdosta day at the Charleston exposition and between 800 and 1,000 people went from this city this morning to help celebrate it. Mayor Ashley and the full board of aldermen, President Cranford, of the board of trade, occupied Pullmans, while several of the industries here had full coaches for themselves and their employees. The train consisted of twenty coaches comfortably filled, probably two-thirds of the crowd coming from this city, while the balance came in from the adjoining towns.

The idea of having a Valdosta day at Charleston was smiled at at first and the Charleston people began to inquire, "Where is Valdosta?" But the humor of the suggestion died out when a committee of Valdostans offered to buy a passenger train for the trip, if they could not get it otherwise. The Plant system encouraged the idea. The crowd which went from here was the largest that has gone from any one community outside of South Carolina to the big exposition.

The crowd was loaded down with advertising matter of Valdosta and the next state fair and they expect to spend a couple of days in Charleston and then return home.

FALSE ALARM TURNED IN.

Young Man in Trouble for Turning the Crank of the Alarm Box.

Because Archie Harris, a young white man, turned the crank on the firm alarm box at the corner of Whitehall and Hunter streets yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock the fire department was given a useless run and that section of the business district was thrown into a state of excitement. An hour later Harris was arrested by Patrolman H. D. Freeman and locked up in the police station.

Harris admits being responsible for the false alarm, but claims his turning of the crank was an accident. He states that he was leaning against the pole and the first intimation he had of the alarm was on hearing the noise on the inside of the box.

In a few minutes after the crank was turned the clanging of bells and the rattle and roar of fire wagons was heard.

A by-stander saw the act and notified Officer Freeman. He began a search and soon located Harris near the corner of Marietta and Broad streets. The young man will be given a hearing this morning before Recorder Broyles. The officer left instructions that Harris be let out for $25 collateral.

CORONER TO HOLD INQUEST.

Suspicious Circumstances Surround Sudden Death of Negro Mail Carrier.

Joe Thomas, a negro mail carrier, died suddenly Wednesday night, and the circumstances surrounding his death were of such character that an inquest will be held by Coroner J. R. Stamps. Suspicion has been aroused that perhaps the man was foully dealt with, but so far no arrests have been made.

Thomas appeared to be perfectly well Wednesday and worked all day. He attended church Wednesday night, accompanied by his wife and there was no indication that his condition was unusual. After returning from church, Thomas ate supper, and an hour later was a corpse.

When he became ill, a physician was summoned, but before his arrival Thomas was dead. It was learned last night that he had one or two convulsions before he expired. Coroner Stamps was notified yesterday morning and, after making an investigation, decided to hold an inquest. He says, however, that he found no indication of poison. Thomas resided at 22 Selman street. He owned his home.

INJURED PARTIES BETTER.

Miss Sheehan and Mr. Gatins Improving—Muscles of Young Lady's Neck Strained.

Miss Caroline Sheehan and John Gatins, who were injured Wednesday afternoon in a runaway, were reported last night as improving.

Dr. William Perrin Nicolson, the attending physician, states that the injuries of neither of the two will prove serious. It has been found that Miss Sheehan's collar bone was not broken, but that the muscles of her neck were strained. She will probably be able to leave her bed within a week or ten days.

Mr. Gatins was not so badly hurt, and was able to be at his office yesterday. His injury consisted principally of bruises, although he was also cut on the chin.

NOVELIST FORD MURDERED BY BROTHER WHO SUICIDES

much note, "Janice Meredith" being perhaps his most popular novel. He was married about a year ago to Miss Grace Kidder, daughter of Edward H. Kidder, of Brooklyn. He was the son of Gordon Lester Ford, of Brooklyn, who died eleven years ago, and left an estate of some $2,000,000 divided between his children, with the exception of Malcolm W., who was disinherited by the will. Mr. Ford was a member of the Players' Reform and Groller Clubs, the Century Association and Sons of the Revolution.

Malcolm W. Ford was born in Brooklyn February 7, 1862. He was educated at the Brooklyn Polytechnic institute. He took up athletics while at school and for a number of years won championships in this country and Canada and in the hundred-yard run, two twenty-yard run and quarter-mile, as well as for the hundred and two twenty-yard hurdles, running broad and running high jumps. He was the all-round amateur champion for half a dozen years. He was passionately fond of athletics that he is said to have neglected everything else to devote the time to running and jumping. He married a daughter of Robert Graves, a wall paper manufacturer, but they were divorced. He was a member of the Lawyers club.

To Bury Them Together.

It was decided tonight at a family council that the two brothers should be buried together.

It was said tonight at the apartment house in which Malcolm lived that he had talked frequently of late of being in financial difficulties, and that things were going wrong down town. There it was known that he was the editor of The New Centaur, a monthly devoted to the interests of the automobile and published by The New Centaur Publishng Company. It could not be learned whether or not Malcolm had any financial interest in the publication. On Tuesday the company failed and a receiver was appointed. The failure of the company would explain, to an extent, Malcolm Ford's pressing need of funds.

Murderer Had Sued Brother.

Soon after the will of the late Gordon Ford was read, Malcolm Ford, then living at Babylon, Long Island, brought suit against Paul Leicester Ford and his other brothers and sisters, to compel an accounting. It seems that the elder Ford was a man of pronounced ideas about the way his sons should conduct themselves. When he learned that Malcolm was taking part in athletic events, even in an amateur way, he ordered the young man to stop it. But Malcolm Ford had learned that he was equaled by few in those days and defied his father. He was cast off, but was a business man of ability and made a good living without the assistance of his father.

Twelve years ago Malcolm Ford was the undisputed champion and holder of the American amateur records for running, standing and broad jumps, and running hopstep and jump. About that time he got into trouble with the Amateur Athletic Union.

In disputing the will he alleged that despite the fact that his father had threatened to disinherit him he had an agreement with the other children by which he was to have a share of the estate. It was alleged by Malcolm Ford that if it had not been for the opposition of his brother Paul there would have been no difficulty in arranging the settlement which, he alleged, he had considered a certainty. The matter has dragged through the law courts ever since and day by day the feeling of Malcolm Ford against the other members of his family had become more bitter and especially against Paul.

After his marriage, Paul Ford moved from the old homestead in Brooklyn to a splendid new house in East Seventy-seventh street. He was weak and a hunchback. His brother, of course, from his long athletic training, was a powerful man. In a physical contest the author stood no show.

Sketch of Paul Leicester Ford.

Paul Leicester Ford, author, historian and scholar, was the son of Gordon Lester and Emily Ellsworth Ford and was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1865, making him only 37 years old at the time of his tragic death.

Mr. Ford had recently been at work on a novel entitled "Wanted, a Chaperon," a companion volume to "Wanted, a Matchmaker," to be illustrated by Howard Chandler Christy.

Popularity of His Books.

A portion of the popularity attained by "The Honorable Peter Stirling" was believed by many when it appeared, aside from its value as a stirringly interesting story, to be due to the fact that many persons who read the book immediately concluded that Grover Cleveland was the prototype of the hero.

In "The Story of an Untold Love" many critics agreed that as far as Maisie Walton and Donald Maitland were concerned they were generally unsatisfactory. Maisie Walton was too light and airy, while the hero of the novel was inclined to be rather weak and sniveling. But in the minor characters of the book Mr. Ford displayed his power, especially in Blodgett, who was so entirely natural that when one finished reading the book thinking of Blodgett was like thinking of some one who had really existed.

"Janice Meredith" was in a sense the triumph of Mr. Ford's apprenticeship as historian and author and in it he presented what several critics have called the most human, realistic Washington since "The Virginians." The other characters in the book are also strong. They had the faults and the virtues of the people of today.

SHIP TRUST SECRETS ARE BARED AT LAST

Text of Agreement by Morgan Secures Control of Ocean Transportation.

GIGANTIC SUM REQUIRED TO FINANCE THE DEAL

For the Dominion Line Alone $120,000,000 Will Be Paid—White Star, Dominion, American and Atlantic Transport Lines in Trust.

London, May 8.—The Associated Press has secured copies of the shipping combine agreements. They are called "provisional agreements for the purpose of the acquisition, on or before December 31, 1902, of the White Star, Dominion, American and Atlantic transport lines, to be organized under the direction of the vendors to the satisfaction of the bankers, namely, the Morgans, under the laws of the state of New York, or of any state as shall be selected."

The vendors—Ismay, Imrie & Co., Mills & Co. (Dominion line) and Messrs. Widener, Griscom and Bernard Baker—receive as consideration for all their capital stock $120,000,000, of which $60,000,000 is preferred stock, cumulative at 6 per cent, and $60,000,000 common stock, limited to 10 per cent, and also $50,000,000 in collateral trust 4½ per cent debentures.

The White Star line's acquisition is antedated to January 1, 1901, the combine, or corporation, as it is termed, taking all the line's profits from that date. The White Star line shares are exchanged on the basis of ten times the net profits made by that line in 1901. The arrangement made with the Dominion line is similar to that made with the White Star line, but on the net profits for 1900.

The American and Transport lines are lumped in one valuation at $34,158,000, subject to $19,686,000 of the American line's 5 per cent bonds.

The Leyland line is valued at $11,736,000. The method of payment is as follows:

White Star line, 25 per cent cash, 75 per cent preferred, at par, and 37½ per cent of the total amount in common at par.

The Dominion line payment is exactly the same, and the American and transport lines get between them $18,314,000 in preferred, $915,700 on the common, $15,844,000 in cash, and such further cash as may be required, at a rate not exceeding 6 per cent.

The Leyland line gets $11,736,000 cash and the remainder in capital stock, and the bonds go to the vendors, who, however, contribute to the corporation, as working capital, $786,000 in preferred and $5,643,000 in common stock, and "are to transfer it to the syndicate if and when formed by the bankers, viz: The Morgans, for $20,000,000 cash, and in full payment for its services, the said $50,000,000 in debentures and also $2,500,000 in preferred and $25,000,000 in common stock."

The following important clause occurs at the end of the White Star agreement: "Inasmuch as the company is English, and domiciled in England, all questions concerning the sellers arising under or pursuant to this contract shall be controlled or decided by English law."

Ismay, Imrae & Co. bind themselves not to undertake any kind of shipping business for fourteen years.

An additional paper, called a builders' agreement, is appended, in which the Morgans bind themselves to give Harland & Wolff all orders for new vessels and all heavy repairs "that require to be done at a ship yard of the United Kingdom. Nothing herein contained, however, shall prevent the purchasers from placing orders for new steamers and repairs at ship yards in the United States."

FOR DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN.

Chairman Griggs Will Appoint a Committee of Eleven.

Washington, May 8.—The democratic congressional committee tonight adopted a resolution authorizing the chairman, Representative Griggs, of Georgia, to appoint a campaign committee of eleven members, six of whom shall be members of the congressional committee. The campaign committee is to have power to choose its own chairman. It had been expected that the organization would be completed and announced tonight, with ex-Representative Ben T. Cable, of Illinois, as chairman of the campaign committee, and Lewis Nixon, of New York, chairman of the finance committee, but this went over until Mr. Griggs completes the membership of the campaign committee. It is understood that Mr. Cable is now in New York arranging with prominent democrats to accept places on the committee.

Officers were selected as follows:

Secretary, Charles A. Edwards, of St. Louis; treasurer, James L. Norris, of Washington; sergeants-at-arms, J. J. Sinott and W. W. Marmaduke, of Virginia.

A committee to prepare campaign literature was designated as follows:

Senator Carmack, of Tennessee; Representatives Randall, of Texas; Robinson, of Nebraska; Zenor, of Indiana; Finley, of South Carolina, and F. H. Hosford.

AN ADDRESS TO IRISHMEN

Issued by the Executive Committee of the League.

New York, May 8.—The executive committee of the United Irish League of America held a meeting today at the Hoffman house to consider matters connected with the renewal of coercion in Ireland and the necessity for immediate action on the part of the friends of Ireland in the United States, as a consequence of the action of the British government in suspending the constitution in Ireland. An address to Irishmen in America was issued, which appeals to them to sustain the Irish movement for land and liberty, refers to the revival of American interest in the Irish cause, and asks all those who sympathize with Ireland in her just efforts to contribute promptly to the resources necessary to secure confidence and victory.

The national treasurer, T. B. Fitzpatrick, of Boston, reported that nearly $10,000 has already been subscribed to sustain the United Irish League since its establishment, four months ago.

It was decided to call a national convention of the United Irish League of America during the fall.

HUNGER DROVE THEM TO RIOT

Trouble in Russia Caused by the Intense Suffering of the People.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN SHOT BY TROOPS OF THE CZAR

Oppressed By Hunger the People of the Rural Districts Rose En Masse and Began to Sack the Residences of the Nobles.

St. Petersburg, May 8.—A representative of the Associated Press, after a personal investigation of the situation in southern Russia, writes from Moscow, under date of Saturday, May 3, as follows:

"Comparative order has been established in the government of Poltava and Kharkoff, but the peasants are only outwardly quiescent, believing that the grant of a division of lands of noblemen will be effected during the coming autumn, leaving the hardy land owners only 20 acres and a yoke of oxen each.

Due to Suffering.

"Authentic particulars of the disorders prevailing during the last three weeks show they were largely due to extreme suffering from famine, which was utilized by agitators to foment a rising. The peasants were not the only believers in the issue of an imperial ukase permitting a division of the property of the nobility and a charitable distribution of potatoes by the steward of the duke of Meklenburg's estate at Kharloffka tended to confirm this belief.

"The people of the whole country side, often led by the village magnates, streamed to the Kharloffka and other estates afoot, horseback and in wagons, demanded the keys of the pantries, granaries and barns and carried off their contents. Rich Cossacks suffered equally with the noblemen. When land owners refused to deliver up the keys the peasants broke down the doors, quietly seized foodstuffs and returned home, even well-to-do peasants sharing in the plunder. When unopposed the peasants contented themselves with supplying their immediate needs, but when balked they burned and destroyed, carried off live stock and deserted estates. Most of the difficulties occurred where the inhabitants of the villages were already on a strained footing with the neighboring land owners. Violence is reported from twelve or fifteen villages, while three estates have been devastated in the Kharkoff government and forty-three in the Poltava government. To add to the consternation, 200 Cossacks arrived at Poltava after the regular military forces had restored order.

Troops Fire on People.

"The troops fired on the people in two or three cases, and in one instance the peasants attacked the troops with stones, whereupon the latter fired, killing several persons and wounding a score, among whom were women and children. Corporal punishment was administered right and left without overscrupulous inquiry into the guilt of the people flogged. Some estimates place the number of turbulent peasants as high as 30,000.

"There was a similar occurrence at Kharkoff, whose governor general, Prince Oboloensky, was particularly severe.

"General Eugene Michelovich-Doukvovsky was among the sufferers. His estate at Mechek was ruined and he himself was seized and beaten. He is still ill from the effects of the treatment he received.

"As an example of the extent to which the ranks of the famine-stricken villagers are swollen by the return of unemployed factory workers, it is pointed out that one iron works which heretofore employed 12,000 to 20,000 people is now employing only 5,000 for three days a week.

MOROS HAVE QUIT FIGHTING.

General Davis Reports Everything Quiet on Island of Mindanao.

Washington, May 8.—The following advices relative to the situation in Mindanao has been received at the war department from General Chaffee, under date of Manila, May 8:

"Following from Brigadier General George W. Davis, May 6:

"'Situation today every way satisfactory. No hostile shot has been fired since escape of prisoners from guard. Would be exceedingly easy for Moros to climb bluff and cut our telegraph traversing shore of lake 4 or 5 miles—not molested. At 2 o'clock today Rini Tampanga, of Turban, and delegation presented themselves. Sultan Genassi says Datto Paygoag was killed at Bayan fort and his people dead or dispersed. Will investigate, but doubt whole report. Number of prisoners escaped probably not exceeding twenty-five. Ten have been recaptured unhurt. For miles about the country is much the same in its natural aspect as Camp Meade, Pa.—enormous agricultural facilities. All wounded doing well. Lieutenant Jossman seriously hurt; bullet penetrated lung, ranged downward and lodged in body. Chief surgeon says one or two forwarded without hopes recovery. May 7. Leave in morning for Malabang to meet General Chaffee. Expected morning of 10th. No change situation. Wounded doing well. himself, saying his people want peace, promising to bring cattle and other supplies.' CHAFFEE."

THE JUDGE IS DARED TO FIGHT

And the Attorney Finds That He is More than Willing.

Memphis, Tenn., May 8.—(Special.)—The criminal court here, presided over by Judge L. P. Cooper, who is 70 years old, was the scene of a series of dramatic occurrences today in the trial of George Day on a charge of shooting, beating and robbing M. W. Heron.

Ralph Davis, a young attorney, was counsel for Day. Davis and the court had wrangled yesterday, last night and today till noon, when Davis made a statement which the court characterized as untrue. Davis retorted that at another time and place and with a younger man his acts might be different, whereupon the court fined him $10 and proclaimed that in a few minutes the court would be a private citizen on the street and only 20 years of age so far as Davis was concerned. Davis finally resigned from the case and the court ordered him from the room.

Then followed a heated colloquy between the court and the prisoner in which the latter proclaimed that he could not get justice from either the court or the jury.

Prominent Southerners Cured by Swamp-Root

"CONSTITUTION" REPORTERS HAVE CONVINCING INTERVIEWS REGARDING THE GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES OF SWAMP-ROOT

Write for a Free Sample Bottle.

Kidney trouble is responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, and if permitted to continue fatal results are sure to follow. Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Makes you pass water often during the day and obliges you to get up many times during the night. Unhealthy kidneys cause rheumatism, gravel, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints and muscles, makes your head ache and back ache, causes indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, you get a sallow, yellow complexion, makes you feel as though you had heart trouble; you may have plenty of ambition, but no strength; get weak and waste away.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. So when your kidneys are weak or out of order you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the famous new discovery, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince any one.

In taking Swamp-Root you afford natural help to nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that is known to medical science. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is for sale the world over in bottles of two sizes and two prices—fifty cents and one dollar.

To prove its wonderful efficacy, send your name and address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., mentioning that you read this generous offer in The Atlanta Daily Constitution, when you will receive immediately, free of all charge, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root and a valuable book, by mail, prepaid. This book contains many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured.

From a Well Known Georgian.

863 Arch Street, Macon, Ga., March 20, 1902.

To the Editor of The Constitution: "In the interest of suffering humanity I feel constrained to volunteer a testimonial as to the merits of the great remedy for kidney affections, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

"I was annoyed by excruciating pains in the back and kidneys; became all run down; lost appetite and energy; could lift nothing without suffering untold agony. Could not bend over without experiencing severe pains, nor could I rest comfortably in bed. I became alarmed at my condition, and after spending many dollars in fruitless search of relief decided to try Swamp-Root. The first dose gave me relief, and after the use of three bottles I find myself well and hearty—no pains, no discomfort, and can lift any reasonable weight easily. A well and hearty man, I attribute my strength and energy to Swamp-Root. Now, whenever my kidneys become deranged, a few doses of Swamp-Root furnish speedy relief.

"To those run down, with pains in back, etc., sallow, with no appetite, suffering with kidney affections in any shape, I heartily recommend the greatest of all kidney remedies, Swamp-Root. Very truly yours,

Ed. W. Freeney.

Ten Remedies Failed Swamp-Root Cured Me.

Editors Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: I wish to say that I have been benefited, in fact, cured of a bad case of kidney trouble by Swamp-Root. My kidneys have been bothering me for the last six months and I tried at least ten remedies and found no relief until I tried Swamp-Root. I am entirely cured now. Yours very truly,

L. Heidt.

Macon, Ga.

It Has No Equal.

I have been affected with kidney trouble for a number of years and not until this year have I been relieved. I began taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and before I had finished one bottle I felt its good effects. I consider it one of the most invigorating medicines sold and for troubles of this kind and for backache I do not think it has an equal.

WORDS OF PRAISE

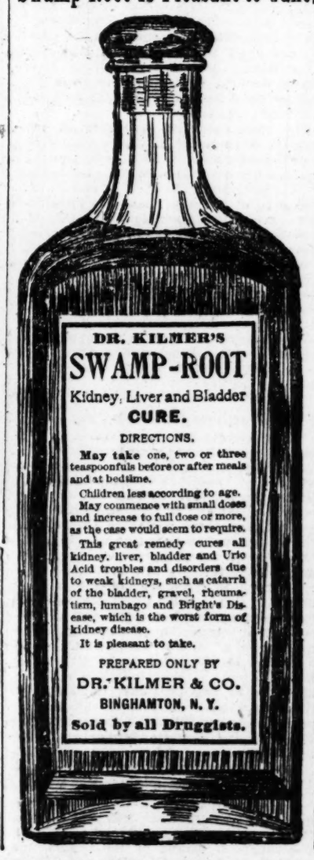

For Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

The testimony of well-known people whose reputation and standing are of the very best is the only kind which really counts and is the only kind we ever give. Mrs P. B. Marsh is well known to all the people of Dallas, Ga., and only the desire to benefit suffering humanity prompts her to publicly proclaim the great good which she has derived from the use of Swamp-Root. She writes as follows to The Constitution:

"I had suffered with kidney trouble for forty years and had tried many remedies with little improvement. I was at last advised by a friend to try 'Swamp-Root.' After using one bottle I felt decidedly better and stronger about my back than I have for many years. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers with kidney trouble."

MRS. P. B. MARSH.

Swamp-Root Is Pleasant to Take.

Best Medicine Made for Kidney Trouble.

MRS. H. McMURTRIE.

27 Sampson Street, Atlanta, Ga., March 19, 1902.

To the Editor of The Constitution: "I can cheerfully say that Swamp-Root has restored my health and strength, after being troubled with kidney disease for ten years. It is the best medicine made for anyone suffering with kidney trouble.

Mrs H. McMurtrie

"27 Samson Street, Atlanta, Ga."

ONE BOTTLE CURED HIM.

"Columbus, Ga., January 3, 1902.—It affords me great pleasure to testify to the merits of Dr. Kilmer's 'Swamp-Root.' I had a violent pain in my kidneys, I suppose caused from cold, and was hardly able to walk upright. I called on my druggist, who suggested a bottle of 'Swamp-Root.' I took same according to directions and the effect was marvelous, the pain disappearing in a short time. I am very glad to recommend 'Swamp-Root' to all who suffer with any trouble of the kidneys. It is a valuable remedy. Yours truly,

Louis H. Wolfson.

Used Only Two Bottles.

Valdosta, Ga., January 1, 1902.—Editor Atlanta Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.: Last summer I suffered terribly with my back and I tried plasters of several kinds and tried baths and liniments with no relief, and I noticed a secretion from my urine and decided I had kidney trouble. I at once began using Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and before I had finished the first bottle I noticed an improvement. I only used two bottles and today I know Swamp-Root is the best kidney remedy I ever saw and do hope all who are suffering with their kidneys will try it. It certainly did me all the good in the world and I heartily recommend it as the best kidney medicine I ever knew.

Judge Sessions Recommends Swamp-Root.

The following letter to The Constitution from Judge W. M. Sessions, of Marietta, is concise and to the point. Judge Sessions is one of the best known lawyers in the state of Georgia, and was for twelve years judge of the Brunswick circuit:

About two months ago my appetite failed so that I could not eat anything. I lived on beef soup principally for about a month. In the meantime I would be compelled to get up more than an average of every hour through the night; also, troubled in the same way through the day. Having seen Swamp-Root recommended for such cases, I commenced taking it. In a short time my appetite improved, and I felt better generally. I am also relieved from being compelled to get up through the night so often. The swelling in my feet and legs has nearly disappeared.

JUDGE W. M. SESSIONS. Marietta, Ga., January 15, 1901.

EDITORIAL NOTICE--If you have the slightest symptoms of kidney, liver or bladder trouble, or if there is a trace of it in your family history, send at once to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who will gladly send you by mail, immediately, without cost to you, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root and a book containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured by Swamp-Root. When writing be sure to say that you read this generous offer in The Atlanta Daily Constitution. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Swamp-Root is for sale at all Drug Stores in bottles of two sizes and two prices--fifty cents and one dollar.

SENATOR MASON IS BEATEN AND CHARGES GROSS FRAUD

Springfield, Ills., May 8.—The result of the republican state convention held here today was a decisive victory for the state administration, and for what is known as the "Yates-Hopkins-Lorimer-Northcott combination." The convention indorsed the administration of Governor Yates and the candidacy of Congressman Albert J. Hopkins, of Aurora, for the United States senatorship by an overwhelming majority.

Tonight Charles G. Dawes announced his withdrawal from the senatorial race. Senator Mason declared that he would keep up his fight, and would succeed himself as senator from Illinois.

The convention nominated a state ticket and adopted resolutions condemning the "malignant attacks now being made upon our soldiers and sailors." And pledging hearty support to President Roosevelt in his efforts to enforce the laws against illegal combinations in restraint of trade.

Senator W. F. Mason said:

"I will succeed myself as United States senator from Illinois. Certainly a convention made by brutally unseating regularly elected delegates and seating those elected by ballot box stuffing and boodle could have nothing in common with republicanism. These ultimate effects will be to elect me and to defeat Mr. Lorimer for congress."

The consensus of opinion among the delegates is that today's action of the convention settles the senatorial contest.

Liabilities Over $2,000,000.

New York, May 8.—J. Adriano Bush, assignee for Henry Bros. & Co., said today that the liabilities of that firm amount to $2,163,314. He says also that the firm has sufficient assets to cover all debts.

VICTORY FOR UNITED STATES

In the Arbitration of a Dispute With Salvador.

Washington, May 8.—The United States has won a sweeping victory in the matter of the arbitration of the dispute with the republic of Salvador over the claim of the Salvador Commercial Company and other citizens of the United States, stockholders in the corporation El Trumfo Company, Limited, created under the laws of Salvador. Sir Henry Strong and Don M. Dickinson, a majority of the arbitration committee, have rendered an opinion against Salvador for $573,178. Senor Don Jose Rosa Pais, the Salvadorean arbitrator, strongly dissented from the opinion of the majority.

A stormy sequel to the award occurred this afternoon at the Arlington hotel, when Dr. Jose Rosa Pacas, representing Salvador, during a session of the commission, said that he had been offensively treated by his fellow-members. Sir Henry Strong, chief justice of Canada, who is president of the commission, deprecated these remarks, and told Dr. Pacas in plain language that he was under a misapprehension.

MILLEDGEVILLE IS EAGER FOR VISIT OF MINISTER WU

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The military college and the city of Milledgeville are pluming themselves upon the expected visit of Minister Wu Ting-fang.

President Reynolds has received a telegram from Congressman Bartlett, giving positive assurance that Minister Wu is coming. He will reach this city by the Georgia railroad from Augusta at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 28th.

The college board of trustees held a meeting this afternoon for the purpose of devising plans for the suitable reception and entertainment of the distinguished visitor. Two addresses will be made from the college rostrum on Wednesday, 28th instant; one by Hon. Roland Ellis, of Macon, the other by the Chinese minister.

Mr. Wu's visit is going to mark a red-letter day in the calendar of this historical old Georgia city. Already indications point to the greatest crowd Milledgeville has ever known. Steps have been taken to secure excursion rates for the occasion.

Among the visitors on that occasion will be some of Georgia's most distinguished men, including Governor A. D. Gandler, Chancellor Walter B. Hill, members of congress, state and United States senators and others prominent in public and professional life.

Dr. Palmer Still Improving.

New Orleans, May 8.—Dr. Palmer still continues to improve and the physicians regard his condition as very favorable. The family has asked that the railroad employees be spared from prosecution, absolving them from all blame.

A GRAVE CRIME LAID TO COOKER

Slayer of Collins in Newton, Ga., Must Answer to Murder Charge.

CLAIMS THE SLAIN MAN ATTEMPTED AN ASSAULT.

Cooker Claims That His Wife During His Absence from Home Was Made the Victim of Violence on Part of Collins.

Newton, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—M. C. Cooker, who on Saturday morning last shot and killed Bill Collins, had a commitment trial today. After hearing the evidence of twenty-eight witnesses the judge ordered Cooker to jail to be held to answer to the charge of murder.

It is claimed by Cooker that his wife, on Friday evening last, was the victim of an attempted criminal assault by Collins, while Cooker was absent from his home. It is also alleged that Cooker was on his way here Saturday morning to swear out a warrant for Collins. Meeting Collins unexpectedly, however, it is said, Cooker without warning shot him twice with a rifle, death resulting instantly.

Cooker was convicted here at the last term of the superior court of forging land deeds. He was under sentence to serve a term in the chaingang. He was out on bond awaiting the action of the supreme court in his case. This tribunal had affirmed the decision of the lower court, but the order had not been received by the sheriff to turn the prisoner over to the authorities.

Collins, the deceased, was one of the most important witnesses against Cooker in the land deeds forgery trial.

MURDER TRIAL ON IN WILKES.

Robert Gulley Must Face Jury on This Charge.

Washington, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The case of the State v. Robert Gulley, charged with murder, was taken up in the superior court this morning. This is the second trial of the case, a former one resulting in a mistrial.

Gulley is on trial for the alleged murder of Wade Bolton, a highly respected young man. There had been much feeling between the two men over the plowing of a piece of land by Bolton which Gulley had rented. At the time of the tragedy Gulley, a road overseer, with a force of hands, was working the road near Bolton's home.

It is claimed by the state that Gulley had hands to work too far out of the road into the land of Bolton with a view of irritating Bolton, drawing him into a difficulty, with a view of killing him. When Bolton drove up and discovered what had been done he immediately began to abuse the road overseer. It is shown that he finally drew a pistol and commenced firing at Culley. The latter retaliated by doing likewise. Several shots were exchanged, when Bolton fell mortally wounded. Gulley was untouched.

The trial is exciting much interest, and it was hard to get a jury, several panels being exhausted before doing so. The tragedy occurred about fifteen months ago, in this county.

A MANUAL TRAINING SCHOOL.

Through Peabody Generosity Athens May Have One Soon.

Athens, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Superintendent G. G. Bond, of the city schools; E. R. Hodgson, Sr., of the Athens board of education, and E. R. Hodgson, Jr., of the East Athens night school board, have gone to Columbus, Ga., to inspect the manual training school established there last year by George Foster Peabody, of New York.

Mr. Peabody has offered to equip such a school in Athens if the board of education will provide for its maintenance. The board is favorable to the acceptance of the proposition.

In Memory of Dead Engineer.

Woodstock, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—On next Saturday, May 10, at 11 o'clock, the Woodmen of the World will unveil here a monument to the memory of Engineer Ed Dawson. It will be remembered that Engineer Dawson was killed in a wreck on the Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern railroad near Ducktown, Tenn., in November. The members of the camps at Blue Ridge, Marietta and Atlanta are expected to be present.

THE GREENE-GAYNOR ENIGMA.

CASE WILL BE CALLED IN SAVANNAH TUESDAY.

It Is Believed the Estreated Bonds Were Arranged for Before Being Made.

Savannah, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Next Tuesday the United States court in Savannah will be convened by Judge Emory Speer. For that day are made returnable the rules nisi granted by Judge Speer against B. D. Greene and John F. Gaynor, alleged conspirators against the government, and the sureties upon their bonds, each for $40,000, are made returnable. Executions against Greene, Gaynor and their sureties will be issued if the defendants do not appear, the rules being made absolute. The defendants will contest whatever action the government may take, and the case, if decided against them, will be taken to the circuit court of appeals.

Edward Gaynor and William F. Gaynor have both been directed to report for trial on next Tuesday, but it is not believed that their cases will be taken up. Should Greene and John Gaynor be brought back from Quebec, as is hardly probable, before that time, the cases of all four alleged conspirators will probably be taken up.

Bondsmen for Greene and John Gaynor, respectavely, are the late James D. Leary, of New York, and W. F. Kirk, of Syracuse. The executor of the estate of Leary will be made a party to the action. Both bonds are perfectly good, but it is believed that both bondsmen will be immune from actual loss, as it is expected that their principals will see to it that they do not suffer. It is currently believed that Leary and Kirk saw to this before they affixed their names to the bonds.

Curfew Law is Favored.

Savannah ministers view with favor the movement that has been started in Atlanta for the institution of a curfew law in that city. There are some in Savannah who want to see a similar measure passed by the city council. The hour suggested for Atlanta's curfew, 8 o'clock, is regarded as too early, and 9 o'clock is suggested for Savannah, though it should be remembered that, because of the different times used by the two cities, the hours are practically the same.

Rev. J. A. Smith, of Epworth Methodist church; Rev. John D. Jordan, of the First Baptist church; Rev. Dr. W. C. Schaeffer, of the Lutheran Church of the Ascension; Rev. P. H. Duncan, of the Christian church, and Rev. Bascom Anthony, of Trinity church, have all pronounced for a curfew law. "It's a good thing anywhere in the wide world," declared Rev. Mr. Anthony. "If the daddies won't take care of their children, the public ought to."

Mayor Myers was asked by the representative of The Constitution what he thought about a curfew law. He said that he has never given favorable consideration to such a law. He does not advocate it, for the reason that he believes that parents are amply able to look after their own.

Fish Stories Will Be Due Soon.

Griffin, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The Satilla River Fishing Club has gone for its annual outing on the banks of the Satilla river. They carried everything conducive to their comfort and a jolly crowd was aboard as the train moved out. Those who went were R. F. Strickland, J. Emory Drake, Thomas R. Mills, Thomas J. White, John B. Mills, E. C. Smith, H. V. Kell, J. C. Brooks, J. Ell Brewer, J. A. Brooks, R. L. Williams, E. B. Oxford, Walter Ellis, Forrest Parker and R. C. Crowder.

LOSES LEG IN CRAP GAME.

Negro in Augusta Is "Faded" by a Box Car.

Augusta, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Henry Owens lost both legs today while engaged in a game of craps.

He and several other negroes were sitting under the shade and seclusion of a box car in the Georgia railroad yards shooting craps, when a switch engine suddenly backed up against the car and shoved it along.

The negroes scrambled out in a hurry, but Owens was caught and both legs were mangled. He was carried to the hospital. His fate is uncertain.

Pharmacy Board To Meet.

Brunswick, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The Georgia state board of pharmacy will meet here on Monday, May 19, for the examination of applicants for license to practice pharmacy in Georgia. The members of the board are: S. C. Durban, Augusta, Ga., chairman; Max Morris, Macon, Ga.; C. D. Jordan, Monticello, Ga.; J. G. Dodson, Americus, Ga.; George F. Payne, Atlanta, Ga.

HONOR IS PAID TO AN ATLANTAN

John Berkele Elected Representative to the Supreme Council Royal Arcanum.

GRAND COUNCIL ADJOURNS SESSION IN CENTRAL CITY.

All Officers Were Reelected Except the Grand Secretary, This Place Going to R. P. Lester, Jr., of Covington — Committee Changes.

Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The grand council of Royal Arcanum of Georgia adjourned today at noon after a most interesting and busy session of one day and a half.

All the old officers, with the exception of grand secretary, were reelected. The list of these officers were published in full in today's Constitution. The election was held just before adjournment today. There was a spirited contest for the position of grand secretary. There were several candidates. R. P. Lester, Jr., of Covington, was elected.

There were some changes made in the standing committee on laws and supervision and the finance committee. These committees as now constituted are as follows:

Laws and Supervision—J. W. Dillon, Thomasville; J. B. Rountree, Quitman; Charles Duval, Augusta.

Finance Committee—F. C. Welsiger, Columbus; L. S. Ledbetter, Cedartown; G. W. McDounan, Athens.

State Medical Examiner—John C. Olmstead, M. D., Atlanta.

The supreme council will appoint a special deputy. The present special deputy is J. Tom Rodgers, of Macon. He travels over the state as an organizer of subordinate councils and does field work generally. The grand council at its session just closed appropriated the sum of $800 for the salary and expenses of the special deputy. This amount is supplemental to the appropriation by the supreme council.

Committee on good of order, Grand Regent F. H. Saffold, of Swainesboro; C. N. Woodruff, Macon; J. A. Brown, Summertown.

F. H. Saffold, of Swainsboro, and John Berkele, of Atlanta, were elected supreme representatives to the supreme council, which meets on May 21 in Atlantic City, N. J. L. S. Ledbetter, of Cedartown, and W. H. Edmondson, of Rome, were chosen alternates to the supreme council.

The time of the meeting of the grand council was changed from the first Wednesday in May to the fourth Wednesday in April.

Macon will be the next place of meeting. This city will remain the permanent meeting place until changed by a majority vote of the grand council.

The twenty-second session which has just closed has been highly gratifying and successful in every respect.

The newly-elected officers were installed by W. A. Griffith, of Brooklyn, N. Y., deputy supreme regent.

A CENTURY CELEBRATION.

Grove Level Baptist Church To Observe Hundredth Birthday.

Gainesville, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The centennial celebration of the Grove Level Baptist church, in Banks county, near Maysville, will embrace the third Saturday in May, being the 17th day. This church was constituted by Rev. Moses Sanders with sixty-four members on the third Saturday in May, 1802—one hundred years ago.

The most eminent preachers in the Baptist denomination in Georgia have accepted invitations to be present, among the number being Drs. W. W. Landrum, F. C. McConnell, T. P. Bell and S. Y. Jameson, of Atlanta. Elaborate preparations are being made to make the occasion a memorable one in the history of Georgia Baptists.

Rev. Moses Sanders was the great grandfather of Colonel C. C. Sanders, the prominent banker of Gainesville, and established besides this many other Baptist churches in north Georgia. Dr. Garner, of Harmony Grove, is preparing statistics of this church for one hundred years and will read them at the centennial celebration.

Prospects for Good Crop.

The prospects for a good crop in this section of northeast Georgia are splendid. The farmers, owing to the lateness at which they could begin work, have been tilling the soil day in and day out for several weeks and as a result their farms are in good shape, with the seed all in the ground and some cotton up. In a little while cotton chopping will be in order and the farmers will have little leisure time until crops are laid by. Indications are that a good wheat crop will be made and much of it was sown, so the farmers in this section will be pretty well fixed from a "bread" standpoint.

Another thing in their favor is that the fruit has not yet been hurt and will not likely be at this late day, though May cold snaps have done much damage in previous years. All in all, prospects for the northeast Georgia farmer are very flattering.

Rifles Elect Officers.

Anniston, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Calhoun Rifles last night the following officers were elected to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Captain Arthur Harrison and Junior Second Lieutenant E. Dwight Smith: Captain, First Lieutenant H. D. Smith, promoted; first lieutenant, Second Lieutenant S. L. Green, promoted; second lieutenant, First Sergeant G. W. Eichleberger, promoted; junior second lieutenant, Private George Hazzard, promoted. Sergeant W. G. Bullard was appointed first sergeant.

ATHENS MAN ENDS HIS LIFE IN SOUTH CAROLINA HOTEL

ATHENS, GA., May 8.—(Special.)—News has been received here of the suicide tonight of W. T. Witcher, of this city, in Greenwood, S. C. Mr. Witcher ended his life at the Hotel Oregon, where he was a guest.

The cause for the tragedy is not known here, although the belief is current that Mr. Witcher was suffering from a temporary mental aberration. He left three letters, one to his daughter, Mrs. E. B. Mell, of Athens; another to J. J. C. McMahan, also of this place, and the third to H. J. Brinson, proprietor of the hotel at which he was stopping.

Mr. Witcher was a well-known citizen of Athens. He was a member from Clarke county of the democratic executive committee of the eighth congressional district. He was the traveling representative of a Richmond, Va., house, and was out on a trip for his firm.

He is survived by a widow, three daughters, Mrs. E. B. Mell and Misses Eula and Lois Witcher, and a son, Gus Witcher. The body will be brought here for burial.

SAVANNAH WILL HAVE SHOOT.

Cracks of This and Other States To Enter.

Savannah, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The officers and sharpshooters of the Savannah military held a meeting tonight at the Guards' hall.

It was decided to have a state and interstate rifle and carbine contest about the last of August or the first of September. A committee was appointed to consider ways and means and report at a meeting to be held within a week.

Colonel George T. Cann, inspector general of rifle practice of the Georgia state troops, reported that he had received assurances from a number of regimental commanders of Georgia and other states that their commands would enter teams for the competition. He expressed the belief that the state's shoot to be held in Macon probably next month would serve as an excellent feeder for the Savannah shoot, as marksmen would be developed there who would be keen to enter competition with the cracks that are expected to come to the city.

Valuable trophies and attractive money prizes will be offered for the shoot.

TO LATE SENATOR HERNDON

Eloquent Tributes Are Paid at Dalton Memorial Service.

Dalton, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Memorial services were held in the court house at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in memory of the late Senator B. Z. Herndon.

Judge A. W. Fite was present and presided at the meeting. All the members of the local bar were present and several visiting lawyers.

The resolutions of respect were presented by the committee, through Colonel T. R. Jones, who spoke eloquently in respect to the memory of the deceased. Colonel I. E. Shumate, the oldest member of the bar, spoke in laudatory terms of the life of Colonel Herndon as a lawyer and citizen.

Hon. Roland Ellis, of Macon, Ga., who was a member of the senate during the term of Senator Herndon, was present and paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased. Judge A. W. Fite then spoke of his association with Colonel Herndon in the legislative halls, and as a lawyer, and heartily indorsed the remarks that attested to the ability, integrity and honorable life of the deceased.

YOUNG CLEMONS SUICIDES.

With Shotgun He Blows His Head to Atoms.

Madison, Ga., May 8.—(Special.—Ed Clemons, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Clemons, killed himself at his father's home about 10 miles south of Madison early this morning. No cause is shown for the rash act.

The young man had been out in the lot, and coming to the house he met his little sister and told her he was going to kill himself. He then proceeded to the house, went into his room and locked himself in. Shortly afterwards a loud report was heard.

On bursting into the room it was found that the young man had blown his head into atoms with a double-barreled shotgun. He had cocked both barrels of the gun, placed the muzzle under his chin and with two sticks he pressed down upon the triggers and blew himself into eternity.

Suits Against Cotton Oil Mills.

Jackson, Miss., May 8.—(Special.)—The indictments against the cotton oil mills now pending in the federal court for the southern district of Mississippi have been set for hearing one week from today. The opinion is gaining ground that the federal court will be unable to prosecute the cases on account of the recent decision by the federal court of appeals at New Orleans, and the oil mill managers are confident that they will be victorious in the outcome.

Another Carnegie Gift.

Elberton, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Andrew Carnegie has given another $1,000 to the Seaboard library work of Mrs. Eugene B. Heard, of Middleton. In making the donation he expressed gratification at the result of the work and said he would be glad to lend it every assistance. Under Mrs. Heard's administration the library has greatly grown and has attracted attention all over the United States. It is now a recognized department of the Seaboard Railway Company.

SUPERIOR COURT IN BROOKS.

Taylor, Who Killed Bass, Is Convicted of Manslaughter.

Quitman, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The superior court is in session here, Judge Spence presiding.

H. G. Hopson was convicted of violating the prohibition laws and sentenced to the gang for twelve months without fine.

Carl Taylor, who killed Bass in a desperate fight at Little river trestle about a month ago, was tried yesterday and the jury, after staying out all night, brought in a verdict of manslaughter this morning. He was sentenced for two years.

A charter was granted the Quitman Oil Company and a number of unimportant cases disposed of.

AN IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.

A Meeting Relative to Fire Insurance Rates for Macon.

Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Secretary Fleming and Director Edgar Wilson, of the Southeastern Tariff Association, and a committee from the Macon chamber of commerce met in conference this afternoon with Mayor Smith and the finance committee of the city council with a view of trying to settle on a plan to secure cheaper fire insurance rates for Macon.

The result of the conference was that it will be recommended to the mayor and council that the city put on an additional fire company, and the insurance rate will then be so reduced as to effect a saving of $30,000 per year to property holders in insurance rates and premiums.

The new company will cost the city about $7,500 per annum.

Moonshining is Charged.

Huntsville, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—Burr Bell, of Scottsboro, was brought to this city yesterday on a charge of selling illicit whisky at that place. Bell was admitted to $200 bond after a hearing before United States Commissioner Greenleaf.

MANY BAPTISTS TO MEET TODAY

The Forty-Seventh Session of Southern Convention Opens This Morning.

LARGEST BAPTIST BODY THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

It is Estimated That 3,000 Delegates Will Be in Attendance—Hon. W. J. Northen, of Atlanta, Will Call the Body to Order.

Asheville, N. C., May 8.—The forty-seventh session (forty-seventh year) of the southern Baptist convention begins here tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Ten special trains have arrived already. The attendance is large. It is estimated that 3,000 delegates will attend. The first session will be called to order by Hon. W. J. Northen, of Atlanta, president of the last convention.

This convention is the largest organized body of Baptists in the world. It embraces 19,558 churches in the states east of the Mississippi river and south of the Ohio; also in Maryland, the District of Columbia, Missouri, Arkansas, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Texas, Mexico and Cuba.

The main questions for consideration by the convention will be education and home and foreign missions. Both the home and foreign boards have increased greatly their work during the last year and will report free of debt. It is said that the home board, of which Dr. McConnell, of Atlanta, is secretary, will report a balance on hand of something like $5,000. The report of the foreign board, the headquarters of which is in Nashville, will be made by Dr. R. J. Willingham.

Mr. Northen, having declined reelection as president, there is much speculation among the delegates as to who will be the next presiding officer. Many were of the opinion that Mr. Northen may yet be induced to serve another term.

The Educational Society.

The American Baptist Educational Society, an adjunct of the southern Baptist convention met this afternoon. President Pollock, of Mercer college, Georgia, was elected president pro tem.

The executive board submitted its report, showing grants to ten institutions during the year. The aggregate is $127,000 conditioned upon $346,000 more being secured. The number of high schools in the south has increased from 343 in 1900 to 1,358 in 1901. The report of Treasurer E. V. Cary showing that receipts for the fiscal year of $77,075.73 was also read by Dr. Morehouse and adopted with the report. Several interesting addresses were made.

Officers Are Elected.

The following officers were elected: President, A. Gaylord Slocum, LL.D., Michigan; vice presidents, John F. Forbes, Ph.D., Florida; John H. Harris, LL.D., Pennsylvania; recording secretary, Rev. H. B. Grose, Massachusetts; corresponding secretary, H. L. Morehouse, D.D., 111 Fifth avenue, New York city; treasurer, E. V. Cary, Mont Clair, N. J.; auditor, G. W. Murray, New York. Members of the executive board, 1902-5, Eugene Levering, Baltimore, Md.; Rev. E. T. Tomlinson, Elizabeth, N. J.; Rev. Fred T. Gates, New York city; Joshua Levering, Baltimore, Md.; G. W. Murray, New York city; Colonel J. A. Hoyt, Greenville, S. C.; E. W. Stephens, Columbia, Mo.; J. W. Bailey, Raleigh, N C.; J. B. Gambrell, D.D., Waco, Tex

An important meeting of the trustees of the Baptist Theological seminary, at Louisville, was also held today, Hon. Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, presiding. Reports of the various committees were read, and the institution was shown to be in the most flourishing condition.

The Woman's Missionary Union will hold a two days' session commencing tomorrow.

The Baptist Young People's Union held their meting this morning. The meeting was opened by President Candler. Among the speakers were President John H. Chapman, of the Baptist Young People's Union of America. Mr. Chapman spoke at length upon the remarkable growth of the organization, and predicted even a larger growth this year. The association was shown to be in a highly flourishing condition.

WHITECAPS IN MISSISSIPPI.

REIGN OF TERROR INAUGURATED AMONG NEGROES.

One Victim Who Breaks Away While Being Whipped Is Shot and Killed.

Jackson, Miss., May 8.—(Special.) Whitecappers have again appeared in Simpson county and are carrying on a reign of terror among the negroes.

A report just received here states that a band of the whitecaps visited the home of a negro named Jim Steele in the Westville neighborhood and administered a severe thrashing. Two men covered the defenseless negro with a pistol while the others knocked him down with clubs and proceeded to give him a terrible whipping. Steele is still confined to his bed. He says that the only reason assigned by the whitecappers for the outrage was that he "had been carrying a gun around and telling lies." The negro further says that he knows who his assailants were, but is afraid to tell, fearing future results.

Another report comes from the Dlo neighborhood of a whitecap outrage committed on a negro named Paldo May who was given a severe chastisement for his indolence. While the whipping was in progress May made a break for liberty and one of the party fired at him with a shotgun, several shots taking effect in the back, from the effects of which he died in a few hours.

A special from Mendenhall states that all the parties who participated in the May outrage are well known, but no arrests have been made. The grand jury meets two weeks hence and the matter will be rigidly investigated.

REPORT FROM PENITENTIARY.

Increase is Shown in Prison Population in Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., May 8.—(Special.)—During the month of April thirty-six new convicts were received by the Mississippi penitentiary, seventeen discharged, four pardoned and three died, making a net increase in prison population for the month of twelve.

Warden Parchman has submitted his monthly report to the board, showing that the season's crop has been planted on the various convict farms, and prevailing conditions are generally satisfactory.

The board of control has spent $1,850 for a Gullet gin which will be installed on the new farm in Sunflower county. This farm will be devoted chiefly to the culture of cotton this season, and a fine yield is expected, as the tract is one of the most fertile in the delta.

BANKERS MEET IN CHARLESTON

The South Carolina Association Holds Enjoyable Convention.

CASHIER JOSEPH A. M'CORD DELIVERS A FINE ADDRESS

The Subject of the Atlanta Financier Was "The Relation of Banks to Industrial Developmepnt." Remarks Were Well Received.

Charleston, S. C., May 8.—(Special.)—The convention of the South Carolina Bankers' Association, which was held here today, was largely attended. Many representative men from this state and others were present. It was one of the most enjoyable and successful in the history of the association.

Among the distinguished speakers was Joseph A. McCord, cashier of the Third national bank of Atlanta. His subject was, "The Relation of Banks to Industrial Development." Mr. McCord's address was enthusiastically received. He spoke in part as follows:

"Industrial development in the United States started in the south, and its growth was continuous and showed greater prosperity from 1850 to 1860 than in any decade, until stopped by the civil war, up to which period the banking interest of the south was in excellent condition, and was one of the mighty agencies that assisted in this great development. The civil war destroyed this development, destroying the greatest factor—one, the young men who fell in battle, and ruining others who were fortunate enough to return to their homes, with wrecked fortunes and credit, finding the banking interest almost totally gone. We can, therefore, see the relation of the banks to the industrial development. We had to commence life again, and as the banks, representing the savings of our people, began to regain their former foothold, the industrial development took on new life.

"At a time when the south is leaping to the front as a manufacturing region, it is a matter of vital importance to have clear and sound ideas in regard to the relation of our banks to this new industrial development. How far can our banks safely go in encouraging and aiding our factories? This question cannot be definitely answered, but in a general way some conclusions will be agreed upon by all far-seeing business men. When manufacturing enterprises furnish or propose to furnish what the world must have, and the trade conditions are favorable, it goes without saying that the banks should stand by them in a friendly, business-like way. Such enterprises will hardly come asking for gifts or loans on doubtful security to build them up. The prospects will be so well assured that they will be able to furnish good, marketable collateral. If they cannot take this course, it will be an indication of their unprofitable or risky character.

"Of course, the banks will have to study the situation at home and abroad and decide whether a manufacturing venture asking encouragement is needed, whether its field is inviting and profitable, whether it is likely to be judiciously managed, and the possibilities in the shape of overproduction, labor troubles, unfriendly legislation and foreign wars. Something like the lately proposed Chinese exclusion bill might have the effect of practically destroying our export trade to hundreds of millions of customers in the Orient, and paralyzing the growing industries of the south in the cotton manufacturing line.

"Bankers are intrusted with the money of their friends and neighbors, who have confidence in their judgment, integrity and in the safe and profitable nature of their business opportunities and investments. They would not be acting wisely or conservatively to help one interest at the expense of others, established and indispensable. When bankers aid the manufacturer, they must not cripple themselves so that they will no longer be helpful to the merchant and agriculturist. American business men, however, have a happy knack of satisfactorily and promptly solving problems, and they will have no trouble with this one.

"The shifting of manufacturing to the north made possible the establishment of many banks. The officers of these banks were wise enough to foresee the drift of this southern revival and they have created large surplus reserves, which give confidence and bring to them large deposits, and being thus strongly fortified, they are well equipped to aid eastern manufacturers with funds at low rates of interest with which to a certain degree, to compete with our southern mills, that have so many natural advantages. Instead of trying to see how much we can pay out in dividends, we should take advantage of the prosperous times now upon us, and create surplus funds, equal at least to our banking capital, to meet conditions not so favorable, which no doubt will come. Then again, we should encourage the creation of surplus funds by our industrial establishments; they, like ourselves, will need such reserves, and the manufacturing concern that pays out in dividends all that it makes, or the merchant that spends his profits as soon as made, is unwise, because the machinery of the one wears out and becomes obsolete, while the stock of goods in trade of the other depreciates.

"The two human factors in the production of the chief raw material of the south—the cotton plant—are the negro and the white man. They are by creation and endowment workers together. The one produces the raw cotton, the other fashions it. There be some who prophesy evil of the future, saying that black and white will not always live and work together in peace. But, in your speaker's opinion, there will be no permanent nor bloody division between these two laborers. For it has been essentially ordained by the Creator and Architect of this wonderful world that these two shall supplement each other but cannot merge into each other.

"My observations of the failures of banks recently is that there has been loose management on the part of bank officers and directors, who, in a mild way, may be compared to Nero, who fiddled while Rome was destroyed. The strongest bulwark for a bank is a conscientious and interested directory.

"Remarkable as has been the progress of our southland, yet more remarkable, doubtless, is to be her future. Only we must be brave men and true. How strong and inspiring are the words of crusty old Thomas Carlyle: 'The task will be hard, but no noble task was ever easy.' This task will wear away your lives, and the lives of your sons and grandsons; but for what purpose, if not for tasks like this, were lives given to men?

"Let us all enter into the spirit of these lines, and all the undeveloped riches, material, intellectual and spiritual, of the south shall become developed for not only our happiness, but the happiness as well of the wide, wide world."

DEATH OF DR. J. B. LORRANCE.

He Became Presbyterian Minister Without Theological Course.

Florence, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—The death of Dr. J. B. Lorrance, at Courtland, Ala., a few days ago recalls the fact that he was one of the very few men who have ever entered the Presbyterian ministry without first passing through a theological course.

Dr. Lorrance and his older brother, James, were born in this county. James was educated for the ministry at Princeton, N. J., and his brother took a medical course. James became pastor at Courtland, Ala., and died shortly after the civil war. The church then called upon Dr. Lorrance, who had been active in church work and had also lectured some, to become its minister. He had no theological training, but a special dispensation was secured to admit him to the ministry without taking a theological course.

His work was so satisfactory that he continued in the same town as pastor until his death. He had resigned on account of old age and was to preach his farewell sermon last Sunday had he lived.

Deaths in Huntsville.

Huntsville, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—The death of Mrs. J. C. Collier, wife of Professor Collier, occurred yesterday at her home in East Huntsville. Her husband and four children survive her.

Mrs. Florence Horton, wife of Dr. J. J. Horton, died at her home in New Market very suddenly. She was widely known and esteemed.

Burial of George F. Pierce.

Sparta, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—George F. Pierce, aged 23 years, who died in Atlanta on Sunday, was buried here yesterday in the cemetery lot where rest the remains of his father, Hon. G. F. Pierce, one of the most brilliant lawyers of his day, and of his illustrious grand-uncle, Bishop Pierce.

SOUTHERN MILL MEN MEET

AT COTTON SPINNERS' SIXTH ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Many Topics of Importance and Interest Are Discussed in Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., May 8.—(Special.)—Several hundred representative cotton mill men from all parts of the country and particularly from the southern states assembled here today in attendance on the sixth annual convention of the Southern Cotton Spinners' Association.

Since the organization of this association in 1896 much good has been accomplished among the spinners of Dixie on account of the closer relations and better fellowship brought about among the manufacturers. Six times the mill men have gathered together and many and varied have been the topics discussed with important bearing upon the cotton factory industry in all its phases.

A feature of the meeting today was a paper prepared and read by George E. Ladshaw, a hydraulic engineer, residing at Spartanburg, S. C., his subject being, "Water Power, Amount Available, Commercial Value and the Cost of Development." Mr. Ladshaw has written several valuable works relative to the wonderful possibilities of the natural water powers in the south. His paper was very favorably received and highly commended by those in attendance and while purely of a technical nature, contained a great many interesting points for the mill men who heard it.

L. W. Thomas, of Cooleemee, N. C., ex-president of the New England Cotton Manufacturers' Association, read a particularly interesting paper on the subject, "Cotton Mill Waste," which was replete with useful and timely hints to the manufacturers who would take advantage of economy in the conduct of their enterprises.

Other important papers were read and a number of matters with direct bearing of the cotton mill situation thoroughly discussed. It was one of the most profitable meetings in the history of the association and by far the largest number of delegates were in attendance. Some idea of the growth of the organization may be had when it is stated that more than one hundred new members were admitted into the association today. The southern spinners begin on another year's work under exceedingly auspicious circumstances. The association is in a flourishing condition and the cotton mill men who compose its membership are authority for the statement that the prospects of the factories in the south were never brighter.

The afernoon session was devoted to routine business, the reading of officers' reports and reports of committees and the election of officers. Charlotte, N. C., was selected as the next place of meeting of the association. The following officers were elected:

George B. Hiss, Charlotte, N. C., president; Thomas M. Swift, Elberton, Ga., vice president; C. B. Bryant, Charlotte, secretary and treasurer. The board of governors consists of thirteen members, with W. C. Heath, of Monroe, N. C., as chairman.

ONE GEORGIA EDITOR'S WORK.

Success Crowns Patient Toil of Editor Moore.

Crawfordville, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The record and career of Clem G. Moore, editor of The Crawfordville Democrat, is an interesting one and shows the possibilities in Georgia for a boy of the integrity, industry and perseverance who will make use of his gifts.

CLEM G. MOORE,
Editor Crawfordville, Democrat.

His father died just six weeks after the birth of the son, sacrificing his life in the service of the confederacy. After the war the family, which included among its connections some of the most prominent people in the state, were reduced from a position of affluence to comparative poverty. Clem was denied many of the advantages enjoyed by his brothers and sisters, but made up for the loss by close study and wide reading. At the age of 17 he went into the publishing business. His first newspaper venture was with The Crawford News, which he finally sold, and 1885 bought The Crawfordville Democrat. Being forced in 1892 to give up active work on account of his health, he leased the paper, but being unable to collect the amount due on the contract he resumed charge of the enterprise in 1895, and has issued the paper regularly since that date.

Mr. Moore is one of the most active, enterprising and industrious members of the Georgia weekly press and possesses a wonderful fund of pluck and perseverance. He has made a splendid success of his newspaper venture.

LEAGUE OF MUNICIPALITIES.

Negro Mayor of Alabama Present and Makes Speech.

Montgomery, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—The State League of Alabama Municipalities met here today, President Weakley presiding. His annual address was given to a discussion on the changes made in municipal law by the new constitution.

Mayor O. G. Simpson, of Tuscumbia, read a paper on civic organizations as aids to city government, and showed the great benefit of the improvement society of the ladies of his city. L. M. Smith, of Jasper, read a paper on bond issues by small towns.

The negro mayor of the only negro town in Alabama, N. L. Garrison, of Hobson city, is present, and was called on for a speech. He said that in three years since the town began there has been no arrest for drunkenness.

The most cooling, refreshing, strengthening and invigorating beverage obtainable is Astoria Beer, delivered at your door at short notice for $1.25 per dozen. Order by either phone 1249.

In selecting your shoe store, supposing you do what we've made it our rule: Compare. We are not shoe manufacturers, but shoe buyers; we accomplish our part when we obtain the best shoes made, grade for grade.

Boyden is a name that stands head high in the shoe competing world. Pretty generally when a dealer knows that he has to sell against Boyden made shoes, he ranges up with some story about paying for the "little points of finish" and DOESN'T show you his highest price shoes. Thinks to side-track a competitor with an underbid---well? If you've once been inside of a pair of Boyden made shoes you don't need to be told the other side.

Men's Negligee Shirt Sale. Some at Half and Less This Morning.

You have always come early to a C.-J.-DuB. Co. shirt sale if at all in need of a shirt, because you were saving money on shirts from regular lines, just as these we sell today are—not bargain-table shirts, often minus the cuffs and always poorly made in cheap materials, but the highest grade garments.

Negligees, too, think of that, right at the first of six months or more of Negligee Shirt wearing time, marked at half and less than half.

In our opinion these are by far the greatest Negligee Shirts values, considering the high class of goods, in Atlanta. You have been well satisfied with the judgment in other sales, you'll be today. Come early! Of course there's a reason—arrived late last season and were carried over, this lot. That's the whole story. But in shirt styles at least these styles differ so little, if any, from this season's that we could mix these with our regular stock and no one be the wiser. Not our policy, however. Then, too, salespeople do not sell carried over stock with the same enthusiasm as brand new stock. Anyhow, the shirts go on sale this morning.

Our 1.00 Negligees at .69.

These with separate cuffs, sizes 15, 16, 15½, 17 and 17½; with detached cuffs, sizes 14, 14½, 15, 15 1-2, 16 and 16 1-2.

Our 1.50 Negligees at .79.

These in separate cuffs in sizes 14, 14 1-2, 15 1-2, 16, 16 1-2, 17, 17 1-2 and 18; with cuffs attached, sizes 14, 14 1-2, 15, 15 1-2, 16, 16 1-2, 17.

Our 2.00 Negligees at 1.00.

Our regular 2.00 Negligee Shirts of the highest quality from regular lines, sizes with separate cuffs, 14, 14 1-2, 15, 16, 16 1-2, 17, 17 1-2 and 18; with attached cuffs, sizes, 14, 14 1-2, 15, 15 1-2, 16, 16 1-2 and 17.

Half Price Also on 3.00 Line.

Our regular 3.00 Negligee Shirts also at half price, 1.50; with attached cuffs, sizes 14, 14 1-2, 15, 15 1-2, 16, 16 1-2 and 17.

Less Than Half on 3.50 Line.

The regular 3.50 Negligee Shirts at less than half price, 1.50; with attached cuffs, sizes 14, 14 1-2, 15 and 15 1-2.

Mrs Walker Gets $2,500 Verdict.

Columbus, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—In the United States court today the case of Mrs. Mary A. Walker, widow of Captain Jeptha B. Walker, of Marion county, against the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association resulted in a victory for Mrs. Walker. She was given a verdict for $2,500, which is the face value of the insurance policy, and also interest and costs. Peculiar interest attached to the case on account of the nature of Captain Walker's death. He was mysteriously murdered in Marion county over a year ago, his body being found in the road.

"All Over Ten!"

In the Philippines debate it is chiefly incumbent on the democratic senators that they do not permit the republicans to put them in the attitude of general assailants of the army. Everybody acquainted with the organization and methods of the American army knows that the entire personnel of it cannot be justly charged with the system of operations conceived and ordered by the central authorities.

The army is a fighting machine and the individual units do not count. They are swallowed up in the plan of campaign and those who are responsible for it are the persons on whom the praise or blame for good or evil results must fall. As it is ordered and led the army will do magnificently or despicably, and it is folly to charge general incompetency, general cruelty or general inhumanity upon the rank and file of a body that is so thoroughly mechanical and subservient to the dictation of its commanders.

The American people are sensible enough to understand these conditions and are just enough to acquit the army in general of the moral responsibilities involved in the operations it is ordered to undertake and the results that follow the execution of its orders. For that sufficient reason it is the highest unwisdom not to discriminate between the army itself and the authorities by which it is commanded. The democrats, therefore, should be careful not to occupy that position into which the republicans would be glad to force them—the attitude of indiscriminate denunciation of the army as a body of brutes and savages.

But the democrats should not be silenced on any account from denouncing the order of Jake Smith to "kill and burn," and especially to "kill everything over ten years of age!" That is the most indefensible and infamous order ever given by an American officer. No order of Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, or any other of the practitioners of the "war is hell" school, is comparable with this command to wholesale incendiarism, slaughter and destruction. It has revolted the American heart as nothing else in all our history has done and the democrats should not cease to repeat and reiterate it every day in the senate during the changes upon it from ocean to ocean, from the lakes to the gulf! It is the shirt of Nessus on the back of the system of republican war, pacification and benevolent assimilation! Let it cling and burn! Let the people know the full measure of its infamy and let them say in November whether they indorse in the Philippines the slaughter of "all over ten!"

Getting His Record on Straight.

Senator Stephen Boanerge Elkins, of West Virginia, is one of those who discards the boutonniere to give the preference to a Grand Army of the Republic button on his left lapel. Senator Elkins is somewhat massive in his make-up and one observing him could easily imagine what a formidable warrior he might have been in his younger days. But some envious party recently jarred the war department by informing it that the senator had not served in any military capacity during the bold, bad civil war and hence had no right to wear the brave, bronze button.

The report created a larger ruction and area of agitation in the department than a Gardener report from Tayabas or a fresh batch of victories per water cure and serial shootings from the howling wilderness of Samar! Uncle Stephen hastened to produce his documentary credentials to prove that he served as a captain in the Seventy-seventh enrolled Missouri militia under General Schofield, and that the G. A. R., in the interest of the pension graft, recognizes militiamen as veterans along with the armless survivors of Antietam and the legless heroes left over from the battles around Atlanta. So Stephens got his hat chalked O. K. and peace reigns again where the gallant warrior from Mizzoury bivouacs and preens his neck-feathers.

The senator's father, however, was a gallant confederate soldier and a democrat of the dyed-in-the-wool persuasion. He was wont to say that "Steve didn't kill many of us, I reckon," and the only way he could account for his being in the federal service was that "Steve is always wrong in war and politics, but mighty level-headed in business!" Of course, it is business for him to get his civil war record on straight. A republican senator can hardly do business without that equipment in good order.

Money in a Murphy Boom.

The reports from western New York and other potato centers of distribution is to the effect that the price of the tubers must go up. The reserve supply is shorter than it was at this season a year ago and the increase in meat prices is making a larger demand for potatoes every day.

The potato crop is one that ought to interest our southern farmers much more sharply than it has in the past. The mere fact that our home people are not such potato eaters as the inhabitants of the east and north is no reason why the honest and healthful Murphy should be given the go-by. As it is, we are compelled to import from the east and from Cuba every year large quantities of potatoes, when we should be easily supplying the home market and shipping millions of bushels of the mealies to the north and west.

It would be an easy proposition for hundreds of our Georgia farmers, who fatuously refuse to raise their own wheat, oats, corn and bacon to raise potatoes enough to exchange for all those other products of which they have need. The experiments of our agricultural stations in the south show that our cheap lands, favorable climate, freedom from blights and other incidents of advantage are enough to make us easily the greatest potato producing region of the world.

We think this subject one worthy of serious study by our farmers. They should not neglect the market and riches offered them by the constantly recurring scarcity and high prices of potatoes. If they will only organize a Murphy boom they will make money out of it easier than buying cotton futures or breeding goldfish!

Some Who Have Recently Fallen.

Seldom has the public mind been more sensibly impressed with the deadly work of the grim reaper than during the past few days of the opening summer months, which have witnessed the passing away in rapid succession of some of the most distinguished figures of the present generation.

Almost every department of human activity has suffered from the onslaughts made upon the ranks of the living during this comparatively brief interval of time. Less than two weeks ago ex-Secretary Morton was stricken down, and following close upon the heels of this public loss have come dispatches announcing that Sol Smith Russell, the noted actor; Thomas Wilson, the head of the department of archeology in the Smithsonian institution; Wolf Fries, the celebrated musician, and Frank R. Stockton, the genial author-humorist, have crossed over the mysterious border line. But since the present week commenced the grim reaper has claimed other illustrious victims. Archbishop Corrigan, the Roman Catholic prelate; Potter Palmer, the Chicago millionaire; Amos J. Cummings, the New York congressman, and Bret Harte, the successful interpreter of life on the Pacific slope, have gone down into the vale of shadows. We cannot recall any similar period in years which has been marked by so many conspicuous fatalities.

But from this chapter of losses may we not learn the lesson that while our representative men of thought and action must in time pay the debt of nature, the great enterprises and activities of the nation must still go on? Such occasional dispensations impress upon our minds the fact that too many moral and educational safeguards cannot be thrown about the youth of today in preparing them to take the places which are rapidly becoming vacant.

The Demand for Free Hides.

Every voter in the country who doesn't go barefooted is interested in the abolition of the tax on hides. Those who wear the cheaper, heavier grades of shoes are the more interested because, singularly enough, they are robbed the most by the tariff that makes the leather trust possible.

Careful figures submitted to congress show that the hide tax increases the cost of shoes from an average of 2 cents per pair on women's high grade shoes to 15 cents per pair on the coarse shoes of the day laborer and farmer. Before the Dingley act the shoes of the workmen in Pittsburg rolling mills cost $1 per pair, and now they sell at $1.15 for the very cheapest.

The shoemakers of the east are protesting strongly against the continuance of the tax on hides that hampers their trade and enhances the cost of their product. They say it is a tax on the poor and a detriment to the expansion of trade. But they are mostly republicans and find themselves hard aground on the bar of protection set up by their own policy and votes. They find that the trusts they have created are now in control of the congressional machinery and that "no inroad" is posted all over the Dingley act from stem to stern.

These fellows who want free hides are not alone. They have company in those who want free coal, and free wool, and free lumber, and free glass, and free sugar—and the fact is dawning slowly upon their minds that they must desert the sacred elephant of the G. O. P. and join with the democrats for a thorough and honest, trust-smashing revision of the Dingley monstrosity. The signs are favorable for a reversal of representation this fall by a number of the shoemaking districts of Massachusetts and neighboring states.

A Word to Chattanooga.

On Chattanooga Day at the Charleston exposition some of the speakers mooted again the project for an air-line railway from Chattanooga to Charleston. The physical and commercial advantages of such a road were eloquently set forth and no one familiar with the situation of the two cities, or interested in their future commercial development, will gainsay the arguments of advantage to them mutually that were urged in favor of the proposed road.

One of these days, in the courses of southern progress, that line may become an accomplished fact. Its largest section, say from Chattanooga, via Gainesville, to Augusta, would lie in Georgia and traverse a region that would respond in splendid development to the stimulation the road would give to settlement, to farming, mining and facturing. There would certainly be no protest filed by Georgians against the building of so helpful and happily located line.

However, for the present, it appears to us that Chattanooga is more imminently concerned in the project to extend the state road to the sea. She needs an open highway, independent of railway mergers and trusts, that will enable her merchants and manufacturers to reach the seaboard, and thence the world's markets, without the necessity of traffic arrangements and without fear of the let or hindrance of great systems that make the Hill City but a way station or transfer point.

This state road to the sea would be a new declaration of independence to Chattanooga.

The way for the people of Chattanooga to help on the project is to look sharply and carefully to the constant improvement of the Tennessee river. If they will keep everlastingly behind their senators and congressmen until any and all the steamers of the Mississippi and Ohio rivers can reach and tie-up at Chattanooga's wharves they will do more for that city than in any other way.

There seems to have been a straight tip in the report that Teddy told Lodge to smoke up and talk back about the Philippines campaign. Cabby talked the best he knew how with all the facts in his way.

Senator Burton, of Kansas, thinks the president did wrong to reward H. Clay Evans for being too honest as manager of the pension bureau. Still, such an opinion is not a strange one, coming from Burton.

In the absence of an appropriation for paraphernalia the president might lend his gay and gaudy green and gold lackeys to the coronation embassy. They would burn those English flunkies off the earth!

Major Gardener, it seems, is to be required to prove his charges before a commission of officers who think the army can do no wrong. But the court of appeals is the people!

About a month from now we will learn officially that Jakesmith didn't do nothing at all whatsomever out of the way, in spite of The Hague conference rules of civilized warfare.

General Chaffee has gone to interview the sultans and dattos in Mindanao who were left over from the last "nigger killing." They will probably agree to give up liberty and keep their lives.

Teddy denies that he said a word against France giving decorations to Dewey and Miles. The bookkeeper will please transfer that much to the credit side of his account.

It will be noticed that the republicans in the senate are sending the "fresh fish" out on the skirmish line. The old-timers want the democrats to waste their ammunition on the small fry.

Teddy's way to kill the meat trust is to get an injunction against it somewhere along in nineteen-'steen, instead of hamstringing it at once with a repeal bolo!

Senator Hanna insists that Rathbone must have a new trial, but what has the president got to do with ordering one? Is he dictator to the Cuban courts?

If things keep on coming our way as they now are nearly everything with a democratic tag on it will be a hands-down winner in the November election.

The family cook who is also the wife of the head of the family is likely to divert a large dinner pail vote in the way it should go next November.

Between Quay at home and Jakesmith in the Orient, Brer Charles Emory Smith is bothered to death to keep the republican see-saw on a balance.

Democratic harmony and republican discords in congress are keeping the president looking both ways for coming events of a dangerous sort.

If it was right to establish Weyler reconcentration camps in the Philippines why is it so commendable in Chaffee to order them discontinued?

The rumor that Hon. George B. Cortelyou will be secretary of commerce lacks confirmation, but doesn't lack general public approval.

Why should the United States want to make citizens of a people so savage that Order No. 100 is a necessary measure in pacifying them?

Henry Cabot Lodge speaks like the palsied man fired his shotgun. If there is anything hittable in the tree he will surely hit it.

Attorney General Knox is foozling a long time in putting his ball over the beef trust links. It is time he was hiking!

The tradition that a war administration always gets an indorsement is likely to strike a burnt-out trestle this trip.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA."

A Song of the Days.

The dark days, my dearie,—for dark days must be,
With the winds in the woodlands complaining;
I know not what Sorrow is saying to me,—
I but know, in the world it's a-raining!

Rain on Life's meadows—
Dim rain from Life's skies,
The sigh at the heart,
And the mist in the eyes!

The dark days, my dearie,—the stream seeks the sea—
The sea all its crystal depths draining,
And I know not the message it wafts back to me,—
I but know, in the world it's a-raining!

Rain on Life's meadows—
Dim rain where light dies,
The sigh at the heart,
And the mist in the eyes!

A bitter world to Love would seem
If Memory died with Love's last dream.

Odd that the largest sale of Bret Harte's books should be credited to Germany! His poem of "The Two Ships" seemed to be prophetic of "the final summons:"

And I hear from the outgoing ship in the bay
The song of the sailors in glee:

"So I think of the luminous footprints that bore
The comfort o'er dark Galilee,
And wait for the signal to go to the shore,
To the ship that is waiting for me."

BOLD ROBBER GANG RAID POSTOFFICE

They Exchange Shots with the Night Marshal of Thomson, Ga.

MAKE OFF WITH THEIR BOOTY.

Safe Is Wrecked by Liquid Explosive and More than $100, Besides Various Papers and Vouchers of the Office, Is Taken.

Thomson, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—This morning at 1:30 o'clock the postoffice at this place was entered by unknown parties. The safe containing the money of the office was blown open and $122.64, various papers and vouchers of the office taken.

The work was done undoubtedly by a crowd of professionals, and was the boldest known in this section of the state. Both the front and back doors of the office were entered by false keys, and some powerful liquid explosive was used.

The night marshal of the town was on the street at the time and was within 150 yards of the office when the explosion occurred, and immediately advanced upon the robbers. One of the men stood upon the main street of the town and fired upon the officer three times as he advanced.

In the meantime T. B. Hamilton, who had heard the explosion, came to the assistance of the marshal. Other parties began to arrive and the outlaws fled, carrying a part of the money with them and leaving the other scattered upon the floor of the office. The safe was a complete wreck.

TO ENDOW HOME FOR ORPHANS.

Masonic Institution To Receive Gift From North Carolina Women.

Raleigh, N. C., May 8.—(Special.)—It is understood that a lady who for many years was a resident of Raleigh, but who for twenty years has lived at Washington, D. C., will give her property, there and elsewhere, to the Masonic orphanage of this state, at Oxford, in memory of her husband and three daughters who are buried here.

Governor Aycock appoints the following additional delegates to represent this state on German day at the Charleston exposition: C. S. Tanner, of Caroleen; W. A. Erwin, of Durham; L. H. Cutler, of Newbern.

The plans and specifications of the memorial building at the State Agricultural and Mechanical college here were formally accepted today. One hundred students are at work on the foundation of the building.

John W. Atwater, who was a populist state senator and who was voted for by the democrats of this district for congress, in which he served two terms, announces his candidacy for congress as an independent democrat.

A young white man named Mount was killed at Asheville yesterday afternoon. He was from Columbia, S. C. He was working among some telephone wires and fell on electric light wires below. These carry 2,000 volts, and killed him instantly.

It is now settled that in sixty days the Seacoast railway from Wilmington to Wrightsville, 9 miles, will be converted into an electric road. It will be operated by the same company which owns the street railway and the gas and electric light plants.

Victor Brown, a young farmer of Mecklenburg county, is dying. A mule he was riding ran away with him and dashed into the woods. He struck a limb and was knocked off. His foot caught in a stirrup and he was dragged half a mile to his home.

Last October a man who gave his name as M. L. Davis and hailed from Clarendon, Pa., went to Waynesville and established a saw mill. A little later a woman and young woman appeared and were announced as Davis' wife and daughter. A day or two ago the real wife of Davis arrived from Pennsylvania. Davis got a tip and left before she arrived. She at once secured warrants against the other woman, whose real name is Mary A. Buck, and she also sues her husband for support. Mrs. Buck has a counter suit against Mrs. Davis, alleging that she had used the mails fraudulently to get money from Davis.

There is no further trace of Miss Cordelia Childers, the young woman of Hickory, who left home so mysteriously. She was last seen at Morganton and denied her identity. Her uncle has arrived from Danville, Va., and says he will find her if he has to follow her entirely across the continent to do so. It is believed by many that she is hiding in Asheville, but a close search there has proved fruitless.

MEETING OF DRUGGISTS ENDS.

Executive Committee Will Choose Next Place of Meeting.

Birmingham, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—The Alabama Druggists' Association adjourned this morning and left the executive committee to name the next place of meeting. A motion to have Montgomery named as the permanent place of holding meetings was lost by a large majority, and this may lose Montgomery the next meeting.

L. S. Brigham, of Montgomery, was chosen president; W. S. Bauer, of Mobile, vice president; W. E. Bingham, of Tuscaloosa, secretary; F. F. Ravenscroft, of Union Springs, treasurer.

Reports of old officers show the association to be in good condition. Hereafter two years' practical experience in a drug store will be required by the license board of every applicant for license. A resolution was passed authorizing the legislative committee to have the next legislature pass a law requiring hereafter that all physicians shall stand an examination before the board of pharmacy before being allowed to practice medicine in this state.

The Daughters Were Left Out.

Jackson, Miss., May 8.—(Special.)—A special from Hattiesburg states that the state chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, now in session at that place, will discuss the proposed purchase of Beauvoir, the old home of Jefferson Davis. Some objection has been raised on the ground that the Sons of Veterans have not asked the Daughters of the Confederacy to share in deeding the property to the state at the next session of the legislature. The idea to purchase Beauvoir was first suggested by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Falls Dead at Supper Table.

Gibson, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Last night the wife of J. T. Dawson, a farmer living about one mile from here fell dead at the supper table. She is supposed to have died from neuralgia of the heart. She had been in good health all day and had made no complaint of being ill at all.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION ENDS

In Officers' Election Mrs. Sibley is Again Chosen President.

TIME OF MEETING CHANGED.

Body Will Assemble in October, Instead of May—Thomson Is the Place Chosen.

Milledgeville, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention, in the Baptist church, held what was probably its busiest session today.

Mrs. Jennie Hart Sibley, president of the organization, in an entertaining address outlined the policies and work for the organization for the next year and begged the various organizations of the state to give especial attention to the new requirements of public school teachers to instruct, as a department of science, the effect of alcohol upon the human system. This law, she said, she considered the greatest victory of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in a number of years, since such an instruction, if thorough and conservative, will eventually be the strongest influence to instill into the youth of the country a desire to abstain from strong drink.

During the morning session officers were elected for the ensuing year, as follows: President, Mrs. Jennie Hart Sibley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harris, of Sandersville; recording secretary, Mrs. T. E. Patterson, of Griffin; treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Moore, of Oxford; state superintendent of Loyal Legion work, Mrs. L. C. Rogers, of Milledgeville.

The date of convention was changed from May until October, and by special and urgent request will meet at Thomson. Invitations for the next convention were received from Griffin, Washington and Savannah.

At the Y. M. C. A. here today at noon the ladies of the Presbyterian church served the members of the convention and a few other specially invited guests with an elegant dinner. The tables were spread in the gymnasium hall and seated more than sixty. This dinner was one of the most thoroughly enjoyable events of the week. After dinner the reception rooms of the hall were thrown open and the townspeople met the visiting ladies in a general reception. The Demorest gold medal contest was held tonight. There were speakers from throughout the state and some local ones. After the exercises tonight the convention adjourned. During the recess between the afternoon and night sessions carriage drives were taken to the places of interest in the city and to the sanitarium.

MASONIC MEETING COMES TO AN END

Third Annual Convention of Seventh Jurisdiction in Rome.

MANY OF THE CRAFT ATTEND.

Judge Max Meyerhardt Is Reelected Worshipful Master for Third Term—A Sumptuous Banquet Served as Finale of Convention.

Rome, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The third annual convention of the seventh Masonic jurisdiction in Georgia came to an end tonight with the exemplification of the master's degree by Cherokee lodge, followed by a sumptuous banquet.

A large and enthusiastic number of Masons are in Rome, and the spacious lodge room was crowded to overflowing tonight.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Worshipful master, Max Meyerhardt; senior warden, M. D. Smith, Dalton; junior warden, N. A. Bradford, Tilton; secretary and treasurer, R. H. West, Rome; chaplain, Rev. W. A. Simmons, Acworth; senior deacon, T. J. Morris, Rockmart; junior deacon, J. N. Rose, Lyerly; senior steward, I. D. Smith, Plainville; junior steward, W. L. Selman, Floyd Springs.

Judge Max Meyerhardt, who is grand master of the state, and who has been worshipful master of Cherokee lodge for twenty years, was reelected to his third term as master of the district organization.

Nearly every lodge in the district was represented in the convention, and the exercises have been very enjoyable.

Solvent Credit Delinquents.

Jackson, Miss., May 8.—(Special.)—At the June meeting of the board of supervisors of Lauderdale county Revenue Agent Adams will file a list of solvent credit delinquencies against property owners in that county aggregating between $400,000 to $500,000, with the demand that they be placed on the assesment rolls. The delinquencies were worked up by A. D. Galloway, deputy for the eastern district of the state.

SHORT ITEMS CONCERNING MEN AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

ADJUTANT GENERAL J. W. ROBertson yesterday issued commissions to Rev. Charles H. Strong as captain and chaplain of the Savannah Volunteer Guards, the heavy artillery battalion, William H. Oetjen as first lieutenant and Charles Edgar Moring as second lieutenant of company I, third infantry, Augusta.

GOVERNOR CANDLER YESTERDAY pardoned Tack Griggs, of Fayette county, who was sentenced last September to serve ten years in the penitentiary for assault with intent to rape. It has since developed that he was convicted principally on the testimony of a perjured witness, and the prison commission promptly recommended that he be pardoned which was done.

A REWARD OF $100 WAS OFFERED by Governor Candler yesterday for the apprehension with proof to convict of Cicero McKee, who is wanted for the offense of assault with intent to murder Addie Wilson in Fulton county.

GOVERNOR CANDLER YESTERDAY commuted the sentence of Mrs. H. D. Bertram, sentenced for keeping a disorderly house, to a fine of $50, which will be paid and she will be released from jail. Her sentence was $300 or six months on the chaingang, and in addition to that six months in jail. She has already served about five months in jail, but will be released from the rest of the sentence upon the payment of the $50 fine.

IN THE CITY COURT YESTERDAY Charles H. Denny instituted complaint proceedings against the United Benevolent Company of America alleging that, although he held a policy with the company and had been laid up for some weeks on account of an accident, he had received no benefit as a policy-holder. He is represented by Attorneys Abbott & Goree.

THOMAS H. JEFFRIES, DEPUTY clerk of the Fulton superior court, left last evening for Rome, Ga., to attend the meeting of Masons now being held at that place. He will return this afternoon.

WEATHER FORECASTER MARbury stated yesterday that fair weather, with probably an even temperature, about the same as yesterday's, will prevail in this vicinity today. There is nothing to indicate steady rain for today, but showers during the day are not unlikely.

ON ACCOUNT OF THE HEAVY RAIN there was no meeting at the gospel tent at Auburn avenue and Ivy street last night. Tonight Dr. Coombs will speak at the tent on "The Devil in White."

ALL OF THE ORPHANS OF Atlanta have been invited by Henry DeGive and the Bijou Comedy Company to attend next Wednesday's matinee at the Grand opera house. The heads of all the orphan institutions have been requested to notify the management of the Grand opera house as to how many seats will be required, and it is thought that all of Atlanta's orphans will be present.

JOHN HENDERSON, WHO FOR A number of years has been cashier at Folsom's restaurant, on Marietta street, died at his home, No. 68 Fraser street, at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. About two months ago Mr. Henderson sustained a severe fall at his home, in which his right leg was broken. Shortly afterwards an illness set in which caused his death. The deceased leaves a widow and three daughters, Miss Bertha Henderson, of this city; Mrs. L. P. Harvey, of Tullahoma, Tenn., and Mrs. T. W. Neallon, of Atlanta. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

AT A RECENT MEETING OF THE trustees of the Carrie Steele orphanage for negro children, the following officers were elected: R. J. Henry, president; Willis Murphey, vice president; Nick Holmes, treasurer; F. H. Crumbly, secretary. Rev. E. P. Johnson and Dr. E. D. Jones were elected to fill vacancies on the board; so that the board now consists of R. J. Henry, Willis Murphey, Rev. E. R. Carter, Rev. E. P. Johnson, Dr. H. R. Butler, Dr. E. D. Jones, Dr. L. B. Palmer, L. L. Lee, A. Nash, Nick Holmes and F. H. Crumbly. J. Logan, the surviving husband of the founder of the orphanage, was elected superintendent. Since the death of Carrie Steele very little assistance has been given these outcasts, which the city and county has so liberally aided, and the supply of clothing is exhausted. J. Logan, the superintendent, is authorized to solicit from the public clothing, shoes, school books, school supplies, food and bedding.

PETITION FOR CHARTER HAS been filed in the superior court for "The District Grand Lodge, No. 18, of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows of America, Jurisdiction of Georgia." This organization has the longest title of any ever applying for a charter in the courts of Fulton county. The incorporators are Benjamin J. Davis, of Terrell county; Charles D. Cresswell, of Bibb county; William L. Hughes, of Washington county, and William Lissimore, of Lowndes county. The petition was filed by W. A. Pledger.

JUDGE LUMPKIN, IN THE SUPERior court yesterday morning decided that Patrolman John H. Quinn should pay to his wife $10 a month as temporary allimony, pending her suit against him for permanent alimony. Several months ago Mrs. Ida Quinn instituted proceedings against her husband, who she said she married February 14, 1901, to compel him to pay her alimony and attorney's fees. When the case came on for a preliminary hearing before Judge Lumpkin last Wednesday morning Officer Quinn filed a sensational answer to his wife's suit, alleging that she had deceived him at the time of their marriage. Mrs. Quinn was represented by Attorney J. T. Daniel, while Attorney R. J. Jordan appeared for Patrolman Quinn.

THE HENRY GRADY DEBATING Club will tonight tackle the police board question in what promises to be an interesting debate. The question is, "Resolved, That the board of police commissioners should be abolished." The affirmative will be championed by W. S. Weir and W. W. Futrell, while the negative will be handled by E. F. Childress and A. B. Warner. The meeting will be held in the hall of the club at the corner of Marietta and Alexander streets.

MRS. LAURA C. HYER, WIFE OF L. Z. Hyer, died yesterday morning at her residence, 100 Davis street, after an illness of two months. The body will be taken to Dalton this morning for interment. Funeral services will be conducted there. Mrs. Hyer has large numbers of friends who offer to the bereaved relatives their deep sympathy.

THE FUNERAL OF M. L. BRIDWELL occurred yesterday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted at 4:30 o'clock at the St. Paul Methodist church, on Hunter street, by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Dunbar. The interment was in Oakland cemetery. The deceased was a member of Atlanta camp, No. 159, Confederate Veterans, and the following veterans acted as pallbearers: Judge S. H. Landrum, Sam Fulton, J. M. Payne, L. L. Wooolf, John A. Jo[illegible] and Dr. Amos Fo[illegible]. The deceased leaves a wife and one [illegible].

FUNERAL SERVICES OVER THE body of Con Meehan, the ex-policeman, were conducted yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. The interment was in the Hibernian lot in Oakland cemetery. A large number of the friends of the deceased attended the funeral.

FUNERAL SERVICES OVER THE body of Dr. H. Mozely, who died Wednesday night, will be conducted this morning at 10 o'clock by Dr. Walker Lewis at the residence in Battle Hill. The interment will be in Westview cemetery. The following gentlemen will act as pallbearers and are requested to meet at Hilburn & Poole's undertaking parlors at 9 o'clock: Judge George Hillyer, L. Z. Rosser, J. D. Malsby, R. L. Adair, J. W. Morrow, E. C. Atkins, J. G. Dallas and Judge E. B. Rosser.

CALL OFFICERS DOYLE AND TIBBS last night had a desperate encounter with a negro who gives his name as Henry Jones. Officer Doyle received a painful cut over his right eye and Officer Tibbs was struck a heavy blow on his left arm. The two officers were compelled to bring their billies into play before the negro could be subdued. He fought viciously, and Doyle and Tibbs had their hands full in handling him. They finally arrested him, however, and escorted him to the police station. Both of the officers and the prisoner were bloody on arrival there. The combat occurred at the home of Jones, on Bradley street, where the officers had gone to arrest him.

NORTH ATLANTA ALONE MAY BE INCORPORATED

Such Will Be the Report of the Subcommittee This Afternoon.

LONG SESSION YESTERDAY BROUGHT NO RESULTS

Strong Opposition Develops to Including the Factory Districts in New City Limits—Another Meeting This Afternoon.

After a long meeting yesterday afternoon, during which speeches were made both for and against extension, the charter revision committee adjourned until this afternoon without coming to a vote.

One very patent fact developed from the expressions of members, and that was that the limits would not be extended so as to take in the outlying factories. The plan as originally drawn by the subcommittee and reported yesterday afternoon contemplated taking in territory now occupied by factories and mills. The undoubted sentiment of the committee now is to take care of the factories and not burden them with city taxation. The one sentiment expressed by all of the speakers was that Atlanta should do everything to encourage the building of factories.

It looks now as if the committee will favor taking in only one territory adjacent to the city, the district known as North Atlanta or Peachtree. The subcommittee that met after the general committee adjourned, decided to make that recommendation to the general committee this afternoon and from the trend of the speeches yesterday it looks as if North Atlanta is the only section that will be taken in.

When the committee met yesterday Fulton Colville presented the report of the subcommittee in detail. He went over the lines as mapped out by the committee and gave the reasons that actuated the committee in forming the lines as presented. He stated that in making up the new lines the committee had done so with the view of taking in populated sections, of course some vacant property had necessarily been included, but that could not be helped in any kind of extension. Mr. Colville referred to the criticism that had been directed toward the committee for leaving out territory with sewers. He declared that in cases of this kind it would be found that the sewers emptied into vacant property and that the committee had tried to leave out all the vacant property possible.

Should Bring Factories In.

In speaking of the factories that would come in under the new lines, Mr. Colville said that the committee did not think it would be fair to leave out the factories and take in only the homes. He declared that it took all kinds of property to make a city and that the factories would not suffer from paying city taxes. He pointed out the fact that there were many factories already in the city and that they did not complain of the burden of taxation, but were going ahead successfully. He declared that those on the outside already enjoyed the advantages of the city and that they should come in and help pay for them. He pointed out the fact that the insurance rate would be greater if it were not for the city water and fire protection and that it was not right for those already in the city to bear the burden for those on the outside.

Alderman Harvey Johnson followed Mr. Colville. He was in favor of annexation where there were people to annex, but he was not in favor of taking in vacant property and wild lands. He said that he was in favor of taking in north Atlanta, Pittsburg, Cooks district, in fact all of the territory that was populated.

Mr. Johnson said that he did not believe that it was right to take in the factories and get taxes out of them just because the city had the power to do so. He wanted the matter sent back to the committee so that all of the members of the general committee could take carriages and go over the territory. The motion to re-refer was not voted on.

Hurt Favors Extension.

Joel Hurt stated that the people outside seemed to think that the city was trying to get something from them, when the fact was that the city was trying to help them, and would give far more than it would get. Mr. Hurt strongly favored extension, but said that the lines should be drawn so as to leave the factories out.

Judge George Hillyer said that he was opposed to the annexation at first, and that since he had heard the argument he was satisfied his first idea was the correct one. He declared that by taking in so much territory the city would injure both itself and those to be taken in. Judge Hillyer said that there was so much discussion over this one subject that he was afraid that it would jeopardize the other work of the committee, and to settle the matter he introduced a resolution declaring that the committee did not favor any extension at all. This motion was not voted on.

Hoke Smith made the leading speech favoring extension. He took up the speech of Jack J. Spalding, who was against the extension, and declared that it was a remarkable argument. Mr. Smith went on to show how all cities that had grown had done so by extension. He declared that Atlanta could not stand still, and that the time had arrived to take in the rich adjacent territory. He did not favor taking in vacant territory or the factories, but he was in favor of taking in all populated sections.

E. W. Martin spoke in behalf of the factories, and declared that they should not be forced into paying taxes, but, on the other hand, should be taken care of, as they made the city.

Captain J. W. English followed. He declared that the land available for factories should not be taken in, as it would discourage its being used for manufacturing purposes. He was in favor of taking in north Atlanta.

Dr. J. D. Turner also spoke in favor of leaving the factories out of the city.

W. S. Thomson spoke against extension. He said that he had always been opposed to it, and that the arguments advanced had only strengthened his views.

At the conclusion of the speeches there were some half dozen motions before the committee, and quite a tangle arose as to which motion should be put first. After much discussion, it was finally decided to adjourn over until this afternoon without taking any action at all.

The subcommittee then met and decided to leave out all the other territory except north Atlanta, and such will be its recommendation at the meeting this afternoon.

If the wedding gift is not to be one entailing much expenditure, there is no reason why it should not be unique and pleasing.

Art and grace are expressed in our smaller silver pieces quite as distinctly as in the arger designs.

VICTOR BROWN IS MISSING

Youth Attended Police Picnic, but Did Not Return.

LIVELY FIGHT IN THE DEPOT

Over 2,000 Persons Left on the Special for Lithia Springs Yesterday—Blue Coats Enjoyed Day.

The twelfth annual picnic of the police department yesterday at Lithia Springs proved the largest and most successful outing in the history of the department. In the neighborhod of 2,000 people attended, and the day is reported to have been passed in a thoroughly enjoyable manner.

The big crowd was handled in an excellent manner, and very litle disorder occurred during the day. The blue coats and their friends were out for a good time and they had it. Various forms of amusement were indulged in, of which dancing was one of the principal features.

It was reported to the police last night that Victor Brown, a 14-year-old youth, who resides in Ormwood, went to the picnic, but has failed to return home. An investigation was made, but nothing could be learned of the whereabouts of the young man.

Just before the first section left the Springs a youth fell on the railroad tracks and broke his arm, and it is thought that perhaps he might be the missing boy.

Victor Brown attended the picnic with his brother and both were together a half hour before the train left. They became separated then, and nothing has since been heard from the younger brother. His relatives are greatly wrought up over his disappearance, and every effort is being made to locate him.

Lively Fight in Depot.

Another unpleasant feature occurred just as the first section was pulling into the depot. M. Blackstock and J. H. Thompson became involved in a difficulty and Blackstock was knocked through the door of a coach. He was hurt on the head and his hand was badly cut. He was sent to the Grady hospital, where his injuries were given attention.

Later he was returned to the police station and locked up. Thompson was also arrested. Both parties will be given a hearing before Recorder Broyles today.

SIGNAL CORPS IN THE CITY.

En Route to the Philippines to Better the Signal Service of the Army.

A detachment of the United States army signal corps passed through the city yesterday afternoon en route from Fort Myer, Virginia, to the Philippines, where they go to improve the signal service.

There are twenty men in the party, in charge of Sergeant W. S. Kelly. They have been in training at Fort Myer for the past six months, and they go to the distant islands to set up cable instruments and to establish the duplex telegraph. The islands are already covered by cables, and the signal corps men will connect the various terminals.

They are traveling in a special car, and also have in service a baggage car. This car is filled with various forms and sizes of instruments to be used in their work. The party will arrive in San Francisco about the 14th, and will sail for the Philippines on the 16th.

The work of the signal corps will greatly increase the efficiency of the signal service, rendering it more beneficial to the American troops.

CAR 71 BLOCKED TUNNEL.

West Enders Had To Transfer in the Rain Last Night as Result of Derailment.

Citizens of West End were greatly inconvenienced last night by the blockading of the Whitehall street car line during the time the rain was falling heaviest.

The heavy rain in the afternoon filled the tunnel under the tracks of the Central of Georgia and the Atlanta and West Point with water, sand and rocks, and as a result car 71 was derailed in the tunnel at 7 o'clock. The track was not cleared until 11 o'clock, and in the meantime passengers for West End were forced to debark at the entrance of the tunnel and walk to the ends of Whitehall in the pouring rain to get a car.

Two cars were beyond the tunnel when the accident occurred. These were run for transfer passengers, and the regular schedule between the tunnel and the city was maintained.

Passengers took their misfortune philosophically and made the best of it.

RETURNS FROM THE GAMES.

Full Telegraphic Returns Received at 24 West Alabama Street.

While the Atlantas are away from home telegraphic returns from the games are being received at Oldknow's place, 24 West Alabama street. While the opening game in Chattanooga was in progress yesterday a number of fans were congregated at Billy Oldknow's anxiously following every play. The telegraphic arrangements permit of every play being recorded on the wire the minute it happens, and a large blackboard, with a diamond marked off, enables those present to enjoy the contest almost as much as they would if the game were actually in view.

In addition to the details of the game in which the home team is taking part, returns are received by innings from all Southern League contests.

NEW RAILROAD TO SAVANNAH

Application for Charter Soon To Be Filed by Prominent Atlantans.

PROPOSES TO COVER NEW SECTION OF THE STATE.

Line Will Be Almost a Straight One and 235 Miles in Length. Say They Intend To Proceed To Build Without Delay.

A new railroad has been projected between Atlanta and Savannah. Within a few days application will be made to Secretary of State Phil Cook for a charter for the Atlanta and Savannah Air Line Railway Company, which proposes to build a railroad in almost a direct line between Atlanta and Savannah, a distance of 235 miles.

A number of well-known Atlantans are among those whose names are attached to the petition for charter. These include William H. Venable, J. L. Dickey, W. L. Peel, John W. Grant, J. E. Boston and Lee M. Jordan. Besides these, J. M. Brown, of Marietta; Harvie Jordan, of Monticello; H. M. Smith and H. D. Hill, of Rome, are among the applicants for charter.

The company proposes that its principal office shall be located in Atlanta, and that its capital stock shall not be less than $100,000 nor more than $5,000,000. It is projected to run through the counties of Fulton, Henry DeKalb, Rockdale, Newton, Jasper, Putnam, Baldwin, Hancock, Washington, Jefferson, Johnson, Bulloch, Effingham and Chatham.

"We certainly intend in good faith to organize the company and proceed with the building of this line," said one of the applicants for charter, speaking of the matter yesterday. "We are satisfied there is a splendid opening for a railroad through the section of the state outlined, and a road which will prove a profitable investment. It is a section of the state which has not very good railroad advantages at present, as many of the important points which such a railroad would reach are now served by small branch lines, the facilities of which are meager. We will be able to secure all the capital needed, though from what sources I cannot say at present, though, as you see, those whose names are attached to the petition are able to control a good deal of money without any difficulty. We expect to organize and get ready for business as soon as we secure our charter."

Petition for Charter.

The application for charter which will be filed with Secretary of State Cook within the next few days is as follows:

State of Georgia, Fulton County—To the Hon. Philip Cook, Secretary of State, State of Georgia:

The petition of the undersigned, whose names and addresses are hereinafter fully set forth respectfully shows:

1. That they desire to be incorporated as provided in the acts of 1892 and the acts of 1895, amendatory thereof, pages 60 and 61.

2. They desire for themselves, their successors and associates, to be incorporated under the name and style of the Atlanta and Savannah Air Line Railway Company.

3. The railway contemplated under this petition for charter is to be about two hundred and thirty-five (235) miles in length, beginning at Atlanta and running in a southeasterly direction probably through the counties of Fulton, DeKalb, Henry, Rockdale, Newton, Jasper, Putnam, Baldwin, Hancock, Washington, Jefferson, Johnson, Bulloch, Effingham and Chatham and passing through or near Monticello, Milledegville and Statesboro and into Savannah, said railway having as its northern terminus the city of Atlanta, and as its southern terminus the city of Savannah.

4. The capital stock of said railway company shall be not less than one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars, nor more than five million ($5,000,000) dollars, the same to consist of common stock.

5. They desire the charter of said railway company to continue for and during the term of one hundred and one (101) years, as allowed by law.

6. The principal office of said railway company shall be located in the city of Atlanta, county of Fulton.

7. Your petitioners declare that they do intend in good faith to go forward without delay to secure subscriptions to the capital stock and to construct, equip, maintain and operate said railroad.

8. Your petitioners further show that they have given four (4) weeks' notice of their intention to apply for charter by the publication of this petition in the newspaper in which the sheriff's advertisement's are published in each of the counties through which said railway shall run, once a week for four weeks before the filing of this petition.

9. Wherefore your petitioners pray that they may be incorporated under the provisions of the laws and constitution of the state, with all the powers and privileges common and incident to said corporations.

10. Your petitioners attach hereto their names and residences, respectively, as follows:

J. M. BROWN, Marietta, Ga.
WM. H. VENABLE, Atlanta, Ga.
LEE M. JORDAN, Atlanta, Ga.
HARVIE JORDAN, Monticello, Ga.
J. L. DICKEY, Atlanta, Ga.
W. L. PEEL, Atlanta, Ga.
JOHN W. GRANT, Atlanta, Ga.
J. E. BOSTON, Atlanta, Ga.
H. M. SMITH, Rome, Ga.
H. D. HILL, Rome, Ga.

New Ice Company Applies to Court For Charter.

FOUR CONCERNS ARE IN ONE.

As Soon as Charter Has Been Granted Stockholders Will Meet and Perfect the Organization.

That the ice combine in Atlanta is getting ready for the summer trade was evidenced yesterday when the Atlanta Ice Company applied to the superior court for an amendment to its charter for the purpose of largely increasing its capital stock and enlarging its corporate powers.

The Atlanta Ice Company is one of four similar concerns that have been secured by a new company in which Ernest Woodruff, former president of the Atlanta Railway and Power Company, is largely interested. The company was originally chartered in 1887 with a capital stock of $25,000, and it asks the court for the privilege of increasing this amount to half a million dollars.

The companies which will in future be controlled by the new company are the Atlanta Ice Company, the Woolfolk Ice Company, the People's Ice Company and the Kelley Coal and Ice Company.

The capital stock of the new company is to be divided into two classes. There will be $200,000 of cumulative preferred stock, of 2,000 shares, upon which shall be paid a maximum dividend of 7 per cent and $300,000 of common stock, of 3,000 shares.

The charter of the Atlanta Ice Company will expire in about five years and the stockholders desire that this be amended and renewed for twenty years. They also ask that the new charter be granted to the Atlanta Ice and Coal Company and desire authority to buy and sell all kinds of articles of food and drink to operate cold storage plants.

Mr. Woodruff stated yesterday that as soon as the charter has been granted the stockholders will meet and the organization of the new company will be perfected. It is said there are about fifty Atlantans who have stock in the company.

The application for charter amendment was filed yesterday morning in the office of the clerk of the superior court by Attorneys Anderson, Anderson & Thomas.

LIVELY BIDDING AT AUCTION.

Twenty Lots Sold in East Atlanta Yesterday by Forrest Adair.

A highly successful auction sale was conducted in east Atlanta yesterday, twenty lots fronting on Wyly, Tye, Short and Fair streets and Kirkwood avenue being sold.

A large crowd attended the sale, and the bidding was quite lively from the beginning, and the sale amounted in the aggregate to $4,190.

The purchasers were as follows: I. C. Clark, W. R. Moore, W. J. Beyer, B. Gillespie, J. M. Fowler, J. R. Thomason, S. Wexler, L. J. Fowler and Mrs. S. Ezzard.

Forrest Adair, who conducted the auction, expressed himself as being very much pleased with the result of the sale, thinking that it shows a very healthful condition of the real estate market.

The same firm will have a sale of houses and lots on Jones avenue and Newton street next Wednesday, and of thirty-two vacant lots on Hemphill avenue and Emmett street on next Thursday.

EXAMINE APPLICANTS TODAY.

Those Who Seek Teachers' Places in Public Schools Will Begin Work at Noon.

Applicants for teachers' places in the Atlanta public schools will be examined today and tomorrow. The examination, which has been prepared by Major W. F. Slaton, superintendent of schools, will be given at the Boys' High school, corner Gilmer and Courtland streets.

Those who expect to undertake the examination will be divided into two classes. The first class will work from noon today until 5 o'clock this afternoon, and the other class will begin work at 8 o'clock in the morning and will continue until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Superintendent Slaton will be in complete charge of the examination and will be assisted by Assistant Superintendent L. M. Landrum and a corps of assistants.

The school board will furnish all with the necessary pens, paper and ink, the applicants being required to supply the brains. The white applicants will be examined in one part of the building, while negro applicants will be examined in another.

Two games were played in the fireman's handball tournament yesterday. Both of them were in Class C.

Morris and Baldwin won from Ralph Joyner and Fuller at No. 2 court, the score being 5 to 3. Netherland and J. Parker won from Carlton and Franklin at No. 1 court by a score of 5 to 2.

Nearly all the teams are in the contest now and as it advances it will increase in interest. The men who compose the different teams are very enthusiastic over the tournament and every game will be fiercely contested.

A large number of prominent Atlanta Baptists left the city yesterday for Asheville to attend the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist convention which begins in that city today.

Large parties left over the Southern early yesterday morning, at noon, and again at midnight. Many matters of importance are to come up at this meeting. During the past year the work of all the boards has been unusually successful, and the convention is expected to be a continual round of congratulation. The Atlanta party is expecting a very pleasant outing in the Land of the Sky.

High Beef

A Benefit

if it teaches you that

Keener Brain

come from

Grape-Nuts

Try the change and "cut out" meat for breakfast.

Our word for it you will feel "Fit as a Lord" in a week's time by breakfasting on Grape-Nuts and cream, a little fruit and perhaps one or two soft eggs.

If you ever try this experiment, you will always bless the day of high beef that waked you up.

There's a reason why Grape-Nuts furnishes power to the body and brain. The food contains selected parts of the field grains that furnish phosphate of potash in a natural state that can be assimilated by the human body, this joins with the albumen of food and forms the soft filling of the brain and nerve centers.

Feed skilfully and you can "do things."

The greatest brain workers in America eat Grape-Nuts.

Ask one or two, they'll tell you.

You meat eaters who are ailing in any sort of way might take a valuable hint from the following statement of Chief Chemist Wiley, of the Agricultural Department, in the Daily Press from which we give the following extracts:—

"There is no doubt of the fact that meat-eating is not essential to human life, and that men can be well nourished without resorting to a flesh diet.

"I think the statement may be accepted without question that, as a rule, we eat too much, not only of meat, but all forms of food. The question of limiting the diet is based primarily not on the principle of economy, but on the requirements of hygiene.

"At the early breakfasts which Americans are wont to indulge in, that is, a hearty meal before going to their daily work, the omission of meat is to be earnestly advised.

"It is well known that men who are nourished very extensively on certain cereals are capable of the hardest and most enduring labor. Meats are quickly digested, furnish an abundance of energy soon after consumption, but are not retained in the digestive organism long enough to sustain permanent muscular exertion."

You will feel the Energy of Grape-Nuts longer than any meal of meat.

Remember Grape-Nuts food costs about one cent per meal for each person and all grocers sell it.

THE VIOLET RAYS GREAT DISCOVERY

It Is Attracting Attention of the Medical World.

FOR CONSUMPTION CURE.

Other Pathogenic Germ Diseases Successfully Treated—Results Have Been a Revelation to the Scientists.

There is no one thing before the public today that is attracting the attention of scientists, physicians and the public generally as the new Pathogenic germ treatment—The Violet Rays. Only in the last three or four months has the beneficial results of this treatment been made known, and today some of the most wonderful and startling cures of Cancer, Consumption and other germ diseases are attracting the attention of the big metropolitan dailies, so much so that they are devoting page after page of valuable space to the wonderful experiments with this new discovery. It is a conceded fact that sunlight is the best cure for disease known. As Virchow has said, "Where sunlight is not, the doctor will be."

Tyndall tells us of the restraining influence of the clear Alpine sunlight upon bacterial development. Koch stated before the International Medical Congress in Berlin in 1890 "That direct sunlight kills tubercle bacilli in a time varying from a few months to several hours, according to the thickness of the layer exposed." Geisler's experiments, made in 1892, upon typhoid bacillus, showed that all portions of the spectrum except the red rays exercised a restraining influence upon its development. Ward proved the same year that the blue violet rays had a decided effect upon germicides, and Sternberg in 1892 demonstrated that by two hours' exposure to direct sunlight cholera germs were sterilized. The new treatment is attracting attention the world over. To bring it more closely home, here in Atlanta some very beneficial results have been obtained by Dr. Prosser, of the Violet Ray Institute, in the English-American building. The treatment is simple, yet effective, the rays penetrating to the seat of trouble (on the order of the X-ray), and killing or sterilizing the germs or bacilli. The Violet Ray Institute is new to Atlanta, but many patients are already feeling better from the use of the treatment.

Campaign in Jackson.

Jackson, Miss., May 8.—(Special.)—The municipal campaign in Jackson has opened much earlier this year than usual. Although the office of mayor, chief of police and councilmen do not become vacant until January, the democratic executive committee has issued a call for a meeting to be held on the 16th day of May at which time arrangements will be made for a double primary to settle the contests. Mayor Hemingway, is opposed by ex-Mayor Todd and Chief of Police Taylor has as an opponent James Ewing, the former chief.

Library Benefit Races.

THE bicycle races at the Coliseum on the 15th, next Thursday, will be a Carnegie library benefit and probably even more popular, therefore, than the previous events of this successful season. The proceeds of the race will go to buy books for the children's room of the Carnegie library, which is sadly in need of books. The room is a model of its kind, and the most beautiful in the country, but the shelves are entirely bare, as the 2,000 volumes are kept in active circulation by the hundreds of small visitors who frequent the library.

If anything will appeal to the Atlanta public more than a bicycle race it is a charity for children and the children's department of the Carnegie library is in need of the support of the citizens of Atlanta.

The influence of this work is only beginning to be felt. If the books are forthcoming the children will patronize the library. The following prominent ladies have consented to act as patronesses: Mrs. William Marshall, of New York; Mrs. Clark Howell, Mrs. H. M. Atkinson, Mrs. Francis C. Block, Mrs. W. M. Nixon, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mrs. H. H. Cabaniss, Mrs. J. K. Ottley, Mrs. Julian Harris, Mrs. J. H. Nunnally, Mrs. Lewis Palmer, Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, Mrs. Robert B. Ridley, Mrs. Wilmer L. Mrs. Rankin's Dinner.

MRS. FANNIE LAMAR RANKIN gave a dinner party last night, and the congenial party of eighteen were brilliantly entertained. She wore an embroidered gown of white crepon and was a handsome and gracious hostess. She was charmingly assisted in doing the honors by her daughter, Miss Valeria Rankin, who wore yellow silk.

The table was bright and beautiful in its decorations of red and white. The centerpiece was of crimson carnations and lilies of the valley, there were big bows of crimson ribbon at the table corners, and the place cards were crimson. The guests were Judge and Mrs. Spencer Atkinson, Judge and Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, Colonel and Mrs. W. A. Hemphill, Colonel and Mrs. W. A. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Tye, Miss Sallie Eugenia Brown, Mrs. John Harris, Colonel William Scruggs, Mr. James Nutting, Mr. Hugh Dorsey, Mr. Frederick Paxon.

Miss Bob Venable Honored.

MISS BOB VENABLE, the beautiful young daughter of Hon. William H. Venable, of this city, has been honored by the graduating class of Ogontz college, near Philadelphia, in being chosen valedictorian of her class. Miss Venable is the youngest in her class of twenty-three, and has so distinguished herself in the record she has made as to win the honors of valedictorian.

Mr. Venable will attend the graduating exercises of the college, also his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Kelogg, of Hartford, Conn., who was Miss Caribel Veneble.

Whist Tournament Plans.

THE whist tournament which has been announced to take place on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week is holding the principal interest of card players, and the contest will be one of the most important events of the social year.

On account of the large numbers of players who will participate, it has been decided to have the tournament in the Kimball house ball room, and morning, afternoon and evening of the three days spirited games will be played, many of the players experts.

In the evening, when gentlemen are invited to join in the contest, they may play with one another or with ladies, and by pairs or teams, as they please.

Coaching Party.

COLONEL AND MRS. ROBERT J. OWRY will entertain at a coaching party this afternoon in compliment to Miss Nell Graham, the guest of Miss Julia Porter. The guests will be besides the host and hostess Miss Graham, Miss Porter, Miss Tompkins, Miss Agnes Raoul, Miss Janie Speer, Mr. Frank Orme, Dr. Bates Block, Mr. Edward Peeples and Mr. Robert Clark.

Young Ladies at Sale.

THE charity sale at Rich's today will be in charge of the young ladies' auxiliary of the Presbyterian hospital, of which Miss Florence Jackson is chairman.

Besides the auxiliary who will receive Miss Jackson has invited the following young ladies to assist: Misses Mary and Nannie Nicolson, Lucia Abbott, Susan Calhoun, Agnes Raoul, Frances Walter, Emmie Johnson, Josie Stockdell, Annie Lou Hawkins and Martha Glover.

Saturday the ladies of the Free Kindergarten Association will have charge of the charity side of the sale at Rich's store. The Free Kindergarten Association has demonstrated its necessity to the city in the successful operation of four schools for the little ones in the various sections of the city.

To Miss Graham.

MISS MAUD TOMPKINS was the charming young hostess at a party given last evening in compliment to Miss Graham, the guest of Miss Julia Porter.

The guests were assembled on the logia in the rear of the house, where hot house plants of exquisite variety, color and fragrance transformed the scene into one

MRS. LOWE'S ADDRESS MAKES FINE IMPRESSION

Mrs Dennison, of New York, Elected President Yesterday to Succeed Mrs. Lowe--Mrs. Pattillo's Scholarly Speech Praised.

BY SARAH J. HAGAN.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 8.—(Special.)—The closing day of the woman's biennial proved the most exciting of the week.

Mrs. Brown, of Massachusetts, once more took the floor and made a personal fight in behalf of the negro element for admission, whereupon she was repudiated by her colleagues.

Everything was rosy for the election of Mrs. Platt Decker for the presidency, but her coyness was responsible for her defeat. On the floor she developed into a virago and addressed the chair in an amazing manner, but the good judgment of Mrs. Lowe prevented a stampede.

The local press pronounce Mrs. Lowe the most wonderful woman who ever visited California, and that the new president, Mrs. Denison, can never fill her place.

The scholarly speech of Mrs. Pattillo, of Atlanta, delivered Tuesday, is still a matter of favorable comment. Her subject was "Work of Local Federation in Philanthropy and Reform."

Mr. A. G. Rhodes, of Atlanta, is to entertain the Georgia delegation tomorrow with a tally-ho drive through the orange groves at famous Lucky Baldwin's Santa Anita ranch.

The last day of the biennial was distinguished by the address of the retiring president, Mrs. Rebecca Lowe.

Mrs. Demison Elected.

The election, which was full of dramatic incident, resulted in the acceptance by ballot of the entire report of the nominating committee, as follows:

President, Mrs. Dimies T. S. Denison, New York; first vice president, Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, California; second vice president, Mrs. Emma Fox, Michigan; recording secretary; Mrs. Louise Pappenheimer, of South Carolina; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Vanvechten, of Iowa; auditor, Mrs. George Noyes, of Wisconsin.

Directors—Mrs. Anna D. West, of Massachusetts; Mrs. J. C. Terrill, of Texas; Mrs. Jane Humphrey, of Kansas; Mrs. Lydia Williams, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Samuel Hayes, of Idaho; Mrs. William Ellicott, of Maryland; Mrs. W. W. Boyd, of Missouri; Mrs. W. A. Nolden, of Utah.

Many of Mrs. Decker's admirers voted for her anyway, the vote standing 667 for Mrs. Denison and 258 for Mrs. Decker.

The convention accepted the report of the charter committee, while the report of the committee which suggested the erection of a "Hall of Philanthropy" at St. Louis was referred to the board of directors, the convention evidently being overwhelmed by the demand of $100,000 as their contribution toward the plan.

Mrs. Lowe's Address.

At the final session tonight Mrs. Lowe delivered her biennial address. Mrs. Lowe said in part:

Two years ago, in summing up my labors as president of this organization, I undertook to give you some idea of its growth in membership. As we closed the first decade of our organized efforts it seemed to me that the most impressive fact of our association was this gain in numerical strength. And tonight when we reflect upon the humble beginnings from which has developed this organization numbering its hundreds of thousands of women, we find it somewhat difficult to realize the enormous proportions we have attained.

Four years ago we made a notable stride toward social service in appointing a committee to study the various conditions surrounding the wage-earning woman and child. This committee was in no sense animated by the spirit of reformer or social doctor; it appreciated too keenly its lack of information. It, therefore, very wisely devoted its first effort to collecting the necessary data in the premises and distributing the same for the information of club women generally. In this way we gained some acquaintance with the conditions referred to and directed our efforts accordingly to their amelioration or cure.

Without entering into details, I will say that this work has been advanced along constructive lines and by peaceful measures. We have not sought to stir up bitterness and strife between employers and employed, but rather to strengthen their mutual good faith and feeling. We have kept particularly in mind the teaching of those economists who are telling us of a new unit of production in labor; that men and women can actually produce more and better things when they are healthy, intelligent, cheerful, hopeful than when they are mere weary, wornout, listless, lifeless machines. The alert manufacturer today is figuring this new unit into his calculations and he is fast coming to realize that the thousands he may invest in making more tolerable and happy the lives of his employees come back to him in very tangible form and in ever-increasing ratio.

When we are asked, as many of us are, what good can come out of our clubs and club work, we need no better and more effective answer than to point to these gratifying achievements. Apropos of this subject a conversation with Mrs. Irene MacFadyen comes to mind. Mrs. MacFadyen has worked intelligently and successfully in the south in arousing public sentiment in behalf of the factory child. I asked her what she considered the most necessary work to be done by interested women along this line. Her reply was that there are absolutely no statistics relating to the subject; that women can do no better work then gather and systematically arrange the facts concerning the wages and conditions of child labor in the mills. Inquire into the nature and causes of illness and the percentage of children enjoying normal health; also what per cent of these operatives are children of widows and what of idle parents; what is the family wage; how long are children worked at night; are they given any lunch; and how are they kept awake. In some mills it is found that when children become drowsy over their work, cold water is thrown in their faces or they are allowed to dip snuff.

Touching these suggestions, I am sure it will occur to all of us that the occasional effort to entertain and feast factory children is of small moment with the good that may be accomplished by an intelligent study of the conditions that produce such magic results, and a zealous effort toward their speedy removal.

We all understand that much of woman's innuence has been of a silent kind, moving quietly as the greatest forces of the universe move. In fact, it has moved so quietly that many of us distrusted that we had any influence at all. That we have needlessly distrusted ourselves is example in the presence of this great assemblage of women.

And how do we find ourselves at the present moment? We find ourselves members of an organization, whose productions are so vast and comprehensive, that we may well ask ourselves the question, What are we going to do with it, and what is it going to do with us? For in any thinking on the subject we must allow for reaction as well as action. Our relation to the organization must be one of reciprocity; we draw from it just in proportion as we give to it.

The geography of our hearts and minds is an island or a continent, according as we travel understandingly through their various operations.

It is well to take the same attitude to ourselves as that taken by some people outside the organization. Severe may be the criticism, but from the viewpoint of the critic, new vistas open up to us which would otherwise remain forever closed.

We hear on the inside that the organization is "unwieldy," that "it is best for the interests of all" that its proportion be diminished. While such a demand should not be disregarded, for the very life of our movement depends upon the free expression of its various members, we must also bear in mind that we should strive for unity, along with individual expression.

We must understand that it is in the variety, as well as the strength of our relations, that the individual member gets her richest nourishment.

Vast numbers of women realize the necessity for some sort of training in the home for their children. They believe that right must triumph in the end; that rectitude and exactitude are splendid weapons with which to equip them. But comparatively few women have any conception of the needs of life, beyond the shelter of the four walls in which they live. The burning questions of the hour, outside the circle of domestic ones, seem to them so occult that it would be useless even to make the effort to understand them. They do not even surmise that the great movements of life which are dubbed political or economic frequently bear heavily and painfully upon the well being of their own little nests.

Another class of women, if such questions present themselves at all, assume, with a confidence that is fairly righteous, that God, nature and public opinion have closed the doors of such questions against them and that something worse than the fate of Bluebeard's wives await them, if they be curious.

On the other hand is a growing number of women, who are not only scanning the horizon of life, but are studying with passionate zeal the actual conditions of a work-a-day world. They try to infuse the light of today in the work of today, realizing that every era has its own needs and charateristics, and that the influences which reach out from the old into the new era should be molded and shaped by the spirit of the existing age and be fitted into the new order.

"Do the work that lies nearest thee," says one of the high priests of our time.

There is no surer way of building for those who come after us than to do the best we can here and now.

"Now, then, all forward together:
But remember every one,
That it is not by feminine innocence
That the work of the world is done."

The world needs strength and courage and wisdom to help and feed—
When we as women bring these to man, we shall lift the world, indeed.

THE J. P.'S DECISION.

He Sums Up the Coffee Case.

Judge W. W. Bowen, of Creeds, Va., announces himself as a "reformed coffee toper" and gives authority to make the following public statement:

"For years the coffee habit had been growing on me until my condition was getting serious. I have considerable writing to do and had become so nervous that I had to depend almost entirely upon my wife to do the writing. Sometimes when it was imperative that I sign my name my hand trembled so I could scarce do it.

"I had severe headaches, stomach trouble, heart trouble, also some rheumatism. A friend, Rev. ——, one day sent me a package of Postum Coffee with request that I give up coffee and make a fair trial of Postum.

"I took the advice and the headaches ceased, also the stomach trouble. I now have no heart trouble at all except when I use coffee for a time. My old nervousness is a thing of the past.

"My wife also suffered for years with heart trouble and extreme nervousness. She has found relief by leaving off coffee and using Postum. We now think it a much better drink than either coffee or tea. I have known of a number of cases that have been entirely cured or greatly benefited by leaving off coffee and using the new beverage, Postum."

PASSING THRONG.

There was all kinds of trouble in the rotunda last night when the members of the old crowd had assembled there. Everybody was there when the mysterious party walked in looking fine and fancy and ejaculated, "Boys, the Atlanta union depot is a thing of beauty and a joy forever!" When they had all grasped his full meaning consternation became prevalent. The reformed newspaper man began talking in headlines, "Mysterious party suddenly crazy. Has wild hallucinations about depots. Exceptionally sad case. Little hope held out for his recovery. Stricken last night," etc. The doctor mumbled something about "A loss of reason, superinduced by an overdose of mince pie." Finally they all edged away from him and began a consultation. In the meantime the mysterious party stood over against the wall laughing in a cruel, heartless manner. Suddenly the whole crowd charged upon him. They came at him demanding an immediate explanation or that he surrender himself to the insane asylum. As they were about to seize him the mysterious party commanded: "Back up, boys, I have just seen the union depots at Charleston and Augusta."

They all backed up and would have fallen upon the mysterious party's neck and wept had not the latter invited them down for a drink.

Mrs. Ethelbert Nevin, wife of the celebrated composer, passed through Atlanta yesterday on her way to New York from the south. Mrs. Nevin arrived here on an early train yesterday morning. She breakfasted at the Kimball house, after which she took a cab and called on a well-known firm of music publishers. After making some other calls Mrs. Nevin boarded a train on the Southern railway for New York.

"The most disgruntled, unhappy set of persons in the whole city today," said the sporting man last night, "are the baseball rooters. You can walk along any street in the town and if you come upon any one that looks particularly unhappy and down on his luck, you can pretty accurately size him up for an Atlanta baseball rooter, because the team has gone far away, to be gone for nine days, and in the meantime the fans have nothing to make up for the team except the newspaper accounts of the battles waged on the diamond far away."

Mrs. Charles B. Trumbo, of New York, was among the arrivals at the Kimball yesterday.

J. D. Brown, of San Francisco, is registered at the Kimball.

W. P. Thirkuld, Bishop J. M. Waldron, R. S. Rust, John Peerson and G. B. Johnson, trustees of the Clark university, arrived here yesterday from Cincinnati to pay a visit to the university.

George P. Harrison and wife, of Opelika, Ala., are at the Kimball.

Frank M. Stafford, of Barnesville, Ga., arrived in Atlanta yesterday. He is at the Kimball.

John K. Davis and wife, of Cedartown, were among yesterday's arrivals at the Kimball.

J. R. Morrison, of Glens Falls, Ky., is registered at the Aragon.

B. F. Hardeman, of Athens, arrived in Atlanta yesterday. He is registered at the Aragon.

H. E. Wilson, of Augusta, is at the Aragon.

H. B. Montgomery, of Norfolk, Va., is registered at the Aragon.

John F. Dickenson and wife, of Houston, Tex., were among the arrivals at the Aragon yesterday.

R. L. Pritchard, of Savannah, arrived in the city yesterday. He is at the Aragon.

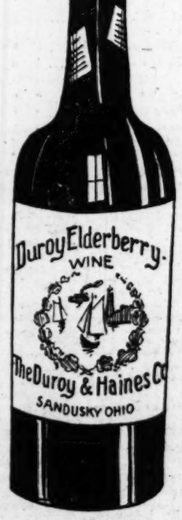

M. P. Higgins and wife and Miss Higgins, of Worcester, Mass., arrived in Atlanta yesterday. They are at the Aragon.

The Grand.

If laughter, frequent applause and curtain calls mean anything, then the large audience that witnessed the performance of "A Black Sheep" last night at the Grand not only got its money's worth, but several bargains in addition. A better pleased crowd has seldom been seen within the four walls of the Grand.

This week's entertainment is frothy, effervescent, and just the sort of a show to make one forget the troubles of the day. The comedy is laugh-compelling; the specialties are universally good, the costumes are fresh and dainty, and, in fact, the entire production is up-to-date in every particular. What more do you want?

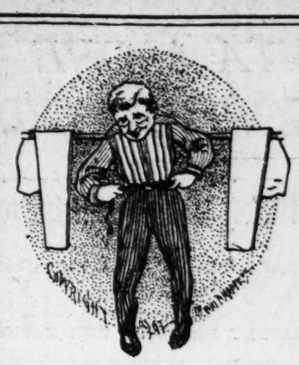

The patronage accorded the Bijou company has far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the management, but it is just what the company deserves, for no better show has ever been offered theatergoers at 50 cents prices. "A Black Sheep" will hold the boards tonight and Saturday matinee and night. The matinee tomorrow promises to be the largest of the season.

Another of Hoyt's is announced for next week. It is "A Day and a Night in New York." Little Chip will have a prominent part in this bill, and it is said that he keeps the fun at a fever heat most of the time. Others who will have good parts are Otis Harlan, Mary Marble, Miss Lane, Miss Celeste, Miss McNeill and Messrs. Andrade, Hall, Early and Bode. The specialties will be the strongest yet given by the company so far, and several catchy Hoffman numbers are down on the list. Miss Marble will do "Hoodoo Doodoo Man," a novelty that is sure to make a great hit.

There is an immense sale for Monday night, and late comers will no doubt find nothing but standing room.

Bailey-Pelham

Anniston, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—A letter received here yesterday from Texas bore the news of the marriage of Miss Cary Pelham, of this city, to Mr. George H. Bailey, of that state, at Jacksonville, Tex., where she was visiting relatives. The announcement will come in the nature of a great surprise to the bride's many friends in the city, and her mother was almost prostrated upon receiving the news. She went to Memphis to the reunion last year as sponsor of the local camp, which is named for her uncle, John Pelham. She afterwards visited in Texas, where she met Mr. Bailey. She was made sponsor again this year and went to Texas again, where she and Mr. Bailey renewed their friendship with the above result.

MAY BORROW TO PAY TEACHERS

Treasury Balance Is Nearly $700,000, but Many Expenses Are To Be Met.

NET BALANCE OUTSIDE OF THESE IS ONLY $174,000.

If Teachers Are To Be Paid for Another Month About $130,000 Will Have To Be Borrowed—Governor Will Not Talk.

The treasury statement, which was made to Governor Candler by State Treasurer R. E. Park and Comptroller General W. A. Wright, shows a balance in the treasury on March 31, 1902, of $682,122.19.

The statement covers the first quarter of the year, the months of January, February and March. During that time treasury receipts were heavy, but from now on until December they will be at a minimum, while the expenses will go on as usual.

In spite of the fact that the treasury balance is in the neighborhood of $700,000, the net available balance, which can be devoted to the payment of school teachers, is less than $175,000. The reason for this is that in the treasury balance is included the balance of the public property fund, amounting to about $114,000, the expenses of the civil establishment for the remaining three quarters of the year, the July interest on the bonded debt and extraordinary expenses for the state asylum amounting to more than $100,000.

These expenses have got to be paid and the money must be on hand for them as they fall due. There is left, therefore, about $174,000 net, which can be devoted to the payment of the second month's salaries of the school teachers. To complete the payment the governor will have to borrow about $130,000, but as his limit is $200,000, he will not have much difficulty in obtaining a sufficient amount, though he has not yet decided what he will do.

The treasury statement for the quarter ending March 31 will undoubtedly be of considerable interest. It is given herewith in full:

Governor Will Not Talk.

Governor Candler was asked yesterday by a representative of The Constitution what he proposed to do with reference to the payment of the teachers' salaries.

"I have not had time to take that matter up yet," he said, "and therefore I have nothing to say with regard to it."

Further than that the governor would say nothing about the matter. He would not state whether he intended to borrow the additional amount needed or not.

From the foregoing statement of disbursements it may easily be gathered how large the quarterly expenses of the government are. These must be paid for three quarters out of the fund now in the treasury, as there will be very little coming in now until the end of the year.

Children Like It.

"My little boy took the croup one night," says F. D. Reynolds, of Mansfield, Ohio, "and grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house. I thought he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure relieved and sent him to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup." One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts at once. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, asthma and bronchitis.

STATISTICS WERE IN BULLS' FAVOR

Liverpool Was Weak on Heavy Liquidation—New York Sympathized.

DECIDED DECLINE RESULT.

In Chicago Factors Favored Prices and Markets Closed Higher—Anthracite Strike News Governed the Course of Prices in Stocks.

New York, May 8.—The cotton market opened easy 4 to 10 points lower, following a weak lead by Liverpool, where heavy liquidation was in progress. Following the call the market worked higher again, July advancing to 9.23 and August to 9.04. But later in the day the whole list broke badly under generous selling for both accounts, led by brokers believed to be acting for southern orders. The fact that New Orleans settled 22 points on the July position did much to give color to the reports that bull traders there were trying to liquidate. A prominent room broker was a large buyer of August at 8.90, believed to be for the account of a former Wall street leader. So far as statistics were concerned the bulls had the better position, for port receipts fell behind the export movement and interior town stocks lost heavily again. Reports from the interior told of exhaustion and the revised "in sight" figures were considerably under the actual "in sight" of a year ago. The market closed steady 4 to 18 points lower. Southern spot markets were given as generally unchanged and advices from cotton goods markets failed to note any change in prices. Total sales for the day were estimated at 300,000 bales.

The Dry Goods Market.

New York, May 8.—The dry goods market wwas quiet again today for all descriptions of cotton goods. There was more inquiry from exporters following a rise in the market for silver, but little actual buying. Prices are maintained in both staple and fancy lines. Print cloths were inactive for both narrow and wide goods.

Review of New Orleans Market.

New Orleans, May 8.—The market for spot cotton was very quiet. Sales from factors' tables 950 bales. Quotations reduced 1/16c on all grades.

Futures opened 10 points lower than Wednesday's closing. A rally in July wiped out most of the loss, but it was only momentary and prices soon dropped back to the first figures of the day. The market showed very little activity at any time and the bulls appeared to have lost much of the confidence which has lately marked their actions. Prices continued to sag until the closing hour, when the summer months showed net losses of 16 to 20 points, September 9 and 3 to 4 on the balance of the list.

H. & B. Beer's Cotton Letter.

New Orleans, May 8.—Liverpool advices were disappointing, consequently our market opened 8 to 9 points lower on old crop months and 4 to 5 points on new. Fresh buying orders, however, came in shortly after, causing an improvement of 6 to 7 points from the bottom. About this time the weakness of spots, the heavy port receipts and the liberal estimates for New Orleans and Houston receipts tomorrow brought about selling, which superinduced a break of 17 to 20 points from the top on old crop options and 5 to 9 points on new. After the elimination of stop orders values steadied slightly, making the net loss 16 to 20 points on the summer positions and 3 to 9 on new. From present indications the amount to be brought into sight during the week points to about 65,000 as compared to 74,000 last year and 48,000 year before last. The visible supply statement is expected to be bullish. Still, from the character of reports received from Lancashire and the continent it is anticipated that spinners, from now out, will curtail consumption of American considerbaly, owing to the high price of the raw article, which precludes their entering into new engagements. It is claimed there is no parity between the prices goods are being disposed of now, even with raw cotton bought fully a cent under existing rates. Favorable reports are being received relative to the next crop, but they generally are at this time of the year. Nevertheless, there are many vicissitudes which the crop must undergo before maturity, therefore, if it meets with any serious setback the new crop months will advance sharply. While we advise against operating on either side in the old crop months we think the heavy discounts on the new are an inducement to make purchases on weak periods, as there is only a minimum amount of risk attached to these transactions.

Murphy & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

New York, May 8.—The cotton market today moved downward, and during the morning prices declined 3 to 11 points, due to varied causes. Although the receipts have been counting for little of late the movement at the ports temporarily showed such a bulge as to work to the advantage of the bears, being estimated at 15,000, against 8,000. This came in the nick of time for shorts to put in some work, and they were not slow to avail themselves of it, both here and at Liverpool. In the latter market there was an unsettled feeling, and prices went off pretty sharply on reported manipulation by American bulls, a good deal of which was charged to New Orleans. Fresh buyers were also lacking to infuse activity into the market, and the long interest is extensive enough to lead to liquidation on every little rise to an extent which may prevent any gain, while the bulk of the short interest has been eliminated. The weather map today showed rain at Galveston to the extent of 1 inch and a fraction of 1 inch at Corpus Christi, New Orleans, Little Rock, Atlanta, Memphis and Montgomery. The extreme of temperature was 75 to 54. Mail advices were coming in showing the beneficial effects of the recent Texas rains, which, in most instances, are said to have inspired farmers with great confidence. It may be further added that reports are coming in from all quarters and through all sources denoting a more satisfactory crop outlook than has been the case for years. This is so general as to cause comment, and while it is yet early in the season, the remarkably fine start cannot fail to have a bearing on sentiment and in the market unless the conditions are changed in the most decided fashion during the summer months.

Southern Exchange Cotton Letter.

New York, May 8.—A drop of 2 to 3-64d was what Liverpool furnished the aggressive longs this morning, and as the advices continued to pour in from the other side it was seen that they were of a rather weakening nature and rather inclined to excite longs in this country to liquidate their holdings so that Liverpool firms could gather in their supply at a lower rate than they have been paying for late. Some fearless holders, however, held this view in abeyance, and held out the opinion that it is only a reactionary market. New York opened weak on lower foreign quotations and appeared nervous throughout the session. Neither side seemed to be very much in evidence except during the first hour, when the advocates of higher values tried an uphill pull to boost the market, but to no avail, however, as the market soon displayed a more depressed feeling and closed about the lowest for the day. New Orleans shows some disposition to get on even terms with New York, but the pressure seems lacking in point of concentrating their forces sufficiently to hammer the market down.

THE DAY IN WALL STREET.

New York, May 8.—Stocks recovered from yesterday's weakness today, although there was considerable uncertainty manifest in the prevailing sentiment. A more cheerful feeling over the anthracite outlook is responsible for considerable rebuying by short sellers of yesterday who professed confidence last night that a strike could not be avoided. The hesitation which developed in the market was due to a considerable extent to the action taken by the mine workers' convention, which presents an entirely new phase to the situation. The active Coalers reflected no misgiving after the announcement of the miners' offer to arbitrate, but they fell into comparative dullness. The high-priced Coalers offered the anomally of early weakness, while the Readings were advancing and a strong recovery after the demand for the Readings had largely died out. The whole market fell into dullness in the latter part of the day while waiting for the announcement of the reply of the anthracite operators to the offer of the miners. The result is that the day's transactions are not over half those of yesterday. Outside the Readings the principal activity was in St. Paul, Union Pacific, the local tractions and Southern Railway. Union Pacific and St. Paul were bought heavily for western account, the attraction being attributed to crop conditions. The referee's decision upholding the constitutionality of the New York franchise tax law induced some active liquidation of the stocks of New York public utilities, but they were well supported and rallied. The advance in Louisville and Southern Railway met realizing. Reports of an apparent contest between the two interests for control of coal lands increased the disposition to sell. Illinois Central became strong, in contrast to its weakness yesterday, while the other two stocks were advancing. There were evidences of strength among various minor stocks, which are supposed to be the subject of manipulation by speculative pools, although various rumors continued to circulate of their prospective absorption or merging. Tennessee Coal and Colorado Fuel were under pressure. The last named, however, rallied to well above last night. International Power fell 9 points below the last sale price, but finally recovered. There was a sale of St. Lawrence and Adirondack at 52 compared with the preceding sale at 138¾. This sale was before the collapse of the Webb-Meyer stocks. The incidental statement by Dr. Webb that he had sold the road to A. A. Meyers was news to the public this morning. Money went to 9 per cent again today, but sterling exchange turned weak and New York exchange at Chicago receded from 20c discounts to 10c premium. Money brokers report offerings of large sums for lending in New York from various quarters of the country. The loss already this week to the subtreasury of over $2,000,000 is to be reckoned with in considering the money market situation.

The bond market recovered today in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $3,160,000.

United States 3s and new 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

The total sales of stocks today were 636,900 shares, including Atchison 8,200; Canadian Pacific 22,800; Chicago Great Western 8,900; Chicago Terminal 6,400; do. preferred 6,000; Delaware and Hudson 14,100; Illinois Central 10,400; Louisville and Nashville 13,300; Manhattan 28,800; Metropolitan 13,800; Missouri Pacific 5,900; Pennsylvania 6,500; Reading 106,200; do. first preferred 5,000; St. Paul 37,500; Southern Pacific 10,600; Southern Railway 45,300; Union Pacific 62,400; Wisconsin Central 10,700; Amalgamated Copper 22,300; Brooklyn Transit 30,200; Colorado Fuel 18,700; Consolidated Gas 7,000; Sugar 7,600; Tennessee Coal and Iron 10,400; Kansas City Southern 6,500.

Money on call firm at 6@9 per cent; closing offered at 6; prime mercantile paper 4¼@5¼ per cent.

Sterling exchange weak with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.87½ for demand and at $4.85 for 60 days; posted rates $4.86@4.88½; commercial bills $4.84½@4.85¼.

Bar silver 51½c.

CHICAGO MARKET REVIEWED.

Chicago, May 8.—It was buyers' day in the grain markets today. There was much hesitation early on weather conditions, but the situation did not warrant fresh pressure, cash business was good and prices made good advances. July wheat closed ⅝@⅞c up, July corn ⅝@⅝c higher, and July oats ⅜c advanced. Provisions closed 12½@30c higher.

Bears who had been hammering wheat prices on favorable weather conditions found too many bull factors arrayed against them today. The weather was good over nearly all the wheat belt and statistical journals issued bearishly favorable crop news, but receipts were very small and the cash situation was very strong. Cables also were comparatively firm when yesterday's depression was taken into account. After an early see-saw in prices bulls took hold firmly and worked advances. The cash situation gradually developed a strength that traders say will probably influence speculation for some time. Elevators have all the wheat in sight, the country is offering little and the elevator people have sold much of their holdings at July prices rather than at the lower May prices. The result has been a scarcity of cash wheat at the recently current May figure. Later in the day May prices in outside markets advanced above July, and at one time here almost equaled them. Added to this was a good corn strength. Good cash sales were made yesterday, 14 loads being taken for export here. Shorts covered freely and July, which opened ⅛@¼c to ⅜@⅝c up at 74⅜@74½c, sold up to 74¾c and closed firm ⅝@⅞c up at 74⅝c. Local receipts were 23 cars, none of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 101 cars, making a total for the three points of 124 cars, against 253 last week and 230 a year ago. Primary receipts were 180,000 bushels, compared to 352 cars last year. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour equaled 384,000 bushels.

Corn ruled strong today and made good advances. Yesterday's slump was not responded to by the foreign markets, and although all outside news on the crop situation was extremely bearish, everything else in the situation favored the bulls. There is little old corn outstanding, receipts continue small and the leading bull house is credited with holding twice as much corn as there is old stuff visible. After hesitating for a time at the opening, "tailers" again took the bullish view of the market and bought liberally, shorts covered and then the bull leaders sent up prices farther by taking in stuff in good quantities. There was an improvement in the cash situation which lent strength to the futures. Trades generally regard the position of the bull party as such that at any open buying by it the crowd quickly followed. July early sold as low as 60¾c, advanced to 61¾c, and after some liquidation for profits closed firm ⅝@⅞c up at 61¼@61⅜c. Receipts were 135 cars.

Oats showed strength and activity of their own. The early market was weak on favorable crop reports, but open buying of July by the prominent bull operator in May options started a good advance. The cash demand was also much improved and offerings were scarce. July sold early at 35c, advanced to 36⅜c and closed firm ⅜c up at 36⅛c. Receipts were 135 cars.

Provisions were influenced for good advances by a continuation of the demand that has marked the pit for several days. The hog market at the yards was strong and packers gave the pit support. Liquidation was in the shape of outside profit taking. Corn strength also helped from the upturn. July pork closed 30c higher at $17.25, July lard 12½c up at $10.22½ and July ribs 12½c higher at $9.65.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 50 cars; corn,

ROUGH HOUSE FOR WILSON

Umpire's Decision Causes Catcher Roth To Talk Back and Be Put Out of the Game—Henley Was Hit Hard and Often.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 8.—(Special.)—Chattanooga played an errorless game today and won from Atlanta by a score of 4 to 2. Atlanta's crack pitcher, Henley, was hit hard and often, while Atlanta got but three hits off Hopkins.

In the fifth inning Umpire Wilson called Molesworth out at home plate. Chattanooga raised a storm of protest, declaring that Molesworth was safe. In the wordy war that followed Roth was put out of the game for using rough language to the umpire.

It was a well played game and the locals showed up to better advantage than in any game this season. Score:

MORRIS PARK

OLD ENGLAND CAPTURES THE GROTONA HANDICAP.

New York, May 8.—Scratches practically ruined the card at Morris park today. For the Crotona handicap at 6 furlongs. Old England, the Toboggan handicap winner, was favorite, and romped home an easy winner. Whisky King broke first, but was soon supplanted by Old England, who raced out in front. Making the first turn, the Musketeer moved up to the leader and these raced head and head to the stretch, where O'Connor gave Old England his head, and drawing away, he won galloping by two lengths.

FIRST RACE—Last 6 furlongs of the Withers mile: Chilton (Shaw), 2 to 9, won; Neither One (McGinn), 25 to 1, second; Khitai (J. Martin), 25 to 1, third. Time 1:15.

SECOND RACE—The Harlem, selling: Withers mile: Dr. Riddle (T. Burns), 2 to 1, won; Intrusive (Odom), 2 to 1, second; Moor (Shea), 13 to 5, third. Time 1:41 3-5.

THIRD RACE—Two-year-olds, last 5 furlongs of the Eclipse course: Charles Elwood (Odom), 2 to 1, won; Heir Apparent (O'Connor), 6 to 1, second; Rightful (J. Woods), 8 to 5, third. Time 1:00.

FOURTH RACE—Last 4 1-2 furlongs of the Eclipse course: Alan (Landry), 11 to 5, won; Tioga (Booker), 60 to 1, second; Miss Dorothy (Odom), 8 to 1, third. Time :52 1-2.

FIFTH RACE—The Crotona handicap, last 6 furlongs of the Withers mile: Old England (O'Connor), 2 to 1, won; The Musketeer (J. Martin), 13 to 5, second; Whiskey King (Redfern), 4 to 1, third. Time 1:14.

SIXTH RACE—Handicap, the Withers mile: Water Color (Odom), 1 to 5, won; Surmise (G. Thompson), 100 to 1, second; Ethics (H. Cochran), 4 to 1, third. Time 1:41 1-4.

Morris Park Entries for Today.

BIG BALL GAME TOMORROW

Georgia and Tech Are Ready for the Fray.

BOTH NINES ARE CONFIDENT.

Georgia Will Have Good Chance for Southern Collegiate Championship if She Bests Tech.

All fandom is on pins and needles over the game which is scheduled between Georgia and the Tech at Brisbine park tomorrow afternoon. Although Georgia defeated the Techs in the last game played, the Techs are confident that they will take a brace and win out.

Georgia, however, has everything to win in this game. The Georgia baseball nine has made a better showing than any other college nine in the south with the exception of North Carolina, but the latter nine has been barred by the southern association, so if Georgia wins this game she will have a better chance than any of the other teams to win the intercollegiate baseball championship of the south.

Patterson is slated to do the slab work for the Techs, while Anderson will put them over for Georgia. Of the two men, Anderson is believed by most rooters to be the better pitcher, but Patterson's admirers believe that he has a kink up his sleeve heretofore unknown, which he is making ready to turn loose on the Georgians tomorrow.

A large crowd of copper-lunged rooters will undoubtedly be on hand to see the game, as the Atlantas do not play here Saturday, and the Georgia-Tech game will bring out many of the old-time fans, whose regular trysting place is Piedmont park.

In tomorrow's contest the teams will line up as follows:

Tech.	Position.	Georgia.
Patterson....	pitcher.....	Anderson
Hicks..	catcher..	Colle
Morrison.. ..	first base..	Beaver
Maddox... ..	second base....	McWhorter
Brinson.... ..	third base..	Dickinson

HANDSOME PRIZES IN FIELD EVENTS

Outdoor Gymnasium for School Coming First.

TWO LIBRARIES OFFERED.

Expected That Fully 1,200 Children Will Take Part in Grammar School Field Day Exercises To Be Held at Piedmont Park.

The prizes to be awarded the schools making the best showing during the grammar school field day exercises, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at Piedmont park, have just been announced.

The first prize is an outdoor gymnasium, consisting of all the necessary apparatus, and was secured by Dr. Theodore Toepel, the physical director, by subscription. This will be awarded the school whose representatives make the highest average.

The second prize is a school library of sixty choice volumes, which is contributed by the American Baptist Publication Society.

The third prize will be a handsome set of books to be contributed by Ginn & Company and the American Book Company.

In addition to the list of prizes the school making the highest number of points will also get the banner awarded by the Atlanta Athletic Club. This prize is permanent and is now held by Davis street school, which won it at the field day exercises held last year.

Sam Walker has offered a prize of a beautiful steel engraving which will go to the class having the highest attendance at the drill. This feature of the exercises will be taken part in by members of the fifth and sixth grades.

Each child entitled to first honor will be marked five points; that getting second honor will score three points, while third honor will get one point.

The exercises will begin promptly at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and all the events will doubtless be over before dark. There will be special cars running on all lines to the park. The admission price to the exercises will be 10 and 25 cents, the gate receipts being used to equip the various school yards with gymnasium apparatus.

It is expected that fully 1,200 children will take part in the exercises.

AT LOUISVILLE

SHERIFF BELL, AT 50 TO 1, GIVES THE TALENT A TURN.

Louisville, May 8.—One stake and five well filled races proved an attractive programme at Churchill Downs this afternoon and the largest crowd of the meeting, with the exception of Derby Day, was on hand. The debutante stakes brought out a field of eleven 2-year-old misses. Mary Lavana, by reason of her remarkable display of speed Monday, was installed favorite. J. F. Smith & Company's Oleflant, on her victories at Nashville, was made second choice at 11 to 5 and was well backed. Thoughtless, W. K. Vanderbilt's filly, and Eva Russell, at 5 each, were well liked, but the others went begging at from 30 to 100. The results shows how true they ran to form, for Oleflant took the lead as they turned into the stretch and was never exerted. Mary Lavana and Eva Russell fought it out for the place, the former winning by a length. The talent fared badly on the day, but two favorites getting brackets. Johnny Fay's colt, Sheriff Bell, at 50 to 1, won the second race.

Weird ran away while being warmed up and was excused in the third race.

FIRST RACE—Purse, five and a half furlongs: Sky Flyer (Lindsey), 16 to 5, won; Binchello (Ransch), 2 to 1, second; Insolence (Coburn), 8 to 1, third. Time 1:09 1-4.

SECOND RACE—Four and a half furlongs: Sheriff Bell (A. Weber), 50 to 1, won; Captain Arnold (Coburn), 4 to 1, second; Lorina (Ransch), 5 to 1, third. Time :55 1-2.

THIRD RACE—Selling, six furlongs: Ailyar (J. Miller), 2 to 5, won; Masterful (Minder), 20 to 1, second; Dissenter (Coburn), 3 to 1, third. Time 1:1 1-2.

FOURTH RACE—Debutante stakes, for 2-year-old fillies, net value to winner $1,735; four furlongs: Oleflant (Williams), 11 to 5, won; Mary Lavana (Slack), 3 to 2, second; Eva Russell (Coburn), 5 to 1, third. Time :48 3-4.

FIFTH RACE—Selling, five and a half furlongs: Stuyve (Ransch), 2 to 1, won; Imp Judicious (Miller), 3 to 2, second; Aules (Dade), 5 to 1, third. Time 1:08 1-2.

SIXTH RACE—Six and a half furlongs: Toah (Ransch), 3 to 1, won; Kim Clark (Dade), 30 to 1, second; Death (Slack), 6 to 5, third. Time 1:19 3-4.

Today's Entries at Louisville.

A TWINGE OF CONSCIENCE RESTORES MEDAL TO CANN

SAVANNAH, GA., May 8.—(Special.) Sporting, in all its history, probably shows no parallel of an experience that has just befallen Colonel George T. Cann, inspector general of rifle practice, Georgia state troops. Six years ago he shot in a rifle contest in Savannah, on the Avondale rifle range, and made what the records show was the second highest score. The medal fell to the highest score, but it has now reverted to Colonel Cann, who received it yesterday. The conscience of the winner of the trophy assailed him and would permit him no ease until he had made reparation for what he regarded as a wrong done Colonel Cann.

This match was shot in 1896, when an interstate shoot was held here, with teams of marksmen from New York, New Jersey and Washington participating. Colonel Cann and the winner of the medal, a very handsome one of gold, were the closest contestants for it. The northern man, however, ran up the highest score, and Colonel Cann had to admit defeat on his home range.

Several days ago Colonel Cann received a letter from the northern marksman, saying that he had joined the Swedenborgian church, and that the tenets of that faith would not permit him to retain the medal he had won without putting his conscience in a tumult. He wrote as follows:

"I went up to the 600-yards range with a clean score, and the first shot that I made at the 600 was a bullseye. I had not told the scorer that I was not going to take a sighting shot, and he reminded me of this when I asked him if he had got that bullseye. I insisted that he give me the bullseye as regularly made, and he did so. I have since joined the Swedenborgian church and this incident does not comport with its rules. My conscience has troubled me, for I did not win the match in thorough accord with the rules of the contest. Please write me and tell me what you think about the matter."

Colonel Cann wrote in reply that he would not think, as an interested party, of advising his correspondent what he should do in such a case, but that the matter seemed one for conscience to decide. The medal came in due time.

Colonel Cann is thinking of having the lettering on the medal altered so that it may be offered as a prize in a contest at Macon, or at the prospective Savannah shoot.

MARKET REPORTS.

together with the monetary consideration divided among the various milling centers, go far to alleviate the strain and stress at crisal periods of crop.

It may be a matter of surprise, but in spite of the apparent stagnation which was so noticeable at times during last month the total movement was far and away ahead of last year. It might also be remarked of the current season that while the crop increased 30 per cent, receipts of New York are 40 per cent more than last year, all of which shows that this point is appreciated as a source of supply, due to its large assortment, quick transportation and relatively equal prices as compared to any primal point.

Advices from the south note a steady and enlarging demand at nearly all points. Once more the forward supply is under consideration; estimates vary somewhat—all, however, are practically agreed as to the amount distributed during the past month and progress made is such as to assure the going out of crop within the prescribed period. Concerning the new crop, advices from all sections indicate that conditions are generally favorable. In some parts of the southwest there has been a scanty supply of moisture; still, taking the average, the crop is starting under as good auspices as any other crop in the past ten years. Louisiana reports only a slight increase of acreage, but in Texas there is a phenomenal increase and under any reasonable favoring conditions, the outcome of the southwest will be fully 50 per cent ahead of the present year, and furnish a supply equal to present requirements of the United States, and its adjoining colonial possessions.

Cables and correspondence from abroad note increased interest in cargo rice, being a reflection of a more active inquiry for cleaned rice, or "spot" for immediate delivery; prices steady.

Talmage, New Orleans, telegraphs Louisiana crop movement to date: Receipts, rough 1,334,600 sacks; last year 1,016,646 sacks. Sales, cleaned (estimated) 1,129,192 pockets; last year 853,494 pockets. Market strong; good demand.

Talmage, Charleston, telegraphs Carolina crop movement to date: Receipts 41,445 barrels. Sales 39,840 barrels. Market steady; good demand.

Cotton Seed Oil and Meal.

Coffee and Sugar.

New York, May 8.—The coffee market opened steady with prices unchanged and for the balance of the session followed a narrow rut with trading quite of a professional nature and small at that. The European markets were closed owing to a holiday, while the Brazilian markets lacked new feature of interest. The receipts in the crop country were light and clearances for the United States were heavy. Importers sold the market off a trifle in the late session; closed quiet with prices net unchanged to 5 points lower; sales 8,500 bags, including June 5.05; July 5.20; October 5.30, November 5.35, December 5.45; March 5.70. Coffee, spot Rio dull; No. 7 invoice 5¾. Mild dull; Cordova 8¼@12.

New Orleans, May 8.—Sugar strong; open kettle centrifugal 3@3½; centrifugal yellow 3½@4; seconds 2½@3¼. Molasses dull; centrifugal 6@18.

London Wool Market.

London, May 8.—The offerings at the wool auction sales today numbered 15,716 bales. The home trade and continent were active buyers. American representatives were reserved, occasionally purchasing a few good merinos and cross breds at extreme rates. A good selection of scoured was offered and sold freely to France and Germany. Lamb's wool sold well at an advance of 10 per cent. The withdrawals to date amount to 850 bales. Following are the sales in detail:

New South Wales, 3,700 bales; scoured 9½d @1s 7d; greasy 4d@1s ½d.

These Are a Few of the Many Reasons Why You Should Trade Here.

We have the largest store and carry the most complete stock.

From so large a stock you are better fitted and easier suited.

We have everything to wear, for Men and Boys, from good qualities to the highest grades and all are of correct style.

We are Manufacturers—the largest in the South, retailing direct to consumer and save you one profit, selling equal qualities at a less price than others, or better qualities at the same price.

Our store is not only the largest, but is the handsomest, the lightest and the coolest (our cooling plant makes it so). Shopping is a pleasure under such conditions; our treatment when you call makes it doubly a pleasure.

Our Boys' Department.

Our boys' department is the largest in the south, more than 10,000 square feet entirely devoted to their needs. Everything from the little fellow till he grows up to our men's department. Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishings.

Shoes.

No shoes for boys are more serviceable than Hess Shoes.

Hats.

Just the style of hat to make your boy look dressy --- prices right, too.

Men's Clothing.

Ready made suits and coats for every day and dress occasions. Sizes to fit any figure, regular, thin or stout. Selections to meet the most critical tastes. Prices to suit modest purses.

Hats.

We have the most correct shapes to accord with refined dress. Styles which please. Prices which make the hat you desire come within your means.

Shoes.

No other shoe store can match the values we offer. For $3.50 we offer a wide range of styles and leathers, of quality unequaled elsewhere for the price. Sole agents for the famous Hess shoe.

Tailoring.

Take a few of the tailor shops you know and place them together, add a few more to it and you have some idea of the size of our tailoring department. Most select line of imported fabrics for you to choose from.

Furnishings.

The most exclusive of furnishings are sold here at just ordinary prices. You'd be charged fancy prices for our offerings in New York. Largest stock for your choosing.

Underwear.

We have every variety of garment, from the best American, German and French makers. We have them ranging in price from 50c a garment to $7.00 a suit. All sizes of every kind. You can get fitted here—come and try.

Suit Cases, Bags, Hat Boxes.

This is our new department. While 'tis young, it is strong on quality and value. Nothing but genuine leather goods, but you'd not want imitations when you see our prices for solid leather goods.

Our $5 Suit Case.

We like to talk the good points of this suit case. It's so much better than $5 will secure elsewhere. Call and examine its special features of value.

Traveling Bags.

A nice bag is such a convenience when traveling. We have them at very low prices. Some fitted with handsome traveling sets. All kinds of solid leathers.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Plant-Coast Line Affair.

There is a great amount of interest among railroad men as to the actual changes in operation and organization that will result from the merging of the Atlantic Coast Line and the Plant System.

Information given out from various official sources has caused a general understanding that there will be no such sweeping changes in the official organization of the two systems as were predicted at the time the merger was announced, but still there is much speculation as to the relative position which will be assumed by the present officials of the two lines.

The question of the location of the general offices of the two companies has also been widely discussed. Wilmington is the headquarters of the Atlantic Coast Line and as it was the absorbing company it was thought that the offices of the combined lines would probably be located in this city. However, the people of Savannah have been making strenuous efforts to keep the present offices of the Plant system in that city and from the assurances that have been given them they believe that either the general offices of the combined lines or a branch office equal in importance to those of the Plant now maintained in Savannah will be located there after the deal is complete.

The directors of the Plant system will meet in Savannah Monday and the directors of the Atlantic Coast Line in Richmond the same day. Interesting developments are expected to follow these meetings.

Dixie Sunday School Special.

The sixteenth international Sunday school convention meets in the city of Denver, Colo., June 26 to 30, and the southern states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi and Tennessee are combining in a special train from St. Louis to Denver over the Chicago and Alton and the Union Pacific.

The excursion managers of the south are Joseph Carthel, of Montgomery, Ala., for Alabama; Rev. J. Bowman Holley, of Gainesville, Fla., for Florida; George Hains, of Augusta, Ga., for Georgia; John T. Buck, of Jackson, Miss., for Mississippi; W. E. Pelham, of Newberry, S. C., for South Carolina; and Rev. G. O. Bachman, of Nashville, Tenn., for Tennessee. Rev. George O. Bachman, the general secretary of the Tenfessee Sunday School Association, has been working up this excursion, and states that it will undoubtedly be a pronounced success.

The combined delegation of these states will be 196 delegates, and as the rates will be very low and the time of the year suitable for an outing in the mountains, there will no doubt be many visitors in addition to the above, who will take advantage of this excursion. A circular letter will be mailed to upwards of 1,000 persons in the five named states, who may be interested in this great gathering of Sunday school workers, and in this circular letter the delegates are advised to use the railroads nearest to them that give them the best rates and time to St. Louis and purchase round trip tickets from their home office to Denver and return via the Chicago and Alton and the Union Pacific.

In this circular the latest rates will be given and all persons who are interested and who desire sleepers or other information should address the representative within their state. Reservations for sleeper berths will be made by the above through Fred L. Chase, of Atlanta. The special train from St. Louis to Denver will consist of chair cars and sleepers and will have cafe or dining car attached.

Spikes and Cinders.

An item published in The Jacksonville Times-Union and Citizen states that L. A. Shippman, formerly of Jacksonville, but now representing the Ocean Steamship Company in Birmingham, will in a short time return to Jacksonville to enter the insurance business. There has been a good amount of talk as to the probability of Mr. Shippman's being appointed general passenger agent for the Seaboard Air Line to succeed R. E. L. Bunch. Railroad men are interested as to what bearing his removal to Jacksonville will have on this rumor.

Twenty men of the United States signal corps passed through Atlanta yesterday from Washington en route to San Francisco. They left over the Southern at 5 o'clock for Memphis, from which point they will proceed to the Pacific coast via the 'Frisco and the Santa Fe.

May 26 will be negro military day at the Charleston exposition and the officials of the Georgia railroad are making preparations to carry a big crowd from Atlanta. The rate from Atlanta will be $3.50 for the round trip.

William Gray, of St. Louis, assistant general freight agent for the Burlington, will arrive in the city today.

The local officials of the Southern's passenger department have received a letter from Miss Louisa B. Poppenheim thanking them for the courtesy shown the delegation of the South Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs while en route to Los Angeles.

General Manager T. K. Scott and General Counsel Joseph B. Cummings, of the Georgia, were up from Augusta yesterday.

James Freeman, of Macon, traveling passenger agent for the Southern, was in Atlanta yesterday.

Mike O'Connor, southwestern agent for the Seaboard Air Line, returned to New Orleans yesterday afternoon.

Commercial Agent T. C. Tipton, of the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf, is in Augusta.

STATE POLITICAL GOSSIP GATHERED AT THE CAPITAL

PASSING OF POPULISTS.

DOUGLAS, GA., May 8.—(Special.)—By combining with the republicans the populists have managed for the last five or six years to control the politics of this (Coffee) county. In state and county elections the republicans voted with the populists, enabling them to elect the representative and most of the county officers. In national elections the populists voted with the republicans, so in presidential elections the county has gone republican.

This combination was made possible and effective by reason of the large turpentine and saw mill camps in the county, the employees of which were mainly negroes. The naval stores enterprises having worked up the field, have gone to Florida, Alabama and Mississippi and carried with them a majority of the populists' late allies, so that the outlook to them is exceedingly gloomy.

Yesterday the leaders of the party met here to consider the situation. Soon after the assembly met a committee visited the chairman of the democratic executive committee with a proposition to divide the offices and come together. The latter could not see his way clear to the acceptance of such a proposition and would make no trade. Upon report of this failure the "convention" decided to adjourn sine die without making any nominations, leaving it optional with each individual to join in the democratic primary June 5 or not, as he pleased.

This marks the passing of the party in this county. The only mourners are those who have been feeding at the public crib, and now find, like Othello, their occupation gone.

AN UNUSUAL DECISION.

WHAT is said to be an unusual decision was rendered the other day by Judge W. B. Wingfield, of the county court of Putnam, in the case of Frank Z. Curry, judge of the county court of Jackson county, who was on trial on a charge of cheating and swindling. Curry was charged with defrauding the British and American Mortgage Company, Ltd., out of $3,000 to $4,000, and was indicted in the county court of Putnam under section 607 of the code, which prescribes a punishment for cheating and swindling.

The defense filed a demurrer to the indictment, and this demurrer was sustained by the court on the ground that the section of the code in question does not apply to corporations. The section of the code uses the word "individual" in referring to the victim of the crime in question, and Judge Wingfield held that this word did not include corporations. On that ground the indictment was thrown out of court. Curry was indicted jointly with two other men named Freeman. The attorneys in the case say they do not know what course will be pursued in the case now. The state cannot appeal from the decision of the lower court, though it is possible to find another indictment.

One of the lawyers who was interested in the case stated yesterday that the decision was an unusual one, as he had known of numerous persons being tried on the charge of cheating and swindling corporations in Georgia, and had never before seen an indictment thrown out on that ground. The question is one that has never been before the supreme court for its determination.

COMPTROLLER SUSTAINED.

ATTORNEY GENERAL BOYKIN WRIGHT yesterday submitted to Comptroller General W. A. Wright an opinion sustaining his contentions in the matter of the tax returns of the Plant system, or the Savannah, Florida and Western division of that system.

The railroad company declined to return a lot of real estate and the buildings on it in Brunswick on the ground that it was the property of the city of Brunswick, and the railroad merely had a lease on it. It was learned, however, that the lease is an indefinite one. Comptroller General Wright held that the property was taxable, and should be returned at a valuation of about $43,000.

The other point at issue between the railroad and the comptroller general was the question of taxing the new cut off built by the Savannah, Florida and Western between Jesup and Folkston, a distance of about fifty-five miles. This road has been constructed, but is not yet in use, and the company claimed on that ground that it should not be taxed. Comptroller General Wright held that it was taxable whether in use or not. He thinks the same valuation should be placed on it as on the rest of the system's property, which is $10,000 per mile, or a total of about $550,000.

These matters were both submitted to the attorney general, and he rendered a decision yesterday sustaining the contentions of the comptroller general. The latter will insist that both of these pieces of property be returned by the railroad company for taxation.

A DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

UNDER the foregoing caption The Macon Telegraph has the following interesting editorial:

The state democratic executive committee extended a formal and official invitation to the populists of the state to return to the democratic fold and participate in the democratic primary on June 5, as democrats, and it was hoped that the invitation would be accepted, but in Laurens county, and in several other counties recently, they have held meetings and resolved not to accept the invitation. This is to be regretted, but they must be their own judges, of course.

It may be remarked in this connection that Rev. Sam Jones—who says that he is neither a republican, a populist nor a democrat—recently furnished a communication to The Atlanta Journal calling frantically to know whether or not "we" are going to allow the populists to vote, seeming not to know of, or disposed to ignore, the action of the state committee. He argues that a man does not have to be a democrat to vote in this "white" primary. He boasts that he voted for Dawson A. Walker, the republican who ran for governor to succeed Rufus B. Bullock some years ago, and against James M. Smith, our first post-bellum democratic governor, at a time when Georgia was in the throes of carpetbaggism, negroism and political revolution and corruption. He also voted for Seab Wright and James K. Hines. He challenges anybody to challenge his vote.

Brother Jones' political record is not such as to warrant his taking charge of the affairs of the party at this time. Nevertheless under the rules of the party adopted this year he has the right to come in at this time and line up as a democrat, forgetting as the democrats forgive the past. The same rule applies to all other white anti-democrats.

The primary on the 5th of June is a democratic primary. We regret that our friends the populists are not going to be with us as a whole. A part of them will be.

SUMTER COUNTY'S PRIMARY.

AMERICUS, GA., May 8.—(Special.)—The consolidated returns of yesterday's democratic primary completed today shows the nominations of James A. Hixon and W. T. Lane as legislative members.

For county officers, E. L. Bell was nominated for sheriff, Charles Chambless for clerk of the superior court, Brown Small for tax collector, J. P. Rayford for tax receiver, Amos C. Speer for treasurer. Tax Collector Dunn has occupied that office twelve years, and was defeated by only twenty-six votes.

Politics at Leesburg.

Leesburg, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The superior court of this circuit has been going on here this week, Judge Littlejohn presiding. The court has but little business before it this term and has adjourned.

Dupont Guerry had an appointment to speak here yesterday. He reached Leesburg on the 7 o'clock train. The Guerry men had already ordered down from Americus the colored brass band for the occasion. They came down on the same train with candidate Guerry.

Hon. Mark Johnston delivered an address here yesterday during the dinner hour. He was listened to by a good crowd from all parts of the county and made a good impression on the people. Numbers of his hearers came away speaking words of praise for his speech.

LIGHT ON MYSTERIOUS ROW.

Recorder Broyles Will Hear Facts of Fight at Ponce de Leon.

The participants in a mysterious row at Ponce de Leon springs last Monday night have been located and will be given an opportunity to explain the affair this morning to Recorder Broyles.

Dave Boaz, who is said to be a carpenter, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Policemen T. B. Lanford and J. W. Norman. Ben Hughes, a bartender in a Decatur street saloon, was served last night with a copy of charges, and also Mrs. Florence Hudson.

The officers are in possession of the names of four other men, who are said to have been on the scene, and other arrests may follow. Hughes and Mrs. Hudson were both injured in the difficulty and are said to have been struck with a stick in the hands of Boaz.

There are two widely varying versions of the affair and the trial this morning promises to be spicy. Boaz claims to have been attacked without provocation by Hughes, who, he says, threatened to shoot him. He claims he then beat him with a stick in self-defense, accidentally striking the woman.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS.

Candidate 58th Congress 5th District of Georgia, CHARLES I. BRANAN, subject to the Democratic Primary, June 5, 1902.

This will be the most regular and systematic democratic primary ever held in Georgia for governor and congressman on same date. Mr. Branan's friends challenge Colonel L. F. Livingston or any of his hypnotized subjects to deny the fact, that the present regular and systematic primaries, for both governor and congressmen, were brought about directly through Mr. Branan's untiring efforts to secure a fair expression of white votes at the ballot box. And this challenge extends also to any person who disagrees with our first president, that long terms in office are dangerous to our form of government.

THE WEATHER.
